BUCCANEERS

MALCOLM GLAZER ■ OWNER

On January 16, 1995, he stepped to the podium, smiled and promised a winner. The crowd nodded and presumably chuckled. Malcolm Glazer had just paid a record price for an NFL team, but it was a team that was mired in a futile cycle. In a bottom-line business, the Tampa Bay Buccaneers were consistently hitting bottom, winning only 30 percent of their games over 19 seasons of existence. Few thought Glazer could buck that trend.

But the fortunes have certainly changed drastically for the Buccaneers, who have vaulted from the NFL's basement to the top of the NFL universe under Glazer's direction. Glazer's Buccaneers brought Tampa Bay the first Super Bowl title in franchise history with the club's 48-21 victory over the Oakland Raiders in Super Bowl XXXVII on January 26, 2003 in San Diego. The Buccaneers, who were making their first appearance in the NFL's championship game, also claimed the first-ever NFC South title in 2002, the fourth division crown in team history.

With his first Super Bowl title in hand, Glazer has his sights set on continued success and that drive has led to another significant improvement for what he has built as a model franchise in the NFL. On March 17, 2004, the Buccaneers unveiled plans for their new, 145,000 square-foot state-of-the-art training facility, promising a "world-class facility" that will be the finest in the National Football League.

Glazer has also continued to upgrade off the field, hiring Bruce Allen, a veteran of four decades in both professional and collegiate football, as the third general manager in Tampa Bay Buccaneers history on January 9, 2004. Allen, the 2002 NFL Executive of the Year, is reunited with Bucs head coach Jon Gruden after spending the past nine seasons (1995-2003) with the Oakland Raiders, helping guide the Raiders to three AFC West championships, two appearances in the AFC Championship Game and a berth in Super Bowl XXXVII.

Known among his league peers as an innovative thinker, Glazer has infused his team and employees with the determination and dedication to be the best in the NFL. Glazer's commitment to building a championship organization has provided the foundation for the team's rapid rise on the field. That success has resulted in a level of popularity and support that is unmatched in franchise history.

Now the rest of the Tampa Bay community is smiling along with Glazer after the team's title run. The drive to the title began when he hired Jon Gruden as the Buccaneers' seventh head coach in club history on February 18, 2002. Gruden, one of the rising coaching stars in the National Football League, became the youngest head coach in NFL history to win a Super Bowl. He was also the first non-rookie head coach in the history of the NFL to lead his team to the Super Bowl in his first season with a new team.

"Outside of the X's and O's, Mr. Glazer is why we're here," said Pro Bowl FB Mike Alstott. "He came in and built the franchise up, allowed us to get some players in here that cared about winning. It has to start from the owner if you're going to get anywhere and be competitive in this league."

Under Glazer's watch, the Buccaneers can boast an 80-64 (.556) record and five playoff wins, easily the most successful stretch in club annals. Tampa Bay reached the playoffs for the fourth straight time in 2002, the only team in the league to head to the postseason all four years. In addition, the Buccaneers' five playoff appearances since 1997 are tied for tops in the NFL over that span. Prior to Glazer's arrival, the franchise advanced to the postseason just three times in the previous 19 years, from 1976-1994.

Tampa Bay also eclipsed the club record for wins in a regular season with 12 in 2002. In fact, the top four single-season win totals in club history (12 in 2002, 11 in 1999, 10 in 2000 and 10 in 1997) have all come under Glazer's helm.

Tampa Bay, which has been one of the NFL's top teams over the past several years, owns a 57-39 ledger since the start of the 1998 season, a winning percentage of .594 that ranks third in the NFC and sixth in the league.

The 1999 campaign marked one of the most successful seasons in the club's history. Tampa Bay captured its first division title in 18 years, while setting club records with an 11-5 regular-season record and a 7-1 home mark. The Buccaneers reached the NFC Championship Game for then just the second time in franchise history and fell just five minutes shy of their first Super Bowl with an 11-6 loss to the St. Louis Rams.

Glazer has successfully constructed a multi-faceted plan, which calls for stable ownership, a talented coaching staff, knowledgeable personnel executives and a solid business partnership within the Tampa/St. Petersburg communities. The most visible aspect of this plan's success is Tampa Bay's $200 million state-of-the-art Raymond James Stadium, which hosted Super Bowl XXXV in January of 2001. Dubbed the "Crown Jewel of the NFL" by many league insiders, Raymond James Stadium offers an unmatched game-day atmosphere for fans and players alike. All 50 regular season and playoff games at the stadium have been sellouts, and the Bucs can boast a gaudy 35-15 record at home.

Glazer has now turned his attention to constructing the team's new training facility, which will open in August 2006. The spectacular and innovative facility will be built on the Tampa Bay Center mall site across the street from Raymond James Stadium.

The signature of the new facility will be its breathtaking entrance, which features the world's largest football towering nearly five stories tall. Since the team's inception in 1976, Tampa Bay has been based for the last 28 seasons at One Buccaneer Place, a training facility located near the Tampa International Airport. The new facility will take approximately 18-24 months to build and will be ready prior to the 2006 season.

"Just like our stadium, our training facility and administrative offices will be among the finest in the NFL," Glazer says. "To ensure that our facility will be the best, we sent our football and administrative staffers to visit what we felt were the best NFL training facilities and, in some cases, the best collegiate facilities in the country. We instructed our people to take notes and photographs, and to design their respective areas the way they wanted them to be once the facility is finished. The information our people returned with was amazing. Our plan is to take that information, present it to the architects, and let them create the NFL's best training facility."

Over the last several years, the Buccaneers have proved to be major players in free agency, signing Pro Bowl players to boost their offense. Couple those bold moves with some of Glazer's previous off-season maneuvers, and you have a solid football foundation for seasons to come. Since February of 2002, Glazer hired Gruden, extended the contracts of defensive coordinator Monte Kiffin, 2002 NFL Defensive Player of the Year and seven-time Pro Bowl LB Derrick Brooks, and fellow Pro Bowlers K Martin Gramatica and LB Shelton Quarles. During his ownership tenure, Glazer has also provided the necessary financial support to extend the contracts of Pro Bowl CB Ronde Barber and Pro Bowl DE Simeon Rice.

At the conclusion of the 1996 season, Glazer spearheaded massive changes at One Buccaneer Place, home of the team's administrative offices and practice facility, which included more than 20,000 square feet of new office space, a revamped season ticket and club seat purchasing operation, upgraded computers and more than 100 additional employees working to make the Buccaneers one of the most respected organizations in all of professional sports.

Additionally, Glazer, after many years in business, continues to display his personal trademark of accomplishing the "impossible." He devoted a significant amount of time working to make the organization more fan-friendly by greatly expanding fan activities at Buccaneer home games through the formation of the club's special events department in 1997. His mandate to increase player and coach visibility in the community was reflected in the more than 700 appearances made by Buccaneer players, coaches and front office officials last year, including nationally-acclaimed programs such as LB Derrick Brooks' "Brooks' Bunch" trips throughout the world.

"It is important for us to succeed on the field, but I want us to be good citizens in our community as well," Glazer says. "We are role models. Children and adults look up to us. I want us to set the right example."

Glazer's input has been sought on the league level as well, as evidenced by his position on the NFL's Finance Committee, one of the most prestigious working groups of owners in the league.

Glazer, a resident of Palm Beach, Florida, is president and chief executive officer of First Allied Corporation. First Allied serves as a holding company for Glazer's varied business interests.

A true American success story, Glazer began working in his father's watch-parts business at the age of eight. When Glazer was 15, his father died and the son assumed responsibility for the family business and expanded it.

Glazer has owned a diverse portfolio of nationwide investments which have included food service equipment, food packaging and food supplies, marine protein, broadcasting, health care, real estate, banking, natural gas and oil protection, Internet publications, stocks, government securities and corporate bonds. He has been profiled in The New York Times, USA Today, and Forbes Magazine, which stated that Glazer has "an eye for value."

During the 1999 off-season, Glazer launched the much-anticipated Glazer Family Foundation, which is dedicated to assisting charitable and educational causes in the Tampa Bay community. In its five years of existence, the Foundation has donated more than $2 million in programs, tickets, grants and in-kind contributions. This includes supporting the NFL Y.E.T. Centers, donating grant

MALCOLM GLAZER'S RECONSTRUCTION OF THE BUCCANEERS

In 1995, Malcolm Glazer paid a record price for a professional football team that had a 19-year winning percentage of .307. Nevertheless, he predicted success on the field; in fact, practically his first words uttered as new owner of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers were, "We expect to be winners."

Eight years later, the Buccaneers reached the top of the NFL world with their first Super Bowl title on January 26, 2003. The team has enjoyed one of the most remarkable turnarounds in recent sports history. Below is a chronology of the events that led to the Buccaneers being termed a "model franchise" in the NFL.

- Just months after buying the team, Glazer announces that his first priority is to build a new state-of-the-art stadium in the Tampa Bay area.

- On January 22, 1996, Glazer hires Tony Dungy as the sixth head coach in team history, proclaiming the former Minnesota Vikings defensive coordinator as "not only one of the finest coaches, but one of the finest people in the NFL." Glazer's words seem prophetic as Dungy directs the team to a 10-6 record in 1997 and a club-record 11-5 mark in 1999 en route to Tampa Bay's first NFC Central Division title in 18 years.

- On April 9, 1997, the Buccaneers unveil new uniforms sporting primary colors of red and pewter. The team's new look is enthusiastically embraced by players and fans.

- In his continuing efforts to transform the organization into one of the league's model franchises, Glazer undertakes a complete overhaul of the team's front office in 1996, greatly expanding the sales and marketing staffs to meet the team's growing demands.

- Glazer shows his long-term commitment to bringing a championship to Tampa Bay by extending the contracts of key football personnel in 1998. Beginning with a new five-year deal for Dungy, Glazer also locks up General Manager Rich McKay and cornerstone player DT Warren Sapp. The Bucs then sign FB Mike Alstott, LB Derrick Brooks and S John Lynch, among others, to long-term deals.

- Glazer and his sons open Raymond James Stadium in grand style with a 27-15 victory over the Chicago Bears before a crowd of 66,321 fans. After trailing 15-0 at half-time, the Buccaneers storm back with 27 unanswered points to defeat the Bears. Tampa Bay's win is the first of 32 in 42 games over five seasons at RJS.

- After signing Pro Bowl linemen Jeff Christy and Randall McDaniel to shore up the offensive line, Glazer gives McKay the go-ahead to trade both 2000 first-round picks to the New York Jets for WR Keyshawn Johnson. The Bucs then sign Johnson to an eight-year contract.

- Tampa Bay lands two of the biggest names on the free-agent market in 2001, signing Pro Bowlers QB Brad Johnson and DE Simeon Rice to five-year contracts.

- The Buccaneers name Jon Gruden the seventh coach in team history on February 18, 2002.

- Tampa Bay completes the busiest off-season in team history by signing Pro Bowl WR Keenan McCardell on June 8, 2002. McCardell joins several other acquisitions, including RB Michael Pittman, WR Joe Jurevicius, Pro Bowl TE Ken Dilger, G Kerry Jenkins and T Roman Oben.

- The Buccaneers advance to their first-ever Super Bowl with a convincing 27-10 victory in the NFC Championship Game over the Philadelphia Eagles in the final game at Veterans Stadium on January 19, 2003.

- Tampa Bay defeats the Oakland Raiders, 48-21, on January 26, 2003, in Super Bowl XXXVII in San Diego's Qualcomm Stadium to give the Buccaneers their first-ever Super Bowl title.

- Bruce Allen, the 2002 NFL Executive of the Year, is named the third General Manager in club history on January 9, 2004. Allen joins Tampa Bay after spending the previous nine seasons (1995-2003) with the Oakland Raiders, helping the team to three division titles, two AFC Championship Game appearances and a berth in Super Bowl XXXVII.

- Tampa Bay reclaims one of the greatest players in club history by naming Doug Williams personnel executive for the team on February 12, 2004. A former first-round draft pick by Tampa Bay in the 1978 NFL Draft (17th overall), Williams led the Bucs to the first three playoff appearances in team history (1979, 1981 and 1982), including an appearance in the 1979 NFC Championship Game in just the club's fourth year of existence.

- The Bucs unveil plans for their new, 145,000 square-foot state-of-the-art training facility on March 17, 2004, promising a "world-class facility" that will be the finest in the National Football League. The spectacular and innovative facility will be built on the Tampa Bay Center mall site across the street from Raymond James Stadium. Since the team's inception in 1976, Tampa Bay has been based at One Buccaneer Place, a training facility located near the Tampa International Airport.

money to 100 organizations, providing 600,000 Buccaneer bookmarks to public libraries throughout seven Bay area counties, supplying 6,000 backpacks to 30 organizations for its back-to-school program and distributing 115,000 teddy bears to hospitalized children through the "Cheering You On" program.

Glazer's philanthropic and charitable activities have also included significant local involvement with the Tampa Bay Sports Commission, an organization that promotes amateur sports activities. In 1997, Glazer committed to donate up to $2 million to the Commission and the Foundation has contributed more than $520,000 to date.

A resident of Palm Beach, Florida, Malcolm Glazer was born in Rochester, New York. He and his wife, Linda, have six children: Avram, Kevin, Bryan, Joel, Ed and Darcie.

BRYAN GLAZER ■ EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT

Entering his 10th season as the Executive Vice President of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, Bryan Glazer's leadership has been instrumental in the team's ascension through the National Football League ranks. During Glazer's tenure, the club has become one of the most recognizable and successful franchises in the NFL, as well as one of the most technologically advanced clubs in all of professional sports.

Glazer and his entire family were on hand as Tampa Bay claimed its first NFL title with a 48-21 victory over Oakland in Super Bowl XXXVII in San Diego on January 26, 2003. The Buccaneers, who were making their first appearance in the NFL's championship game, also claimed the first-ever NFC South title in 2002, the fourth division crown in team history.

During the 2002 off-season, Bryan worked with brothers, Edward and Joel, in hiring one of the rising coaching stars in the NFL in Jon Gruden. Glazer, and his family, showed their commitment to building a championship team for the Tampa Bay/St. Petersburg community with the hiring of Gruden, who became the youngest head coach in NFL history to win a Super Bowl. Gruden was also the first non-rookie head coach in the history of the NFL to lead his team to the Super Bowl in his first season with a new team.

This past off-season saw Glazer help acquire one of the NFL's top executives. Glazer named Bruce Allen, a veteran of four decades in both professional and collegiate football, as the third general manager in Tampa Bay Buccaneers history on January 9, 2004. Allen, the 2002 NFL Executive of the Year, is reunited with Gruden after spending the past nine seasons (1995-2003) with the Oakland Raiders, helping guide the Raiders to three AFC West championships, two appearances in the AFC Championship Game and a berth in Super Bowl XXXVII.

Glazer is now working diligently on helping the organization prepare for the next step in the future, a new, 145,000 square-foot state-of-the-art training facility, promising a "world-class facility" that will be the finest in the National Football League. The spectacular and innovative facility, which will open in August 2006, will be built on the Tampa Bay Center mall site across the street from Raymond James Stadium. The signature of the new facility will be its breathtaking entrance, which features the world's largest football towering nearly five stories tall. Since the team's inception in 1976, Tampa Bay has been based for the last 28 seasons at One Buccaneer Place, a training facility located near the Tampa International Airport.

An instrumental force in his family's purchase of the Buccaneers in 1995, Glazer has been the driving force in improving every aspect of the club's influence both nationally and in the Tampa/St. Petersburg communities. His commitment to the organization and the local community culminated with the club's effort in constructing the finest facility in professional sports – 66,000-seat Raymond James Stadium, which successfully hosted Super Bowl XXXV in January 2001.

Along with brothers Joel and Edward, Bryan oversees the day-to-day operation of the entire franchise, including financial operations, marketing and communications. Since the purchase of the team, he has devoted a significant amount of his efforts to such massive projects as the development and construction of Raymond James Stadium, the overhaul of the team's logo, colors and uniforms and the restructuring and expansion of the Buccaneers' staff.

Since Glazer assumed his current role with the club, the Buccaneers can boast an 80-64 (.556) record and five playoff wins, easily the most successful stretch in club annals. Tampa Bay reached the playoffs for the fourth straight time in 2002, the only team in the league to head to the postseason all four years. In addition, the Buccaneers' five playoff appearances since 1997 are tied for tops in the NFL over that span. Prior to Glazer's arrival, the franchise advanced to the postseason just three times in the previous 19 years, from 1976-1994.

Under Glazer, Tampa Bay has attracted some of the top free agent talent over the past few off-seasons. Allen has signed more than 30 new players since joining the organization following the 2003 season, including five Pro Bowl performers. Prior to the 2002 season, the team signed Pro Bowl WR Keenan McCardell and added other acquisitions, including QB Rob Johnson, RB Michael Pittman, WR Joe Jurevicius, Pro Bowl TE Ken Diler, G Kerry Jenkins and T Roman Oben. In 2001, the Buccaneers signed two Pro Bowlers in QB Brad Johnson and DE Simeon Rice. Tampa Bay also inked Pro Bowl C Jeff Christy in 2000 and then pulled off the biggest trade in franchise history by acquiring Pro Bowl WR Keyshawn Johnson from the New York Jets.

worked alongside stadium architects and contractors to produce his vision of what the premier stadium in the NFL should resemble. Glazer oversaw all phases of the construction of Raymond James Stadium, where the Buccaneers have notched an impressive 35-15 record. The state-of-the-art stadium features such amenities as 19-inch wide seats with chairbacks, cupholders, and armrests, concourse televisions, full color replay boards at both ends of the stadium, one of the most sophisticated scoreboard systems in all of professional sports and the centerpiece of the stadium – the luxurious club seats and air-conditioned club lounges that make Tampa Bay's stadium the envy of the NFL.

Glazer also created the club's "Pewter Partners" concept, which rewards the Buccaneers' sponsors with deeper advertising packages, reduced advertising clutter and unprecedented customer service.

In 1996-97, Glazer worked closely with designers and graphic artists from NFL Properties in New York and Los Angeles to develop and refine the Buccaneers' new logo, which was successfully unveiled before an estimated crowd of 5,000 Buccaneer fans at the Tampa Bay Convention Center on April 9, 1997. The new logo, which drew rave reviews from such national media outlets as USA Today, Fox Sports, The New York Times, and The Washington Post, consists of a skull and crossed swords on a blood-red, wind swept flag that is displayed on unique pewter-colored helmets. The modifications, based on research of Caribbean buccaneer history, were the first significant changes to the logo and uniform in team history.

A native of Rochester, the 39-year-old Glazer makes countless community and charitable appearances on behalf of the organization, and is a member of the Board of Directors of the Ronald McDonald House. Glazer earned his bachelor's degree in broadcast communications from American University in 1986 prior to completing his law degree from Whittier College School of Law in 1989.

JOEL GLAZER ■ EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT

Heading into his 10th year as Executive Vice President, Joel Glazer had a single vision, shared by all members of the Glazer family when they acquired the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1995 – build a franchise from the ground up, one that would become one of the most respected and successful franchises in the NFL. That vision was realized when Tampa Bay claimed its first NFL title with a 48-21 victory over Oakland in Super Bowl XXXVII in San Diego on January 26, 2003. The Buccaneers, who were making their first appearance in the NFL's championship game, also claimed the first-ever NFC South title in 2002, the fourth division crown in team history.

During the 2002 off-season, Joel worked with brothers, Bryan and Edward, in hiring one of the rising coaching stars in the NFL in Jon Gruden. Glazer, and his family, showed their commitment to building a championship team for the Tampa Bay/St. Petersburg community with the hiring of Gruden, who became the youngest head coach in NFL history to win a Super Bowl. Gruden was also the first non-rookie head coach in the history of the NFL to lead his team to the Super Bowl in his first season with a new team.

This past off-season saw Glazer help acquire one of the NFL's top executives. Glazer named Bruce Allen, a veteran of four decades in both professional and collegiate football, as the third general manager in Tampa Bay Buccaneers history on January 9, 2004. Allen, the 2002 NFL Executive of the Year, is reunited with Gruden after spending the past nine seasons (1995-2003) with the Oakland Raiders, helping guide the Raiders to three AFC West championships, two appearances in the AFC Championship Game and a berth in Super Bowl XXXVII.

Next up for Glazer: helping lead the design for the future cornerstone of the franchise, a new, 145,000 square-foot state-of-the-art training facility, promising a "world-class facility" that will be the finest in the National Football League. The spectacular and innovative facility, which will open in August 2006, will be built on the Tampa Bay Center mall site across the street from Raymond James Stadium. The signature of the new facility will be its breathtaking entrance, which features the world's largest football towering nearly five stories tall. Since the team's inception in 1976, Tampa Bay has been based for the last 28 seasons at One Buccaneer Place, a training facility located near the Tampa International Airport.

Under Glazer, Tampa Bay has attracted some of the top free agent talent over the past few off-seasons. Allen has signed more than 30 new players since joining the organization following the 2003 season, including five Pro Bowl performers. Prior to the 2002 season, the team signed Pro Bowl WR Keenan McCardell and added other acquisitions, including QB Rob Johnson, RB Michael Pittman, WR Joe Jurevicius, Pro Bowl TE Ken Diler, G Kerry Jenkins and T Roman Oben. In 2001, the Buccaneers signed two Pro Bowlers in QB Brad Johnson and DE Simeon Rice. Tampa Bay also inked Pro Bowl C Jeff Christy in 2000 and then pulled off the biggest trade in franchise history by acquiring Pro Bowl WR Keyshawn Johnson from the New York Jets.

After successfully negotiating an agreement to acquire the Buccaneers in 1995, Glazer, along with his brothers Bryan and Edward, began the day-to-day duties of overseeing all aspects of the organization. Since Glazer assumed his current role with the club, the Buccaneers can boast an 80-64 (.556) record and five playoff wins, easily the most successful stretch in club annals. Tampa Bay reached the playoffs for the fourth straight time in 2002, the only team in the league to head to the postseason all four years. In addition, the Buccaneers' five playoff appearances since 1997 are tied for tops in the NFL over that span. Prior to Glazer's arrival, the franchise advanced to the postseason just three times in the previous 19 years, from 1976-1994.

Prior to the hiring of Gruden, Glazer directed his attention on other vital elements of building a successful franchise, namely the front office and the stadium. After completely reorganizing the front office, bringing in talented people from a variety of backgrounds, Glazer worked tirelessly alongside Bryan and Rich McKay to build a community consensus for local approval of what would later become Raymond James Stadium. Glazer and his brother set out to design a stadium deemed worthy of a first-class organization, thereby creating a winning environment and revolutionizing the fan's experience and comfort at a stadium. They visited approximately 25 different stadiums, drawing from their experiences as fans and ultimately shaping every detail of RJS.

A massive undertaking, the stadium opened on time and budget to rave reviews, earning nods as the "crown jewel of the NFL." Raymond James Stadium featured amenities never before seen in modern stadiums, including the 24'x92' BucVision video boards now emulated at all new stadiums. However, the true signature of Raymond James Stadium is Buccaneer Cove, featuring the 103' larger-than-life replica pirate ship. With the pieces of the puzzle in place, as well as a state-of-the-art new stadium, the stage was set to put a final stamp on the rebirth of the franchise. The team needed a new look. Glazer, along with Bryan, worked closely with NFL Properties to create a dynamic look that would illustrate the attitude and class of the franchise. The result was a complete logo and uniform redesign, introduced to rave reviews. Buccaneers merchandise sales immediately soared throughout the country, vaulting the Buccaneers into the top of NFL merchandise sales almost immediately. On the field, the new look helped create the attitude of a winner.

EDWARD GLAZER ■ EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT

As Executive Vice President, Edward Glazer has made significant contributions to the Buccaneers and the Tampa Bay community, helping bring the first Super Bowl crown to the area with its 48-21 victory over Oakland in Super Bowl XXXVII in San Diego on January 26, 2003.

Overseeing all aspects of the club's administrative offices, Glazer has aggressively worked to implement comprehensive improvements at each level of the organization.

Edward has also been working closely with his brothers, Bryan and Joel, in the design of the Buccaneers' new training facility. This new facility will be a technological marvel and set a new standard of excellence for training facilities in the NFL. The 145,000 square-foot state-of-the-art training facility, which will open in August 2006, will be built on the Tampa Bay Center mall site across the street from Raymond James Stadium. The signature of the new facility will be its breathtaking entrance, which features the world's largest football towering nearly five stories tall. Since the team's

Throughout the construction of RJS, Glazer created the sales and marketing strategies and campaigns that led to record season ticket club seat, luxury suite and group sales. In addition to helping create the club's prestigious corporate "Pewter Partners," Glazer's other duties include overseeing the organization's annual budgets and establishing the club's strategic planning in marketing, community relations, public relations, ticketing and luxury suite relations.

In addition to his duties within the Buccaneers organization, Glazer also represents the team at all NFL Owners' Meetings.

Since moving to Tampa in 1995, Glazer has been very active in the Tampa Bay community. Glazer Family Foundation programs such as "Cheering You On," "Prevent Blindness" and the "Ticket Rewards" programs are just a few of the programs he takes great pride in. In addition, Glazer has been an active member of the Super Bowl Task Force, Tampa Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors and the Outback Bowl Advisory Committee.

Glazer, 37, earned his bachelor's degree in interdisciplinary studies from American University in 1989. The Rochester, New York native lives in Tampa with his wife, Angela. Angela is a licensed psychologist with a Masters and PhD in clinical psychology from the California School of Professional Psychology. She has done extensive work in the Tampa Bay community and is on the board for the PACE Center for Girls, Inc., which provides at-risk girls an opportunity for a better future through education, counseling, training and advocacy.

inception in 1976, Tampa Bay has been based for the last 28 seasons at One Buccaneer Place, a training facility located near the Tampa International Airport.

During the 2002 off-season, Edward worked with brothers, Bryan and Joel, in hiring one of the finest coaches in the NFL in Jon Gruden. Glazer, and his family, showed their commitment to building a championship team for the Tampa Bay/St. Petersburg community with the hiring of Gruden, who became the youngest head coach in NFL history to win a Super Bowl.

This past off-season saw the Buccaneers acquire one of the NFL's top executives. Bruce Allen, a veteran of four decades in both professional and collegiate football, was named the third general manager in Tampa Bay Buccaneers history on January 9, 2004. Allen, the 2002 NFL Executive of the Year, is reunited with Gruden after spending the past nine seasons (1995-2003) with the Oakland Raiders, helping guide the Raiders to three AFC West championships, two appearances in the AFC Championship Game and a berth in Super Bowl XXXVII.

Glazer spearheaded the development, design and construction of www.buccaneers.com, the team's official website. Upon its introduction, The New York Times said Buccaneers.com "bustles with information" and was "potent." In addition, the Tampa Bay Advertising Federation, recognized Buccaneers.com as the region's top interactive media effort by awarding it a "Best of the Bay" Addy Award. Glazer oversaw the launch of a new web site prior to the 2003 season. The result was a site which earned the top honors as the number one designed website in all professional sports according to Sports Business Journal magazine.

Glazer is also heavily involved in the Glazer Family Foundation, helping implement new programs including the "Cheering You On" program that gives every child admitted to a local hospital a Buccaneers teddy bear and activity book to date the program has given out more than 115,000 teddy bears.

On the field, Tampa Bay reached the playoffs for the fourth straight time in 2002, the only team in the league to head to the postseason all four years. In addition, the Buccaneers' five playoff appearances since 1997 are tied for tops in the NFL over that span. Prior to the arrival of the Glazer family, the franchise advanced to the postseason just three times in the previous 19 years, from 1976-1994. This success has translated into unprecedented season-ticket sales. Since 1998 every Buccaneers game has been sold out. In fact, the team boasts a season ticket waiting list of 108,000, which is the third-highest list in the NFL behind only Green Bay and Washington.

Along with his brother Joel, Glazer continues to oversee all aspects of the team's sales campaign, including television, radio and outdoor billboards.

In 1998 the brothers were the driving force behind the Buccaneers' nationally recognized club seat sales film designed to educate fans about the luxurious club seating available at Raymond James Stadium. The film, hosted by ABC Sports Al Michaels, won such prestigious awards as the Communicator Crystal Award and the Telly Award for short film. By winning a Telly, the club seat film was singled out as one of the year's most outstanding non-network video productions and received notable mention in various film and trade publications across the country.

One of Glazer's most popular concepts with the fans has been the "Buccaneer Battle Flags," a dramatic game enhancement that has become a staple at home games. Each time the Buccaneer offense advances into the opposition's "red zone," the red flags are raised throughout Raymond James Stadium.

In addition to his role with the Buccaneers, Glazer plays a leading role in the family's Real Estate business as the head of acquisitions for the First Allied Corporation. First Allied is the holding company for real estate investments in more than 20 states.

Glazer and his wife Shari have been deeply committed to providing aid and assistance in the community. Shari has been involved with organizing the charity work of the Buccaneer Women's Organization, which annually hosts children from the Boys and Girls Clubs, The Spring, Joshua House and the Children's Home at local petting zoos and cultural events at the Tampa Bay Performing Arts Center. Shari has volunteered her time at many local charities, including Camp Good Days and Special Times, the Children's Cancer Center, and the Tampa AIDS Network, where she served as co-chairperson for the Tampa AIDS Walk for two years. Shari was also named honorary co-chair for the Susan G. Komen Tampa Bay Race for the Cure.

Edward Glazer was born in Rochester, New York and earned a bachelor's degree from Ithaca College.

BRUCE ALLEN ■ GENERAL MANAGER

Bruce Allen, a veteran of four decades in both professional and collegiate football, was named the third general manager in Tampa Bay Buccaneers history on January 9, 2004.

Allen spent the previous nine seasons (1995-2003) with the Oakland Raiders, helping guide the Raiders to three AFC West championships, two appearances in the AFC Championship Game and a berth in Super Bowl XXXVII. Allen is reunited with head coach Jon Gruden. The pair worked together in Oakland from 1998-2001.

"I've had the pleasure of being associated with some of the most legendary owners, coaches and players in the history of the NFL," said Allen at a press conference after his arrival in Tampa Bay. "We look forward to our future here with high hopes and great expectations."

Recognized as the 2002 George Young NFL Executive of the Year by The Sporting News, Allen is widely respected around the league. Since his arrival in Tampa Bay, Allen has played a key role in the re-shaping of the Buccaneers' roster. More than 30 new players were added through free agency, the draft and via trade. Before joining the Raiders, Allen established GBA Sportsworld, an athlete representation and marketing company in 1985.

Allen's first stint as a General Manager came in 1982 with the USFL, working with his father, the late Hall of Famer George Allen - who was a legendary coach with the Los Angeles Rams and Washington Redskins in the 1960's and 1970's. As the GM of the USFL's Chicago Blitz and later Arizona Wranglers, Allen worked with his dad, who served as each team's head coach. Together the pair helped lead Chicago (1983) and later Arizona (1984) to the playoffs.

In 1982, Allen began his executive career in professional football as Vice President of Operations for the Montreal Alouettes of the Canadian Football League. In his two previous years, he worked for New York-based WR Grace & Co. in their retail division, while serving as a scout for the Raiders and serving as head coach and general manager of a semi-pro football team.

At just the age of 22, Allen was named head coach at Occidental College in 1980, just one year after coaching quarterbacks at Arizona State in 1979.

Allen first embarked into professional football as a 12th-round selection by the Baltimore Colts in 1978. He played football at the University of Richmond from 1974-77 where he earned a degree in business marketing. As a Spider, he garnered All-ECAC and All-South Independent honors during his junior season when he ranked 16th in the nation and broke a school punting record with a 42.9-yard average.

A native of Pasadena, California, Allen and his wife, Kiersten, have a son, George (7), and daughter, Mikayla (6).

Along with his father, who was elected to the Hall of Fame in 2002, Allen's brother, George, also holds a position of distinction. He was elected to the United States Senate in 2000 after serving as the 67th Governor of Virginia from 1994-98. Allen has two other siblings who both reside in Los Angeles, Greg, a psychologist, and Jennifer Richard, a well-known author.

JON GRUDEN ■ HEAD COACH

Jon Gruden stood in front of a standing-room only crowd at a downtown Tampa hotel on February 20, 2002, the day he was officially introduced as head coach of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

"I'm thrilled to be here, and all I can guarantee is a lot of hard work and effort to try to put the Buccaneers into championship form."

Gruden said that day.

Less than 11 months later, Gruden had more than delivered on his promise. Tampa Bay had claimed its first NFL title with a 48-21 victory over Oakland in Super Bowl XXXVII in San Diego on January 26, 2003. The Buccaneers, who were making their first appearance in the NFL's championship game, also claimed the first-ever NFC South title in 2002, just the fourth division crown in team history.

Over that period, the Buccaneers established a club record for victories in a regular season with 12 wins, breaking the previous mark of 11 in 1999, and their 15 overall wins were the most for a club in the then 27-year history of the franchise. In addition, Gruden became the youngest head coach in NFL history to win a Super Bowl and was also the first non-rookie head coach in the history of the NFL to lead his team to the Super Bowl in his first season with a new team. In the process, Gruden became just the third coach since 1966 to win 40 games before his 40th birthday while also becoming only the third head coach in NFL history (also Mike Holmgren with Green Bay and Seattle and Tony Dungy with Tampa Bay and Indianapolis) to lead a different team to a playoff appearance in consecutive years.

Gruden was named the seventh head coach in Tampa Bay Buccaneers history on February 18, 2002 after leading the Oakland Raiders to division titles in each of the final two seasons (2000-01). The NFL's youngest head coach at 40 (he turns 41 on August 17, 2004), Gruden had steered the Raiders to a 38-26 regular season mark in his four seasons (1998-2001) with the club, including postseason appearances in 2000 and 2001. Under Gruden, the Raiders advanced to the AFC title game in 2000 and lost in a second round playoff game to eventual Super Bowl champion New England following the '01 campaign. Gruden's offenses finished among the league's Top 10 in each of the last three seasons with the Raiders, including fifth in 1999.

"We took our time and got the man we really wanted, and we couldn't be more thrilled," said Buccaneers Executive Vice President Bryan Glazer after the hiring. "This was one of the most important decisions in the history of this franchise and it certainly paid off in a big way."

After his arrival in Tampa Bay, Gruden worked tirelessly to attract some of the league's most sought-after offensive free agents to improve a unit that ranked tied for 26th in the NFL in 2001. RB Michael Pittman, Pro Bowl WR Keenan McCardell, WR Joe Jurevicius, Pro Bowl TE Ken Dilger, G Kerry Jenkins and T Roman Oben all joined the Buccaneers. Tampa Bay's offense finished 24th in total offense in 2002, but the unit came together down the stretch, averaging 35.3 points and 334.0 yards per game in its three postseason contests. Even more impressive was the fact that the offense allowed just one total sack in the postseason after giving up nearly 2.5 per game in the regular season.

Under Gruden's watch, QB Brad Johnson finished first in the NFC and third in the NFL in passer rating and established club single-season records in touchdowns (22), completion percentage (62.3), lowest interception ratio (1.3%) and passer rating (92.9). He became the first quarterback in team history to lead the NFC in passer rating and also earned a pair of NFC Offensive Player of the Week honors, becoming the first offensive player in club history to accomplish that feat.

On the other side of the ball, the Bucs defense made a case as one of the greatest in NFL history. Tampa Bay became the first team since the 1985 Chicago Bears to lead the league in total defense, fewest points allowed and total interceptions. Tampa Bay ranked first in the NFL in both total defense (252.8 ypg) and pass defense (155.6 ypg) for the second time in team history. The Bucs defense also ranked first in the league in fewest points per game (12.3), opponent passer rating (48.4), interceptions (31), fewest yards per play (4.2) and fewest first downs (236).

In 2002, Tampa Bay's defense featured five Pro Bowlers - 2002 NFL Defensive Player of the Year LB Derrick Brooks, S John Lynch, LB Shelton Quarles, NFC Sack Leader DE Simeon Rice and 1999 NFL Defensive Player of the Year DT Warren Sapp. CB Brian Kelly ranked tied for first in the NFL with eight interceptions in 2002 and Rice ranked first in the NFC and second in the NFL with 15.5 sacks, one sack shy of his career-high of 16.5 sacks.

BUCCANEERS

The Bucs' offensive revival continued in 2003 as the Bucs reached all-time franchise season-highs in both total offense (340.8 ypg) and passing offense (237.8 ypg), while ranking in the league's Top 10 in both categories in the same year for just the second time in team history (also 1984). Tampa Bay ranked 10th in total offense and sixth in passing offense, tying for the best final rankings in club history. The offense also ranked fifth-best in the NFL in fewest sacks allowed with 23.

Tampa Bay's defense also remained among the NFL's elite in 2003, continuing its streak in the top 10. The defense ranked fifth in the NFL, marking the seventh straight year the defense has finished among the NFL's Top 10, the only team to accomplish that feat. The Bucs' defensive unit also finished third in passing defense, marking the seventh time in the last eight seasons, including three straight, that the club has finished in the Top 10 in pass defense.

Prior to his arrival in Tampa, the Raiders ranked seventh in the NFL in total offense, including fourth in passing offense, on their way to a second consecutive division title in 2001. Oakland won its first back-to-back AFC West crowns since 1982-83. The Raiders also ranked first in the AFC in red zone touchdown percentage and Pro Bowl QB Rich Gannon was the conference leader in passing, throwing for 3,828 yards and a completion percentage of 65.8. Over his last three seasons under Gruden, Gannon totaled 949 completions on 1537 attempts (61.7%) for 11,098 yards with 79 touchdowns and just 34 interceptions.

Five Raiders were named to the 2002 Pro Bowl squad, including WR Tim Brown, who made his ninth trip to Hawaii this past season. CB Charles Woodson made his fourth consecutive trip to the Pro Bowl, while Gannon, who led the AFC with a 95.5 QB rating, headed to Hawaii for the third straight season. Gannon was named the game's MVP in each of the last two contests.

The Raiders ranked among the NFL's elite in offense, defense and special teams under Gruden's leadership in 2000, advancing to the AFC Championship Game. The offense led the league in rushing at nearly 155 yards per game and ranked third in the NFL in scoring at almost 30 points per game. Oakland's 58 touchdowns were tied for the second-most in the league. The Raiders ranked fifth in the NFL in rushing defense (96.9 rushing yards allowed) and fourth in the AFC (seventh in NFL) in takeaways with 37. The Raiders led the NFL in touchbacks (15) and in net punting average (38.0). Gruden and his staff also coached the victorious AFC squad in the Pro Bowl.

In 1999, Gruden led the Raiders to an 8-8 record despite facing the toughest schedule of any NFL team. The Raiders ranked third in rushing yards and fifth in total offense in 1999. In 1998, his first year as the Raiders' Head Coach, Gruden led the Silver and Black to a four-game improvement over the previous year, going 8-8 and the defense finished fifth in the NFL. Gruden inherited a Raiders team that had not posted a winning season since 1994, but quickly returned Oakland to the postseason.

Gruden was the third-youngest head coach in the 40-year history of the Oakland franchise. Raiders owner Al Davis was 33 when he was named head coach and general manager of the Silver and Black in 1963. John Madden was 32 when he was promoted to the head post in 1969.

Gruden spent the three seasons (1995-97) before arriving in Oakland as offensive coordinator for the Philadelphia Eagles. Gruden was the NFL's youngest offensive coordinator at age 31 when Eagles head coach Ray Rhodes hired him in 1995. The Eagles had a 26-21-1 record during his tour of duty, including playoff appearances after both the 1995 and 1996 campaigns in the highly competitive NFC Eastern Division.

In 1997, the Eagles ranked second in passing, fifth in rushing and third in total offense in the NFC. In 1996, they led the NFC in passing, were second in rushing and led the conference in total offense. In Gruden's first season as an NFL offensive coordinator in 1995, the Eagles finished fourth in the entire league in rushing.

Before joining Philadelphia, Gruden worked for three seasons with the Green Bay Packers from 1992-94. He served as an offensive assistant to Packers head coach Mike Holmgren in 1992, then spent the 1993 and 1994 seasons as Green Bay's receivers coach.

As a seven-year NFL assistant, Gruden saw his teams qualify for the playoffs five times. He also coached five seasons at the collegiate level. Gruden spent the 1991 football season in the college ranks as wide receivers coach at the University of Pittsburgh under head coach Paul Hackett.

Gruden was an offensive assistant to head coach George Seifert with the San Francisco 49ers in 1990, working closely with offensive coordinator Mike Holmgren. The 49ers were an NFL-best 14-2, finally losing in the NFC Championship Game.

In his first four seasons in the coaching profession from 1986-1989, Gruden was an assistant at the University of Tennessee in 1986 and 1987 as the Volunteers totaled a 17-7-1 record and won against Big Ten opponents in the Liberty Bowl and Peach Bowl. In 1988, he was passing game coordinator at Southeast Missouri State and in 1989 coached wide receivers at the University of Pacific.

Born August 17, 1963 in Sandusky, Ohio, Gruden attended South Bend Clay High School in Indiana and was a three-year letterman at quarterback at the University of Dayton, graduating in 1985 with a degree in Communications. The Flyers had a 24-7 record in Gruden's three varsity seasons there and Gruden was honored with the prestigious Lt. Andy Zulli Memorial Award, given to the senior player who best exemplifies the qualities of sportsmanship and character. Gruden and his wife Cindy, a former University of Tennessee cheerleader, have three sons, Jon II, 10, Michael, 7 and Jayson, 5.

Gruden has already made an impact in the Tampa Bay community, serving as a spokesperson for the Florida Citrus Commission, which is focused on building statewide awareness of the ways in which citrus contributes to Florida's social and economic welfare. He also sponsors a ticket program called Gruden's Gridiron, in which he and Cindy host youth from Hillsborough County Schools at every Bucs home game. Kids are selected to sit in Gruden's Gridiron based on their displaying good conduct, a positive attitude and success in the classroom.

Following Tampa Bay's Super Bowl victory in January, 2003, Gruden, along with QB Brad Johnson, was the first non-player ever invited by Disney to star in their popular post-Super Bowl "What's Next" commercial. His off-the-field popularity continues to grow, marked by the success of his 2003 book "Do You Love Football? Winning with Heart, Passion, and Not Much Sleep," which he wrote with longtime NFL scribe Vic Carucci. Gruden was also named one of People Magazine's "50 Most Beautiful People in the World" in 2001. Gruden was also the recipient of the 2002 Coach of the Year honor at the ESPY awards and was recognized as Professional Coach of the Year at the 37th Victor Awards in 2003.

Gruden's father, Jim, is a veteran of 34 professional and collegiate football seasons who enters his first season as personnel consultant with the Buccaneers in his second stint with the club. Prior to returning to the organization, Gruden spent 17 seasons with the San Francisco 49ers, most recently as a regional scout responsible for the Southeast region. Before working with the 49ers, he spent five seasons with Tampa Bay as director of player personnel (1984-86) and running backs coach (1982-83).

His brother, Jay, served as an offensive assistant coach with the Buccaneers in each of the last two seasons and has spent the past 15 seasons in professional football, 14 of which in the Arena Football League. In four seasons (1998-2001) as head coach of the Orlando Predators, Jay led the team to a 35-21 record, including three ArenaBowl appearances with two championships. In six seasons as quarterback of the Tampa Bay Storm from 1991 to 1996, Jay won four ArenaBowl championships. He returned to the playing field for the 2002 and 2003 seasons as Orlando's quarterback, but he returned for his second stint as head coach of the Predators during the 2004 season. Jay played quarterback at Tampa's Chamberlain High School before heading to Louisville to play for head coach Howard Schnellenberger. Jay's wife, Sherry, worked in the Buccaneers' marketing department from 1993-96. Gruden's other brother, Jim, is chief radiologist at Emory University in Atlanta.

GRUDEN AMONG LEAGUE'S BEST

Bucs head coach Jon Gruden is among the league's elite when it comes to victories over the last few seasons. Gruden's 57 victories over the last six seasons (1998-2003) are fourth-best in the league and his 41 wins since the start of the 2000 season are tied for fifth-most among all NFL coaches. Gruden owns a 41-23 record (.641) over that span. In addition, his career winning percentage of .594 (57-39) stands tied for ninth-best among active coaches.

MONTE KIFFIN ■ DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

22nd NFL Season, 9th with Buccaneers

Long considered the NFL's best defensive coordinator and famed architect of the 'Tampa Cover 2,' Monte Kiffin enters his 22nd season in the NFL and ninth with the Buccaneers in 2004.

Kiffin, the most experienced assistant on the defensive staff, consistently confuses and smothers enemy offenses with an ingenious variety of perfectly timed blitzes, coverage disguises and an array of ball-hawking schemes that seemingly always place defenders in position to cause and recover a fumble or pick off an errant pass.

Last season, Kiffin's defense again proved to be one of the league's most dominating units. The Buccaneers finished the year ranked fifth in total defense (279.1 ypg), marking the seventh consecutive season (1997-2003) the defense finished in the top 10, the longest streak in the NFL. The unit also finished in the top 10 in passing defense for the seventh time in the last eight seasons, ranking third in 2003 (169.4 ypg).

The defense also saw some impressive streaks extended, and ultimately end, in 2003 under Kiffin. The defensive unit established an NFL record by posting at least one sack in its 69th consecutive game at Carolina in Week 10. Tampa Bay had recorded a take-away in 54 consecutive games, the second-longest streak in the NFL over the past 20 years, until the defense failed to post a take-away in Week 15 against Houston. The Bucs defense also registered at least one sack and one takeaway in 50 straight contests, the longest streak in the league since 1963, before the streak was snapped against Green Bay in Week 11.

Under Kiffin's guidance, three Bucs defenders earned Pro Bowl honors in 2003. DE Simeon Rice, who ranked second in the NFL with 15.0 sacks, garnered his third trip to Hawaii and second consecutive as a Buccaneer while also earning second-team All-Pro honors. Long time leaders of the defense, LB Derrick Brooks and DT Warren Sapp were named to their seventh consecutive Pro Bowls, breaking Lee Roy Selmon's team record for total and consecutive appearances. Brooks was also tabbed second-team All-Pro in 2003. During Kiffin's tenure, the defense has produced 28 Pro Bowl selections over the last eight seasons. Prior to that, the Buccaneers' defense had just 12 Pro Bowl selections in the previous 20 years.

Ranking fourth in the NFL and second in the NFC in points allowed (16.5 ppg), the defense posted two shutouts in 2003 to tie the 2002 squad for the most in a single season in team history. With four shutouts in the past two seasons, the Bucs equaled their output from the franchise's first 26 years of existence when they totaled four shutouts. Since 1996, Kiffin's first year in Tampa Bay, the Buccaneers have posted six shutouts to rank third in the NFL. Kiffin's defense has also allowed the fewest points (1,802) in the NFL since 1997.

The catalyst for Tampa Bay's Super Bowl championship in 2002 was Kiffin's suffocating defense that finished the season as the top-ranked unit in the NFL. The Buccaneers became the first team since the 1985 Chicago Bears to lead the league in total defense (252.8 ypg), fewest points allowed (196) and total interceptions (31). Under Kiffin's command, the Bucs were one of only four teams in the NFL to rank in the top 10 in all three defensive categories. Tampa Bay also ranked first in passing defense (155.6 ypg) and tied for fifth in rushing defense (97.1 ypg).

The Bucs' defense was once again proficient at keeping opponents off the scoreboard in 2002, as it led the league in points allowed at a paltry 12.25 per game. The 196 total points surrendered by the Bucs last season eclipsed the previous team-low of 223 set in 1977 and ranked fifth all-time in NFL history in a 16-game schedule. While the defense was characteristically stingy in 2002, it was its ability to provide an abundance of scoring that distinguished Kiffin's 2002 version. The Bucs defense scored 30 points, led by Brooks' four defensive TDs. The five defensive TDs and four INT returns for TDs in 2002 matched team records set in 1981 and 2000. Additionally, Tampa Bay did not allow a defensive TD in five of eight road contests in 2002.

Employing an attacking style that is predicated on speed, Kiffin's unit continued its impressive play in the 2002 postseason, shutting down some of the league's best offenses and brightest stars. During the divisional playoff win against the San Francisco 49ers and the NFC Championship victory over the Philadelphia Eagles, Tampa Bay allowed just 16 points. They turned it up a notch, taking center stage in the Buccaneers' 48-21 win over the Oakland Raiders in Super Bowl XXXVII. Tampa Bay recorded a Super Bowl-record five interceptions, including three picks which were returned for touchdowns off NFL MVP Rich Gannon. The Buccaneers allowed the Raiders just 269 total yards, including 62 total yards in the first half, and 19 total rushing yards. Tampa Bay's ferocious defensive line posted five sacks, capping off one of the most dominating defensive performances in Super Bowl history.

The success of his defense did not go unnoticed in 2002 as S John Lynch, LB Shelton Quarles, Brooks, Rice and Sapp were selected to the Pro Bowl. The formidable trio of Brooks, Rice and Sapp also received AP All-Pro First Team accolades while DBs Ronde Barber and Lynch garnered second team honors.

In 2001, Kiffin's defense finished among the top 10 in overall defense for the fifth consecutive season. That season also saw Kiffin's opportunistic defense tie Green Bay with an NFC-leading 39 turnovers and paced the entire NFL with 28 interceptions.

During the 2000 campaign, Kiffin's troops boasted four Pro Bowlers and three first-team All-Pro selections, and Tampa Bay finished among the league's Top 10 in overall defense. The defense established team records for sacks (55) and tied a single-season record with five defensive touchdowns. Sapp also set the club single-season mark with 16.5 sacks in 2000. After a 3-4 start, the Buccaneers won seven of their last nine games to reach the NFC playoffs for the third time in four seasons. The primary catalyst for that run was Kiffin's defense, which produced 27 turnovers resulting in 73 points over that nine-game stretch.

The Buccaneer defense was just as impressive in 1999. Boasting four Pro Bowlers and three first-team All-Pro selections, Tampa Bay's defense electrified the league with one of the most dominating defensive stretches in recent memory. The Bucs rallied to win eight of nine games to capture their first NFC Central title in 18 years. In the playoffs, Tampa Bay's defense posted phenomenal performances. The Bucs held Washington's second-ranked offense to 157 total yards and no offensive TDs in Tampa Bay's 14-13 divisional playoff win. Both of the Bucs' scores came off Redskins turnovers. In the NFC Championship Game, Kiffin's lightning-quick defense held the top-ranked Rams offense to 11 points, 22 below their season average.

Tampa Bay finished third in the league in total defense, first in the NFC. The Bucs allowed just three 100-yard rushers and set club single-season marks for fewest points allowed (235), fewest opponent first downs (228), fewest opponent rushing yards (1,407), fewest opponent rushes (361) and lowest opponent completion percentage (52.7 percent).

And, in the process, certain members of Kiffin's crew became household names. Sapp posted a then career-high 12.5 sacks en route to NFL Defensive Player of the Year honors from the Associated Press. Brooks racked up 180 tackles, cementing his status as the league's fastest and most fearsome LB. Lynch collected 128 stops, reaffirming his rank among the league's hardest hitters. All three players earned first-team All-Pro honors for the first time.

Kiffin came to Tampa Bay after spending the 1995 campaign as the defensive coordinator for the New Orleans Saints. In 1995, the Saints tied for fourth in the NFL in sacks with 44. Just prior to coaching in New Orleans, Kiffin spent four seasons (1991-94) as an assistant coach for the Minnesota Vikings, serving as defensive coordinator for head coach Jerry Burns in 1991 and as inside linebackers coach for head coach Dennis Green and defensive coordinator Tony Dungy from 1992-94. During that tenure in Minnesota, the Vikings led the league in both total defense and run defense in 1994.

In 1990, Kiffin tutored the linebackers for the New York Jets under head coach Bruce Coslet and defensive coordinator Pete Carroll. Kiffin originally joined the Vikings as the team's linebackers coach from 1986-89. During that time, he coached standout Viking LBs Scott Studwell, Chris Doleman and Mike Merriweather. In both '88 (255.7, 4.3) and '89 (261.5, 4.1), Minnesota was the league leader in both total defense and yards allowed per play.

From 1984-85, Kiffin coached linebackers for the Buffalo Bills, overseeing players like Darryl Talley and Jim Haslett who later coached with Kiffin in New Orleans. Kiffin's first professional coaching job came in 1983 as the linebackers coach for the Green Bay Packers under Bart Starr.

Kiffin was the head coach at North Carolina State from 1980-82, compiling a 16-17 record, including 6-5 marks in 1981 and '82. Former Philadelphia Eagle Pro Bowl WR Mike Quick played for the Wolfpack under Kiffin. From 1977-79, Kiffin was defensive coordinator for Lou Holtz at Arkansas while also serving as assistant head coach in '79. Arkansas led the nation in scoring defense in 1977.

Kiffin began his coaching career at Nebraska, where he worked from 1966-76 under both Bob Devaney and Tom Osborne. Kiffin directed a Cornhuskers defense that led Nebraska to consecutive national championships in 1970-71. When Osborne became Nebraska's head coach in 1973, he named Kiffin as his defensive coordinator.

As a player, Kiffin was both an offensive and defensive tackle at Nebraska from 1959-63. Following graduation, he sat out the 1964 season because of a knee injury before playing defensive end for the Winnipeg Blue Bombers of the Canadian Football League in 1965.

Each season Kiffin provides tickets to each home game in "Kiffin's Korner" for a group of children at the Lorretta Ingraham Community Center. Located near Raymond James Stadium, the community center and its kids are paid regular visits by Kiffin as he often passes by during his daily runs. Kiffin was also involved with the first-ever "Buccaneers Coaching Academy." The hands-on clinic for area high school coaches focused on several essential areas of football knowledge and player development.

A native of Lexington, Nebraska, Kiffin was that state's High School Athlete of the Year in 1958. Monte and his wife, Robin, live in Tampa. They have three children, including daughter Heidi and sons Lane, who is the wide receivers coach at the University of Southern California, and Chris, a senior defensive lineman at Colorado State University.

BILL MUIR

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR ■ OFFENSIVE LINE COACH

27th NFL Season, 7th with Buccaneers (Scout from 1978-81)

Bill Muir, who has spent 22 seasons as an NFL assistant, is in his second stint with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

Entering his 39th overall year in the coaching profession, Muir has served in a myriad of capacities, including as an assistant coach, offensive coordinator, defensive coordinator, defensive line and offensive line coach, as well as working in the personnel departments as a scout. Muir, who is regarded as one of the league's finest instructors, joined Tampa Bay in 2002 after spending seven seasons as the offensive line coach for the New York Jets.

Behind the valor of Muir's unit, the Buccaneers offense finished 2003 as the 10th rated offense in the NFL, marking the second time in club history that Tampa Bay finished the season ranked in the top 10 in total offense in the NFL. Under the protection of the offensive line, QB Brad Johnson once again set several team passing records in 2003 as he broke his own team record with 26 touchdown passes and set team single-season records for attempts (570), completions (354) and tied the club mark for 300-yard passing games with four last season. Most impressively, the offensive line prevented Johnson from being sacked in a team-record 160 consecutive pass attempts in 2003. His 3,811 passing yards also established a team record as Johnson started all 16 games for the third time in his career.

The production of Muir's line was also evident in the marked improvement in the Bucs running game in 2003. Buccaneers RBs accumulated 1,579 yards on the ground, with both RB Michael Pittman and RB Thomas Jones surpassing the 600-yard rushing plateau. Pittman's 751 rushing yards were the second highest total of his career and his 4.0-yards per carry average surpassed his career average of 3.7 yards per carry. Jones also bested his career average, churning out an impressive 4.6 yards per carry behind Muir's line to dwarf his career 3.5 average by more than a yard. His 627 rushing yards were also a career high.

As is often evident throughout the NFL, Muir and the Buccaneers offense had to endure a litany of changes to the offensive front five in 2003. T Roman Oben appeared in 15 games with 13 starts while missing only one game and three starts with a broken right hand suffered in practice leading up to the Week 8 contest against Dallas. Manning the other tackle position in 2003 was Kenyatta Walker, who started 14 games, missing two late season games because of a right elbow infection. Three of Walker's starts came on the left side for the injured Oben. Backing up at RT was fourth-year pro Cornell Green, playing in eight games with five starts in relief of Walker. Three of Muir's linemen saw significant action at both guard positions last season. Cosey Coleman started every game in 2003, starting the first five games at LG before returning to RG for his last 11 starts. Kerry Jenkins appeared in all 16 games, starting the season's final 11 games at LG when Coleman returned to the right side. One of last offseason's free agent acquisitions, Jason Whittle, battled injuries throughout the year to appear in 16 games with five starts at RG. C John Wade, another free agent acquisition, was the only member of Muir's offensive line to start all 16 games at one position in 2003.

Despite losing several starts due to injury, Muir's unit displayed consistent improvement throughout the 2002 season, culminating with the Buccaneers first Super Bowl championship. Super Bowl XXXVII saw the offensive line pave the way for RB Michael Pittman as he ran for a game and season-high 124 yards on 29 carries (4.3 avg.). The entire offensive unit was stout throughout the playoffs, surrendering only one sack in three postseason contests.

QB Brad Johnson established new club single-season records in touchdown passes (22), completion percentage (62.3), lowest interception ratio (1.3%) and passer rating (92.9). Against Cleveland, the offensive line paved the way for the Bucs' highest rushing total since the 2000 season with 186 yards while also not allowing a sack. The line also turned in a stellar performance against Minnesota as Brad Johnson threw five touchdown passes and was not sacked. In the rematch against Atlanta in Tampa, the unit helped to pound out 150 yards on the ground and 421 yards of total offense, the highest total of the season. Additionally, Tampa Bay's offensive line helped the Bucs net 779 rushing yards (4.1 avg.) in the club's final seven games (includes postseason).

In 2001, the Jets finished with their best rushing totals during Muir's tenure with the club. Behind Pro Bowl RB Curtis Martin, the Jets finished fourth overall in rushing offense and second in the AFC, averaging 128.4 yards per game, which marked the best ranking rushing offense since the Jets finished fifth in that category in 1991. Martin earned his fourth Pro Bowl selection after finishing second in the NFL with a career-high and club-record 1,513 yards rushing and 10 touchdowns. Martin has posted four consecutive 1,000-yard rushing seasons behind the Jets offensive line. Under Muir's direction, the Jets allowed the fewest sacks in the AFC (19), which also marked the second-lowest total in the NFL. In addition, Muir was instrumental in the development of C Kevin Mawae, who was selected to his third consecutive Pro Bowl in 2001.

In 2000, New York's offensive line tied Indianapolis for the fewest sacks allowed (20), despite being part of an offensive line that had the most pass attempts of any team in the NFL. The Jets offense averaged 337.2 yards per game, and Martin raced for 1,204 yards rushing, including galloping for a club-record 203 yard rushing day against Indianapolis.

Muir displayed his outstanding teaching and developmental skills in 1999 when he integrated three new starters on the offensive line — Guards Randy Thomas and Kerry Jenkins and RT Ryan Young in the starting lineup. Despite the injuries, Muir developed a cohesive unit that helped Martin post a then-team record 1,464 yards rushing, marking just the third time in team history that a Jets running back has posted consecutive 1,000 yard campaigns.

In 1998, the offensive line paved the way for the Jets to finish second in the AFC and fourth in the NFL, racking up 357.2 yards per game. The Jets concluded the season second in the AFC and third in the NFL in time of possession (32:17) time of possession. In 1997, the offensive line helped Adrian Murrell become just the second back-to-back 1,000-yard rusher in team history, despite starting tackles Jumbo Elliott and David Williams missing significant action. In 1996, Muir's offensive line helped pave the way for Murrell's first 1000-yard season.

Muir joined the Jets after spending three seasons with the Philadelphia Eagles in the same capacity (1992-94). He was instrumental in an Eagles' rushing attack that averaged 110.1 yards per game over two seasons (1993-94) and ranked 4th in the NFC and 9th in the NFL in 1994. Prior to joining the Eagles, he spent three seasons with Indianapolis as an assistant head coach/offensive line in 1991 and defensive coordinator in 1989-90. He has also served as an offensive line coach with the Detroit Lions from 1985-88 and New England Patriots from 1982-84.

Muir is in his second stint with the Buccaneers organization. He spent four years with the Buccaneers as a college scout and in pro-player personnel from 1978-81. During his first tenure with the Buccaneers, Tampa Bay advanced to the postseason twice (1979 and 1981) and reached the NFC Championship Game in 1979 in just its fourth year of existence.

Muir began his coaching career at the collegiate level at his alma mater Susquehanna (1965) before moving onto Delaware Valley, Rhode Island, Idaho State, Southern Methodist, Orlando of the Continental Football League and the Texans of the World Football League. He played at Susquehanna from 1962-64 and was inducted into the school's Hall of Fame in 1990 after being named to the school's "Top 100" players of all-time in recent study done at the conclusion of the millennium.

Prior to the 2003 season, Muir participated in the first-ever "Buccaneers Coaching Academy." The hands-on clinic for area high school coaches focused on several essential areas of football knowledge and player development.

Muir was born in Pittsburgh and is married to wife Barbara. The couple has two children, daughter Keelan and son Brady as well as one grandchild, Ryan James.

ROD MARINELLI

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH ■ DEFENSIVE LINE COACH

9th NFL Season, 9th with Buccaneers

Rod Marinelli returns for his ninth season as Tampa Bay's assistant head coach/defensive line coach. One of the game's most innovative instructors on the finer points of technique, leverage and balance, Marinelli's defensive line was again one of the league's most respected and feared units in 2003.

Marinelli, who has coached on the collegiate and pro level for the last 28 seasons, has directed one of the most productive defensive lines in the NFL. Tampa Bay has racked up 191 sacks over the last five NFL seasons (1999-2003) and Marinelli's unit helped set an NFL record as the Bucs defense posted a sack in 69 consecutive games from 1999-2003. During Marinelli's eight-year tenure in Tampa Bay, a Buc defensive lineman has ranked in the top 15 in sacks in the NFL on six occasions and in the top 10 four times.

The 2003 season saw the Bucs total 36 sacks to rank tied for 13th in the NFL as the defensive line corralled opposing quarterbacks for 31 sacks. With Marinelli's guidance, DE Simeon Rice continued to be one of the league's most dominating defensive players in 2003. Rice earned his third career and second consecutive Pro Bowl selection last season, totaling 15.0 sacks to rank tied for second in the NFL. He was also named second-team All-Pro while leading the team with six forced fumbles and ranking second with 10 passes defended. Rice's 15 sacks were the third-most sacks in a single season in Bucs history and the third highest single season total in his career. His four-sack effort in Week 6 at Washington earned him NFC Defensive Player of the Week honors while also tying the franchise single-game sack record. In his time with Marinelli, Rice has put together the best three-year stretch of his career since arriving in Tampa in 2001. In the last 38 regular season games, no NFL player has recorded more sacks than the 38.5 posted by Rice.

As one of the game's all-time great DTs, Warren Sapp anchored the interior of Marinelli's defensive line and remained the team's vocal leader in 2003. Marinelli was instrumental in the development of Sapp, who set a Bucs single-season mark with 16.5 sacks in 2000. Sapp earned his seventh consecutive Pro Bowl nomination last season and along with LB Derrick Brooks, broke Hall of Famer Lee Roy Selmon's team record for total appearances and consecutive appearances. His five sacks ranked second on the team, marking the eighth consecutive year under Marinelli that Sapp either led or ranked second on the team in sacks. In fact, Sapp averaged 9.3 sacks per season during Marinelli's eight-year tenure with the club and his 74.0 sacks ranks tied for fifth in the NFL during that time and second among DTs. Anthony McFarland manned the other DT position for Marinelli in 2003, starting all 16 games for the second time in his career. McFarland ranked third among defensive linemen with 54 tackles and also recorded his first career INT last season. He also chipped in 2.5 sacks, one fumble recovery and three passes defended in 2003.

Starting at the LDE position in 2003 was Greg Spires. The solid and steady performer started 15 games last season before being placed on injured reserve in the final week because of a left shoulder injury. Spires contributed 3.5 sacks in 2003, including a career-high 2.5 sack performance against Houston, marking his first career multi-sack game as a Buccaneer. The defensive line's primary reserve, DT/DE Ellis Wynn, provided versatility along the front four as he appeared in 13 games and posted 22 tackles and two sacks before succumbing to a sprained left knee in the last month of the season.

Tampa Bay's 2003 second-round pick, DE Dewayne White saw limited action in his first season with Marinelli, appearing in 13 games with one start. Rounding out the defensive line was third-year DT Chartric Darby, who totaled two sacks and 13 tackles while seeing action in 16 games with one start in 2003.

Sapp and Rice were vital in the Bucs success in 2002 as both garnered AP All-Pro first-team honors. Marinelli was part of his first Super Bowl title as his dominating front four helped to secure the Buccaneers first-ever championship in Super Bowl XXXVII. The Bucs defense posted 43.0 sacks in 2002, tied for sixth in the NFL, with the defensive line responsible for 36.0 of the sacks. The line's strong 2002 campaign culminated with an unparalleled performance in the Super Bowl as Raiders QB Rich Gannon was pressured into throwing a record five interceptions. The defensive line finished the Super Bowl with five sacks, four passes defended and a forced fumble.

Under Marinelli, Rice had arguably his most productive season as a professional as he was named to his second Pro Bowl and first as a Buccaneer in 2002. He finished the season first in the NFC and second in the NFL with 15.5 sacks. Rice also set a NFL single-season record by posting two or more sacks in five consecutive games and finished 2002 with a team-leading six forced fumbles. Rice led all defensive linemen with 11 passes defended and ranked second with 75 tackles. In Super Bowl XXXVII, Rice notched two sacks and five tackles while also dropping Rich Gannon behind the line of scrimmage to thwart a Raiders two-point conversion attempt. Sapp was named to his sixth consecutive Pro Bowl in 2002 (tying the club record for total appearances and consecutive appearances) while starting all 16 games. Sapp finished with 7.5 sacks, good for second on the team and tied for first in the NFC among DTs. Sapp was first among defensive linemen with 78 tackles, while also notching a career-high two INTs, a forced fumble, a fumble recovery and three passes defended. One of the game's top instructors, Marinelli weathered the loss of talented DT Anthony McFarland by filling his spot with a duo of then second-year players in Wymys (5.5 sacks) and Darby (1.5 sacks).

In 2001, his unit was spearheaded by the efforts of Rice, who had signed with the Buccaneers in the offseason. Despite the transition into a new defense, Rice led the team with 11.0 sacks in 2001. The Buccaneers' defensive line continued to wreak havoc in opposing backfields during the 2000 season, yet another nod to Marinelli. His troops finished tied for second in the NFL after racking up a single-season record 55 sacks, 45.5 of which came courtesy of the team's front four. Sapp posted 16.5 sacks in 2000, breaking Lee Roy Selmon's single season mark of 13 established in 1978. Sapp added a career-high 76 tackles, easing the transition for second-year McFarland, who posted 6.5 sacks. Marinelli also oversaw the development of DE Marcus Jones, who ripped through opposing defensive lines to record a career-high 13 sacks.

Sapp collected a then career-high 12.5 sacks in 1999, earning NFL Defensive Player of the Year honors from the Associated Press and his third Pro Bowl berth. He became the first Buccaneer since Selmon (1979) to win the AP honor. But Sapp's linemates also turned in outstanding seasons. DT Brad Culpepper paced the line with 72 tackles and added six sacks, while first-year starter Steve White emerged as a force during Tampa Bay's playoff run. And Jones, who moved from tackle to end, collected 36 tackles and seven sacks after posting just 32 stops and one sack in his three previous seasons. Marinelli also saw flashes of brilliance from rookie McFarland, the Buccaneers' first-round pick.

In 1998, Marinelli's unit collected 37 sacks and ranked eighth in the league against the run. In 1997, Tampa Bay's defensive line racked up a club single-season record 44 sacks. That season, Sapp emerged as a bonafide star as the Bucs made their first playoff appearance in 15 years.

A veteran of 20 seasons as a college assistant coach, Marinelli came to Tampa Bay after spending the 1995 season as the defensive line coach at Southern Cal under John Robinson. From 1992-94, Marinelli was the assistant head coach/defensive line for head coach Bruce Snyder at Arizona State. In 1993, three of his starting linemen earned All-Pac-10 honors. Shante Carver was an All-America pick and was also a finalist for the Outland and Lombardi trophies before being selected in the first round of the draft by the Dallas Cowboys.

From 1983-91, Marinelli coached the defensive line at California, adding assistant head coach to his title for his final two Golden Bear seasons. Snyder became the school's head coach in 1987 and retained Marinelli. While at California, Marinelli coached several future NFLers including Chidi Ahanotu, Rhett Hall and Natu Tueatagalo.

Marinelli's first coaching job came in 1976 from Snyder who was then the head coach at Utah State. From 1976-81, Marinelli oversaw the Aggies' defensive line before becoming USU's offensive line/special teams coach for the 1982 campaign. In six seasons as the defensive line coach for Utah State, three of his players (Rulon Jones, Mike Perko, Shawn Miller) won conference Defensive Player of the Year honors. Marinelli began his coaching career at his alma mater, Rosemead High School in San Gabriel Valley, California, from 1973-75.

Marinelli played offensive and defensive tackle at Utah in 1968 before serving a one-year stint in Vietnam. He returned from the service and attended California Lutheran from 1970-72, earning NAIA All-America honors as an offensive tackle in '72. Marinelli earned his bachelor's degree in physical education and a minor in history from CLC.

During the 2002 season, Marinelli lent his coaching knowledge to "NFL 101," a program that educates women on the terminology, formations, strategy and basics of football.

Born in Rosemead, California, Rod and his wife, Barbara, reside in Tampa. The family includes daughters Chris and Gina. Chris is married to Joe Barry, Tampa Bay's linebackers coach. Marinelli also has two granddaughters and two grandsons.

JOE BARRY ■ LINEBACKERS COACH

5th NFL Season, 4th with Buccaneers

Joe Barry enters his fourth season as Tampa Bay's linebackers coach. In 2002, his second season with the club, Barry helped lead the Buccaneers to their first Super Bowl title in franchise history.

Barry's linebacking unit again proved to be a strength of the Buccaneers defense in 2003. Led by perennial All-Pro LB Derrick Brooks, the defense ranked fifth in the NFL, marking the seventh consecutive year the defense has finished among the NFL's Top 10. The defensive unit also finished third in passing defense, marking the seventh time in the last eight seasons, including three straight, that the defense has finished in the Top 10 in that category. Brooks, along with DT Warren Sapp, earned his club record seventh consecutive Pro Bowl bid in 2003 while also capturing second-team Associated Press All-Pro honors. He started all 16 games and led the team in tackles for the sixth straight year with 151 stops, while also ranking tied for second with two interceptions.

Coming off his first Pro Bowl selection in 2002, MLB Shelton Quarles was expected to team with Brooks in 2003 to present the NFL's most dominant linebacking duo. However, Barry was forced to shuffle the lineup prior to the season opener when Quarles sustained a left forearm fracture and elbow dislocation in practice. Fourth-year pro Nate Webster was inserted into the starting lineup for the season's first five games, during which time he notched 10 or more tackles in four of his five starts. Despite only starting five games, Webster finished seventh on the team with 66 tackles in 2003. Quarles returned to the starting lineup in the season's sixth game and remained highly productive throughout 2003 despite being limited with his injury. In just 11 starts in 2003, Quarles totaled 110 tackles to rank third on the team.

Manning the final starting linebacker spot in 2003 was second-year SLB Ryan Nece. Nece, whose rookie season came to an end after tearing his left ACL midway through the year, earned the starting job following a solid 2003 training camp. The undrafted free agent out of UCLA played in 15 of 16 games with 10 starts, ranking sixth on the team with 70 tackles.

Despite a pair of changes in the starting lineup, Barry's linebacking corps helped Tampa Bay finish atop the NFL in total defense and pass defense in 2002. Under Barry's direction, Brooks was named NFL Defensive Player of the Year while also earning his sixth consecutive Pro Bowl berth, tying a team record for total and consecutive appearances. He was also selected to the AP All-Pro first-team for the third time in his career as he led the defense in tackles (170). While his defensive leadership and sure tackling were consistently evident in 2002, it was his penchant for finding the end zone that routinely separated him as he recorded three INT returns for touchdowns, making him the only linebacker in NFL history to ever accomplish such a feat. He also added a fumble return for a TD at Atlanta. Brooks' four TDs on turnovers in 2002 tied for the second-most in a single season in NFL history. He again found the end zone in the win against Oakland in Super Bowl XXXVII, intercepting a Rich Gannon pass and returning it 44 yards for a TD in the fourth quarter to secure the Buccaneers first Super Bowl title. Barry also tutored Quarles, who made a seamless transition to MLB in 2002, starting all 16 games while being selected to appear in his first Pro Bowl. Quarles finished second on the team with a career-high 159 tackles while also adding a sack and two INTs, including one returned for a TD. His two INTs were also a career-high. Alshermont Singleton, in his first season as a starter at SLB, amassed a career-high 89 tackles, one sack, one INT, a forced fumble and three passes defended. Singleton's 89 tackles ranked fifth on the team.

Prior to joining the Buccaneers in 2001, Barry spent the 2000 season as defensive quality control coach for the San Francisco 49ers and the 1999 season coaching linebackers under John Robinson at UNLV. Prior to that, he worked with linebackers and defensive ends at Northern Arizona for three seasons from 1996-98.

Barry was a two-year letterwinner as a linebacker at Southern Cal and then worked as a defensive graduate assistant for two seasons (1994-95) at USC. He served as a co-captain during his senior year in 1993.

Barry's father, Mike, is currently the offensive line coach at North Carolina State. His father-in-law, Rod Marinelli, is the assistant head coach for the Buccaneers and he has also coached the defensive line for the last eight seasons.

Last offseason, Barry lent his coaching knowledge to "NFL 101," a program that educates women on the terminology, formations, strategy and basics of football.

Barry and his wife, Chris, have two daughters, Camryn and Lauren and twin sons Nickolas and Samuel, who were born this past off-season.

JEREMY BATES ■ ASSISTANT QUARTERBACKS COACH

3rd NFL Season, 3rd with Buccaneers

Jeremy Bates enters his third season with the Buccaneers and first as the assistant quarterbacks coach. After spending the last two seasons as an offensive quality control coach, Bates will work closely with head coach Jon Gruden and quarterbacks coach

In his first season as a coach in the NFL in 2002, Bates helped to guide an offensive unit that displayed consistent improvement throughout the season, culminating with an impressive performance in Super Bowl XXXVII against the Oakland Raiders.

Bates, who graduated from Rice University, began his collegiate playing career as a quarterback at the University of Tennessee in 1995. Bates also played quarterback at Rice and was a second baseman for the baseball squad.

His father, Jim Bates, is defensive coordinator of the Miami Dolphins, and his brother, James, played linebacker at the University of Florida and helped lead the Gators to the 1996 National Championship. Bates hails from Sevierville, Tennessee.

RICHARD BISACCIA ■ SPECIAL TEAMS COACH

3rd NFL Season, 3rd with Buccaneers

Richard Bisaccia enters his third season as Tampa Bay's special teams coach.

In his second season under Bisaccia, P Tom Tupa enjoyed another solid campaign in 2003, ranking third in NFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors for his effort in Week Three. Tupa also ranked fifth in the NFC with 26 punts placed inside the 20-yard line and tied his own single-game team record with a 52.0 average at New Orleans. He also became the Buccaneers all-time gross punting average leader (min. 100 attempts) with a 43.0 average in his two seasons with the Buccaneers. Third-year CB Corey Ivy led the team in special the NFC with a team record 43.3-yard average while also earning teams tackles for the second consecutive season, finishing 2003 with 16 takedowns. Led by Bisaccia, the special teams overcame a litany of injuries to remain a productive force in 2003.

In 2002, the Buccaneers special teams enjoyed success throughout the season and proved vital in the franchise's first-ever Super Bowl title. Recognized as one of the best kickers in the NFL, Martin Gramatica hit 32-of-39 (82.1%) FG attempts in 2002, including 5-of-6 from 50 or more yards while also hitting all 32 of his PATs. Gramatica tied for the NFC lead with a career-high 32 field goals, while his 39 field goal attempts and 128 points in 2002 were new club single-season records. Tupa's 42.8-yard average ranked fourth in the NFC and he set a team single-season record with 30 punts placed inside the 20. He also set a Buccaneers single-game record for gross punting average (52.0) in a game at New Orleans. RB Aaron Stecker, the squad's primary kick returner in 2002, posted a 25.2-yard average on 37 returns, good for fifth in the NFC. Stecker's 23.8 career kickoff return average ranks first in club history among all returners who have at least 20 career kickoff returns. Punt returner Karl Williams finished the season ninth in the NFC with a 9.5-yard return average on 43 returns. His long of 56 yards was returned for a TD at Baltimore. Under Bisaccia, Ivy was named the club's 2002 Special Teams Player of the Year after leading the club with 23 special teams tackles.

Bisaccia joined the Buccaneers in 2002 after spending the previous three seasons at the University of Mississippi. Bisaccia served as running backs coach and special teams coordinator while also handling additional administrative duties as assistant head coach in 2000 and 2001.

Bisaccia tutored All-SEC performers Deuce McAllister, Joe Gunn and Les Binkley during his tenure. Ole Miss also excelled in special teams under Bisaccia, with Binkley setting a single-season scoring mark for a kicker. In 2000, the Rebels returned both a kickoff and a punt for a touchdown, and the 2001 unit led the conference and ranked 12th in the nation in kickoff returns with a 24.4-yard average. Jason Armstead finished second in the SEC and ninth nationally with a 27.6-yard average on kickoff returns in 2001.

McAllister, who was chosen in the first round of the 2001 NFL Draft by New Orleans, established 18 school records in his career. He ended his career with a team-record 3,060 yards rushing and was named all-conference in both 1999 and 2000. McAllister was also selected to the All-SEC team as either an all-purpose player or a punt returner during his final two seasons. In 1999, both McAllister and Gunn earned first-team All-SEC recognition as they formed one of the top rushing tandems in the nation, combining for more than 1,700 rushing yards. Gunn closed his career in 2001 second to McAllister in rushing yards with 2,749.

Prior to his stint at Ole Miss, Bisaccia spent five seasons (1994-98) as the running backs coach, special teams coordinator and recruiting coordinator at Clemson. Under his tutelage, the Tigers set a school record with eight blocked kicks in 1997, and were the only team in the nation to have four players ranked in four special teams categories in 1995. Bisaccia also coached threetime All-Atlantic Coast Conference running back Raymond Priestler, who set 18 school rushing records. Over the three-year period from 1995-97, Clemson had 15 blocked kicks, the most-ever for a three-year span in school history. In addition, Tony Horne ended his Tiger career ranked sixth in career kickoff return yardage and 16th in punt return yardage.

Bisaccia also served on the coaching staff at South Carolina from 1988-93, beginning as a graduate assistant for tight ends and receivers. He also served as a volunteer assistant coach for defensive ends. Bisaccia took over as an assistant coach in charge of running backs and special teams in 1992 and 1993. Under Bisaccia, the Gamecocks led the SEC in kickoff returns in 1992 and set a school record for blocked kicks. South Carolina also had a pair of All-SEC running backs in Brandon Bennett and Rob DeBoer.

Bisaccia began his coaching career in 1983 at Wayne State College in Nebraska, coaching defensive backs and special teams. He switched to the offensive side of the ball in 1984, tutoring quarterbacks and receivers for the next four seasons (1984-87) in Wayne State's run-and-shoot offense. The Wildcats set national passing records, as well as eight school records.

Bisaccia, a native of Yonkers, N.Y., attended Yankton College in South Dakota from 1979-82 and was a four-year starter at defensive back. He served as the team captain in 1982 and earned All-South Dakota Intercollegiate Conference honors in 1981 and 1982. Bisaccia was a free agent signee with the Philadelphia Stars of the USFL in 1983. He received a bachelor of science degree in physical education with a minor in health education from Wayne State. Bisaccia grew up in Connecticut and graduated from New Fairfield High School.

Prior to the 2002 season, the Buccaneers special teams coach participated in the "Bucs on the Beach" volleyball tournament, sponsored by Checkers, in which all proceeds went to the Make-A-Wish Foundation and the Glazer Family Foundation. Bisaccia was also involved with the first-ever "Buccaneers Coaching Academy" in 2002. The hands-on clinic for area high school coaches focused on several essential areas of football knowledge and player development. For the past two offseasons, he also lent his coaching knowledge to "NFL 101," a program that educates women on the terminology, formations, strategy and basics of football.

Bisaccia is married to the former Jeanne Jons and the couple has four children: Michele, Elizabeth, Madeline and Richie.

GARRETT GIEMONT

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COORDINATOR

24th NFL Season, 2nd with Buccaneers

Garrett Giemont begins his second season as Tampa Bay's strength and conditioning coordinator with more than 20 years of NFL experience overall.

Named Coach of the Year by The Professional Football Strength and Conditioning Coaches Society after the 2002 season, Giemont joined the Buccaneers in 2003 after serving in a similar capacity for eight seasons as a member of the Oakland Raiders (1995-2002). The strength and conditioning coach for his first seven years, he served as strength and conditioning coordinator in 2002.

Giemont is in his sixth season on the staff of head coach Jon Gruden, whom he spent four seasons with in Oakland (1998-2001).

Prior to joining the Raiders, Giemont spent three seasons as the Director of Physical Development in Major League Baseball with the Chicago Cubs (1992-94). He originally entered the NFL with the Los Angeles Rams in 1970 in a part-time capacity as a training assistant and served as the Rams' assistant trainer from 1978-1982. From 1983-89, he served as the Rams' strength and conditioning trainer and worked as the club's strength and conditioning coach from 1990-91.

A Fullerton, California native, Giemont attended Fullerton College while beginning his work with the Rams. He and his wife Sonya, reside in Tampa.

JAY GRUDEN ■ OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT COACH

3rd NFL Season, 3rd with Buccaneers

Having served as a player and coach for the past 15 years in professional football, Jay Gruden begins his third season with Tampa Bay as an offensive assistant coach.

His impressive list of accomplishments as both a player and coach include 14 seasons of service in the Arena Football League. Most recently, Gruden returned for his second stint as head coach of the Orlando Predators during the 2004 season. The Predators finished the regular season with a 10-6 mark and qualified for the playoffs.

In 2002, Gruden's first season with the Buccaneers, he helped guide an offense that showed consistent improvement and proved vital in the club's first NFL championship in Super Bowl XXXVII against Oakland. With Tampa Bay's Super Bowl championship, he has been a member of seven championship teams as both a player (four) and a coach (three).

In his first four seasons (1998-2001) as head coach of the Predators, Gruden led the team to a 35-21 record, including three ArenaBowl appearances and two championships. The first championship came in 1998 with a 62-31 win over Tampa Bay at ArenaBowl XII and the second, a 41-38 win over the Nashville Kats in 2000. Gruden's teams made the postseason in all four seasons as head coach and had an all-time record of 8-2 in the playoffs.

Gruden also spent one season as offensive coordinator of the Nashville Kats in 1997, tutoring QB Andy Kelly and helping set an expansion-team record of 10 wins. As quarterback of the Tampa Bay Storm from 1991 to 1996, Gruden won four ArenaBowl championships in six years, passed for more than 15,000 yards and 280 touchdowns, while also completing almost 60 percent of his passes. He retired as the league's all-time leading passer, carrying with him a league MVP award in 1992 and an ArenaBowl MVP trophy in 1993.

Elected to the AFL Hall of Fame in 1999, Gruden returned to the playing field three years later and led the Predators to the 2002 Southern Division Championship, throwing 68 touchdown passes in 14 games. In 10 games in 2003, Gruden passed for 49 touchdowns against only two interceptions and including the playoffs, finished the season 11-1 as a starter.

A three-year starter at Louisville (1985-88) under head coach Howard Schnellenberger, Gruden set numerous passing records and earned team MVP recognition twice (1987 and 1988).

Gruden is the younger brother of Buccaneers head coach Jon Gruden and their father Jim is currently a personnel consultant for the Buccaneers and is a former scout for the San Francisco 49ers. Jay and his wife, Sherry, reside in Orlando with their three sons: JJ, Joey and Jack.

PAUL KELLY

ASSISTANT TO THE HEAD COACH - FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

7th NFL Season, 1st with Buccaneers

Paul Kelly enters his first season with the Buccaneers as the Assistant to the Head Coach - Football Operations after spending the previous six years with the Oakland Raiders. Kelly works directly with Head Coach Jon Gruden in organizing football operations for the club. He coordinates several areas, including the offseason programs, mini-camps, and training camp, as well as the football calendar for the entire year.

While with the Raiders, Kelly spent the last two years as the Assistant to the Head Coach. In 2002, Kelly helped guide Oakland to its first Super Bowl appearance in 19 years as the Raiders represented the AFC in Super Bowl XXXVII against the Buccaneers.

Kelly joined the Raiders in 1998 under Gruden as a coaches assistant. He served in that capacity for four years before being named the Assistant to the Head Coach in 2002. Prior to joining the Raiders, he owned and managed his own San Francisco Bay Area based businesses.

Kelly, a San Francisco bay area native, was raised in San Diego and attended University of San Diego High School, where he lettered in basketball. From 1982-1984, he served as a team attendant for the San Diego Clippers.

Kelly graduated with a degree in business administration with an emphasis in new ventures and small business management from Cal State University, Hayward in 1990. He currently resides in Tampa with wife, Catherine, his two sons, Colin and Hunter, and daughter, Lauren.

RICHARD MANN ■ WIDE RECEIVERS COACH

23rd NFL Season, 3rd with Buccaneers

Richard Mann enters his third season as Tampa Bay's wide receivers coach. In his first season with the Buccaneers in 2002, Mann coached in his first Super Bowl, helping guide Tampa Bay to its first championship in Super Bowl XXXVII.

Despite losing two of his top performers in 2003, Mann's unit provided a consistent threat as the Buccaneers offense finished in the top 10 in the NFL in total offense for the second time in team history. Utilizing seven different members of Mann's wide receivers corps, QB Brad Johnson set numerous team records in 2003, including touchdown passes (26), passing yards (3,811) and completions (354). Following one of the most memorable performances in team history on opening night in Philadelphia, WR Joe Jurevicius sustained a left MCL tear in Week 2 that eventually landed him on injured reserve on December 2. Led by Keenan McCardell, the receiving corps overcame the loss of Jurevicius to post 188 receptions for 2,503 yards and 16 TDs. McCardell led all Buccaneers with 84 receptions for 1,174 yards (14.0 avg.) and nine TDs (eight receiving TDs and one fumble return for a TD) while earning his second career Pro Bowl appearance. His 84 receptions marked the fourth-most in a single season in club history and his 1,171 receiving yards were also fourth-best in a single season. Under Mann's direction, McCardell also became a consistent deep threat for the Bucs in 2003 as he recorded the three longest receptions of his career with scoring receptions of 74 (vs. Indianapolis), 75 (at San Francisco) and 76 yards (vs. Atlanta). In addition, his 14.0 average was the highest of his career since he averaged 18.2 yards on 10 catches with the Cleveland Browns in 1994.

Mann also oversaw the development of fourth-year pro Charles Lee, who emerged in the second half of the season. Despite only appearing in eight games with five starts in 2003, Lee finished fourth on the team with 33 receptions for 432 yards (13.1 avg.) and tied for third with two touchdown catches. Lee was an explosive option for QB Brad Johnson as he caught five passes of 20 or more yards in 2003.

Under Mann's guidance in 2002, the Bucs' wide receivers hauled in 184 receptions for 2,281 yards and 16 TDs. Mann was reunited with Keyshawn Johnson in 2002, who hauled in 63 receptions for 844 yards and eight TDs during his rookie season with the New York Jets under Mann. Johnson's success continued in 2002 as he recorded 76 receptions for 1,088 yards and five TDs, making him the only player in Bucs' history to record consecutive 1,000-yard receiving seasons. Upon arriving in Tampa from Jacksonville in the offseason, McCardell made an immediate impact. McCardell led all Bucs receivers and tied a career-high with six TD receptions in 2002 — as well as a pair of TDs in the Super Bowl XXXVII win over the Oakland Raiders — and added 61 receptions for 670 yards. Signed as a free agent in the offseason, Jurevicius flourished under Mann as he hauled in 37 receptions for 423 yards and a career-high four TDs as the Bucs' third receiver in 2002. In one of the season's biggest games against Atlanta, Jurevicius tied career-highs with two TD receptions and eight receptions while setting a new career-high with 100 receiving yards. And it was Jurevicius' play in the postseason that ignited Tampa Bay's offense. He caught a TD in the divisional playoff win against San Francisco and set up the go-ahead score in the NFC Championship Game at Philadelphia with a 71-yard reception. Jurevicius added four catches for a game-high 78 yards in Super Bowl XXXVII.

Mann spent the 2001 season with the Washington Redskins as wide receivers coach, tutoring Michael Westbrook and rookie Rod Gardner, who combined for 103 receptions, 1,405 yards and eight touchdowns in 2001. Prior to working with the Redskins, Mann served as the receivers coach for Kansas City in 1999 and 2000. Under Mann, the Chiefs' passing attack produced a club-record 4,388 passing yards and 28 touchdowns in 2000. Mann tutored standout receivers Derrick Alexander and Andre Rison during his time in Kansas City, with Alexander producing four 100-yard games in 1999 and Rison becoming just the 12th player in NFL history to break the 700-catch barrier.

Mann spent the 1997 and 1998 seasons as the Baltimore Ravens wide receivers coach. Under his guidance, Derrick Alexander grabbed 65 catches for 1,009 yards and nine touchdowns in 1997, while Michael Jackson snagged 69 passes for 918 yards and four scores.

Mann also coached on the New York Jets staff, coaching both wide receivers and tight ends during his three seasons. While in New York, he worked with Keyshawn Johnson and also mentored Wayne Chrebet, who set a Jets rookie record in 1995 with 66 catches for 726 yards and four touchdowns. In 1994, Mann helped Rob Moore make his first Pro Bowl appearance after catching 78 passes for 1,010 yards and six TDs, becoming the first Jets Pro Bowl wideout since Al Toon in 1988. In addition to working with the New York receiving corps, he also handled Jets tight end coaching duties in 1995, where he tutored first-round draft choice Kyle Brady.

From 1985-93, Mann served as an assistant coach with the Cleveland Browns, where he coached Hall of Famer Ozzie Newsome. Newsome finished his stellar career with 662 catches for 7,980 yards and 47 touchdowns. In addition, Webster Slaughter hauled in 305 passes for 4,834 yards and 27 touchdowns in six seasons (1986-91) under Mann's tutelage and was selected to his first Pro Bowl in 1990.

He originally began his NFL coaching career as a receivers coach with the Baltimore/Indianapolis Colts from 1982-84. With the Colts, he worked under Frank Kush, his college head coach at Arizona State. Mann also coached on the collegiate level at the University of Louisville from 1980-81 and Arizona State from 1974-79 as wide receivers coach. During that time, he helped nurture a pair of receivers who enjoyed considerable success in the NFL, Mark Clayton at Louisville and John Jefferson at Arizona State. Clayton went on to produce 582 catches for 8,974 yards and 84 TDs in his 11-year career with Miami (1983-92) and Green Bay (1993), while Jefferson totaled 315 receptions for 5,714 yards and 47 scores with San Diego (1978-80), Green Bay (1981-84) and Cleveland (1985).

Mann, a native of Aliquippa, Pennsylvania, was a three-year starter at flanker and tight end for the Sun Devils from 1966-68. He began his coaching career at his prep alma mater of Aliquippa High School from 1970-73. A member of the Aliquippa Hall of Fame since 1982, Mann is also a member of the Beaver County (Pa.) Hall of Fame.

Mann and his wife, Karen, have four children: daughters Deven and Brittany, and sons Richard and Mario.

RON MIDDLETON

TIGHT ENDS ■ ASSISTANT SPECIAL TEAMS COACH

1st NFL Season, 1st with Buccaneers

Ron Middleton enters his first season as Tampa Bay's tight ends/assistant special teams coach.

Middleton joined the Buccaneers following five seasons (1999-2003) at the University of Mississippi, where he served as running backs/special teams coordinator since 2002. He originally joined the Rebels as tight ends coach in 1999 and served in that capacity for three seasons. Middleton was also a member of the Buccaneers' training camp coaching staff in 2003 as a part of the NFL's Minority Coaching Fellowship Program.

While at Mississippi, Middleton helped guide the Rebels to four bowl games and also tutored 2003 Lou Groza Award winner PK Jonathan Nichols, who set 15 school records and earned All-SEC recognition. Nichols connected on 24-of-28 FG attempts and all 45

PATs on his way to setting a school record with 117 points scored in 2003. Junior punter Cody Ridgeway also received second team All-SEC honors in 2003. In addition, Ole Miss led the SEC in kick-off returns, averaging 23.7 yards per return; field goals (25-29 for .862 percentage); and PAT kicking (49-49 for 1.000 percentage) in 2003. The Rebels also ranked third in the SEC in punting (42.9 avg.) and tied for first in net punting (39.0 avg.).

Prior to his stint at Ole Miss, Middleton coached tight ends, offensive tackles and special teams at Troy State University from 1997-98. He also spent time in the private business sector as the vice president of American Communications before his time at Troy State.

Middleton, a native of Atmore, Ala., graduated from Auburn University in 1985 with a degree in Pre-Law/History and received his Master's of Education degree in Sports and Fitness Management from Troy State in 1988. While at Auburn, Middleton was named to the Dean's Academic Honor Roll several times and was voted the Tigers' Offensive MVP in 1984 and 1985.

He entered the NFL as an undrafted free agent with Atlanta in 1986, playing two seasons with the Falcons before spending the 1988 season with the Washington Redskins. In 1989, Middleton helped lead the Cleveland Browns to the AFC Championship Game. He returned to the Redskins in 1990 and spent four seasons in the nation's capital, helping guide Washington to a 37-24 victory over the Buffalo Bills in Super Bowl XXVI. Middleton closed out his NFL career with the San Diego Chargers in 1995, after spending the 1994 season with the Los Angeles Rams.

He is married to the former Mia Davis with two sons, Desman (17), Ron II (15), and one daughter, Zaria (6).

MIKE MORRIS

ASSISTANT STRENGTH & CONDITIONING COACH

6th NFL Season, 3rd with Buccaneers

Mike Morris enters his third season as the Buccaneers' assistant strength and conditioning coach. During the last two seasons, his contributions have been highlighted by the extensive speed and coordination training he has provided to players such as DE Simeon Rice, who finished second in the NFL with 15.5 sacks in 2002 and tied for second with 15.0 in 2003. In 2002, Morris helped lead the Buccaneers to their first Super Bowl title in Super Bowl XXXVII.

Morris enters his sixth season in the National Football League after spending the 1997-1999 seasons with the New England Patriots. Morris, who served as speed coach in 1997-98 and assistant strength and conditioning coach in 1999, oversaw a program that emphasized speed, conditioning and coordination.

In 1990, Morris started Elite Level Consulting, a consulting business working with elite level athletes by designing programs for NFL players and Olympians. He also worked as a one-on-one personal trainer for M.E. Janiak Company from 1989-95, developing and implementing fitness programs for clients of highly successful companies.

Morris served as fitness director for the Track and Racquet Club in Syracuse from 1987-89, designing and executing numerous health and fitness programs for the health club. He also was a member of a select group of fitness consultants invited by the NFL to take part in a two-week program covering health and fitness issues for the elite level athletes.

Morris, who was a three-year letterwinner as a wide receiver at Syracuse, was also an All-American sprinter for the Orangemen. Morris still holds numerous Syracuse records, including marks in the 55 meters, 100 meters and 200 meters.

Morris was ranked fourth in the world in the 100 meters in 1985, and participated in the Olympic Trials in both 1984 and 1988. He was a All-American from 1981-84, as well as an All-Big East performer for four years. Morris also earned silver medals in the 100 meters at both the 1985 World University Games and the 1985 National Sports Festivals.

Morris is the younger brother of former NFL players Jamie and Joe Morris. Morris and his wife, Thomasina, have two children: daughter Paige and son Travis.

RAHEEM MORRIS

ASSISTANT DEFENSIVE BACKS COACH

3rd NFL Season, 3rd with Buccaneers

Raheem Morris begins his third season with the Buccaneers and first as the assistant defensive backs coach. In his new role, Morris will work directly with defensive backs coach Mike Tomlin and the Buccaneers secondary.

Morris spent last season as a defensive assistant, working closely with defensive coordinator Monte Kiffin as the Bucs defense finished the year ranked fifth in total defense (279.1 ypg), marking the seventh straight season (1997-2003) the defense finished in the top 10, the longest streak in the NFL. In 2002, his first season as a coach in the NFL, Morris tutored under Kiffin and helped guide the Buccaneers top-ranked defense as they captured the franchise's first world title in Super Bowl XXXVII.

Morris joined Tampa Bay after spending the 2000 and 2001 seasons as defensive backs coach at Hofstra University. He also spent time in the fall of 2001 with the New York Jets serving a defensive minority internship.

Morris began his collegiate coaching career as a graduate assistant coach at Hofstra in 1998, where he was responsible for coaching the offensive scout team, developing scouting reports and handling video breakdown and computer input and analysis. He then landed at Cornell University as defensive backs coach and special teams assistant for the 1999 season.

Morris played collegiately as a safety at Hofstra from 1994-97, and received his bachelor of science degree in physical education. He hails from Irvington, New Jersey. Morris and his wife Jackie reside in Tampa.

JIM PYNE ■ OFFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL COACH

2nd NFL Season, 2nd with Buccaneers

Jim Pyne enters his second season as an offensive quality control coach with Tampa Bay. Pyne works closely with Buccaneers offensive coordinator/offensive line coach Bill Muir in the instruction and preparation of the offensive line.

Born in Milford, Massachusetts, Pyne is a member of a three-generation AFL/NFL football family. His father, George III, played for the AFL's Boston Patriots in 1965, while his grandfather, George II, was with the Providence Steam Rollers from 1931-32.

Pyne re-joined the Buccaneers after a career in the NFL. Pyne was drafted by Tampa Bay and played with the Buccaneers for four years primarily as a starter. In 1998, Pyne signed with the Detroit Lions and later was the first pick of the 1999 expansion draft for the Cleveland Browns, where Pyne started at left guard through 2000. Pyne spent his final season with the Philadelphia Eagles, who advanced to the NFC Championship game in 2001.

While with the Browns, Pyne was named Cleveland Browns' Man-of-the-Year, Lineman-of-the-Year and voted team captain in 1999. Pyne was also named three times during his career to Muscle and Fitness' NFL All-Strength Team.

Pyne was a four-year starter at center for Virginia Tech where he garnered numerous accolades both on and off of the field. His awards included being named unanimous First-Team All-American in 1993, having his number 73 retired (along with Michael Vick and Bruce Smith) and having the offensive line meeting room named in his honor. Pyne was also named the center on the Big East Conference's "All-Time" team. Pyne received Virginia Tech's academic award for having the highest GPA on the team, along with being named All-Big East Academic in 1993.

Pyne's brother, George, is NASCAR's Chief Operating Officer and was an All-Ivy League football player at Brown University.

Pyne is married to the former Crista Tricomi. The couple resides in Tampa with their daughter Sophia.

1st NFL Season, 1st with Buccaneers

Kyle Shanahan enters his first season as the Buccaneers' offensive quality control coach. In his first season of coaching in 2003, Shanahan was a graduate assistant at UCLA where he helped tutor the Bruins offense to an appearance in the Silicon Valley Bowl.

Shanahan, who graduated from the University of Texas in 2003, began his collegiate playing career as a wide receiver at Duke University in 1999. Shanahan transferred to Texas prior to the 2000 season, where he was a teammate of current Buccaneers quarterback Chris Simms from 2000-2002.

JOHN SHOOP ■ QUARTERBACKS COACH

10th NFL Season, 1st with Buccaneers

John Shoop enters his first season as Tampa Bay's quarterbacks coach after spending the past five seasons (1999-2003) with the Chicago Bears.

Shoop will work directly with Buccaneers head coach Jon Gruden and a passing offense that finished third in the NFC and sixth in the NFL, averaging 237.8 passing yards per game in 2003.

Shoop served as the Bears' offensive coordinator over the last three campaigns (2001-2003) after serving as quarterbacks coach in his first two seasons (1999-2000). Shoop helped the Bears to a 13-3 mark and the NFC Central title in 2001. Additionally, the Bears won 17 of the first 21 regular season games under his offensive direction.

Last season, Shoop oversaw the development of Bears rookie QB Rex Grossman, who directed Chicago to victories in two of his three starts to close the season. As the Bears' quarterbacks coach in 1999, Shoop coached three different signal-callers: Shane Matthews, Cade McNown and Jim Miller, who each passed for over 1,000 yards, a feat accomplished only one other time in NFL history.

In 2002 under Shoop's direction, Chicago's offense sent two players to the Pro Bowl for the second consecutive season for the first time since 1990-91. WR Marty Booker became the first Bears wide receiver to make the Pro Bowl squad since 1971, including only the fourth receiver in franchise history to make the All-Star team.

In 2001, the Bears ball-control offense tied a team record by losing only eight fumbles, tying the previous low for a 16-game schedule set in 1978. Additionally, the offensive line proved to be the best in the NFL at preventing sacks after allowing a league-low 17 sacks, more than 21 below the NFL average (38.6) and 17 fewer than the team permitted in 2000 (34). Chicago featured Offensive Rookie of the Year Anthony Thomas, who became the first Bears running back to earn the honor since Gale Sayers in 1965. Thomas established a Bears rookie rushing record with 1,183 yards on 278 carries.

Shoop was promoted to offensive coordinator on January 22, 2001 after joining the Bears' coaching staff on February 5, 1999 as the team's quarterbacks coach. He continued to work with the quarterbacks in addition to his game-planning duties. With his appointment as quarterbacks coach, Shoop became just the second coach hired in team history to exclusively tutor Bears quarterbacks, following Sid Luckman, who was a Bears' assistant in 1954 and from 1956-70.

Prior to joining the Bears, Shoop spent four seasons with the Carolina Panthers (1995-98). Shoop served the last two years as quarterbacks coach for then-head coach Dom Capers. He spent his first two years in Charlotte as the Panthers' offensive quality control coach. The Panthers reached the NFC Championship Game in 1996, losing to eventual Super Bowl champion Green Bay.

Shoop's coaching career began in 1991 as a volunteer quarterbacks coach at Dartmouth College. He then spent three seasons as a graduate assistant at Vanderbilt (1992-94). Shoop graduated from the University of the South in 1991, where he played quarterback for the Tigers for four years. He then earned a master's degree in education from Peabody College at Vanderbilt.

Born August 1, 1969 in Pittsburgh, Shoop was raised in Oakmont, Pennsylvania. He and his wife, the Rev. Dr. Marcia Mount Shoop, have one son, Sidney.

MIKE TOMLIN ■ DEFENSIVE BACKS COACH

4th NFL Season, 4th with Buccaneers

Despite several starters missing time because of injury, Tomlin's defensive backs again formed one of the league's top secondary units in the NFL in 2003. The unit helped the Bucs defense finish fifth in total defense (279.1 ypg) and third in passing defense (169.1 ypg), marking the seventh consecutive season (1997-2003) it has ranked among the league's top 10 in total defense, the longest current streak in the league. The Bucs defense has also finished in the top 10 in pass defense in seven of the previous eight seasons (1996-99, 2001-03), including three straight. Tomlin's men have also been adept at limiting the success of quarterbacks, as illustrated by the 69.4 efficiency rating (sixth in the NFL) posted by opposing signal callers in 2003 and the 48.1 rating (tops in the NFL) registered by quarterbacks in 2002.

Exhibiting unmatched toughness, CB Ronde Barber was once again Tomlin's top performer in the defensive backfield in 2003. Starting in all 16 games for the fourth consecutive year, Barber led the secondary and finished second on the team with a career-high 111 tackles. His 111 tackles were the most in team history for a cornerback, surpassing CB Jeris White's 103 tackles in 1978. Barber was one of only two Buccaneers (DE Simeon Rice) to record a statistic in every defensive category in 2003, finishing with two INTs, nine passes defended, two forced fumbles, 1.5 sacks, one fumble recovery and a team-leading five tackles for loss.

Perhaps the most significant injury of the Buccaneers 2003 injury-riddled campaign was the loss of CB Brian Kelly. Tomlin was forced to make due without the team's 2002 interception leader when he was placed on injured reserve after five games with a left pectoral strain. In his stead, Tomlin utilized a variety of starting lineups, through second-year CB Tim Wansley took the majority of Kelly's snaps in the starter's role. Wansley performed admirably as he appeared in 12 games with six starts in 2003 before he too was placed on injured reserve with a left hamstring strain following the Week 13 contest. In his 12 games, Wansley posted the first two INTs of his career (tied for second on the team), returning one for his first career touchdown.

Undoubtedly the most versatile of Tomlin's pupils was CB/S Dwight Smith. Smith, who was slated to start at FS in 2003 after spending his first two seasons at CB, was invaluable to the Bucs defense as he saw action at every position in the defensive backfield. Starting all 16 games (nine at FS, six at CB and one at SS), he led the team with a career-high five INTs and ranked fifth with 85 tackles despite the consistent shuffling of positions.

SS John Lynch was also a victim of the injury bug in 2003, suffering from a right shoulder stinger most of the season. Though he missed two full games because of the injury, the defensive stalwart still amassed 95 tackles to rank fourth on the team and ranked tied for second with two interceptions.

Tomlin also spent considerable time grooming promising second-year FS Jermaine Phillips in 2003. A valuable special teams player who was the only rookie to appear in all 16 games in 2002, Phillips helped to offset the plague of injuries by appearing in 14 games with seven starts at FS and one at SS. Phillips, who also missed two games with a fractured right forearm, finished with 49 tackles, three forced fumbles, one INT and three passes defended.

In 2002, Tomlin directed one of the most productive secondary units in the NFL, culminating with its performance in Super Bowl XXXVII. In helping capture the club's first Super Bowl title, the unit recorded four of Rich Gannon's five interceptions, returning two for touchdowns. FS Dexter Jackson's two first-half INTs garnered him Super Bowl MVP honors while Smith returned his two INTs for touchdowns to set a Super Bowl record.

Tomlin's secondary led a defensive unit that ranked first in the NFL in pass defense in 2002, surrendering only 155.6 yards per game through the air. The defense led the league with 31 interceptions in 2002 and Tomlin's unit was instrumental in limiting opposing quarterbacks to a 48.4 rating and just 10 TD passes. Under Tomlin's direction, Barber continued to evolve into one of the premier corners in the NFL. Following a 2001 Pro Bowl appearance, Barber earned AP All-Pro Second Team honors in 2002 as he finished second in the secondary and fourth on the team with 95 tackles. He also finished second on the team with 21 passes defended and posted two INTs and 3.0 sacks in 2002. In his first full season as a starting CB, Kelly tied for first in the NFL with a career-high eight INTs. Kelly notched a career-high and team-best 23 passes defended in 2002, while also recording a career-high in tackles (78). As the leader of the secondary, Lynch made his fifth Pro Bowl appearance in 2002 and was named to the All-Pro team for the fourth consecutive season. Lynch recorded three INTs in 2002 and ranked third on the team with 96 tackles. Under Tomlin's direction, Jackson was named Super Bowl XXXVII MVP after posting two interceptions in the victory over Oakland. Second-year CB Smith had a breakout season as the team's nickel back. While only making two starts last season, Smith ranked third on the team with four INTs. He also excelled on special teams by posting 20 special teams tackles, ranking second on the team.

Since joining Tampa Bay prior to the 2001 season, Tomlin has stressed the importance of fundamentals and techniques and the Buccaneers' defensive unit responded by finishing fifth in the NFL in pass defense in 2001 and second in the NFL with 28 interceptions, 23 of which came courtesy of Tomlin's secondary unit. Under Tomlin's direction, Barber earned his first Pro Bowl selection after tying for the NFL lead with a career-high 10 interceptions and Lynch secured his fourth trip to the annual All-Star game after eclipsing the 100-tackle plateau for the sixth straight season.

Tomlin joined the Buccaneers after serving two seasons as the defensive backs coach at the University of Cincinnati (1999-00). At Cincinnati, Tomlin took over a secondary unit that ranked 111th in the nation in pass efficiency defense in 1998 and helped improve them to 61st overall in 1999. In 2000 under Tomlin's guidance, the Bearcats ranked eighth in the nation in interceptions, as well as fourth nationally in total turnovers. Prior to joining the Bearcats, Tomlin had a short stint on the coaching staff at Tennessee-Martin and then spent two seasons with Arkansas State, coaching the wide receivers in 1997 and switching to defensive backs in 1998. Tomlin spent the 1996 season as a graduate assistant at the University of Memphis, working with the Tiger defensive backs and special teams units. In 1995, Tomlin began his coaching career as wide receivers coach at the Virginia Military Institute.

Tomlin, a three-year starter at William & Mary, concluded his playing career with 101 receptions for 2,046 yards and a school-record 20 touchdown catches. A first-team All-Yankee Conference selection in 1994, Tomlin established a school-record with a 20.2 yards per catch average.

Prior to 2002, the Buccaneers defensive backs coach participated in the "Bucs on the Beach" volleyball tournament, sponsored by Checkers, in which all proceeds went to the Make-A-Wish Foundation and the Glazer Family Foundation. In 2002 and 2003, Tomlin also lent his coaching knowledge to "NFL 101," a program that educates women on the terminology, formations, strategy and basics of football.

Tomlin is married to the former Kiya Dawn and the couple resides in Tampa with their two sons, Dino and Mason.

ART VALERO ■ RUNNING BACKS COACH

3rd NFL Season, 3rd with Buccaneers

Art Valero is in his first season as Tampa Bay's running backs coach after spending the last two seasons as the tight ends coach. Now in his third season with the Buccaneers, Valero helped lead the Buccaneers to its first-

In his new role, Valero will lead one of the NFL's most experienced and deep running back units. RB Michael Pittman, the team's leading rusher the past two seasons, returns following a solid 2003 campaign in which he totaled 751 yards on 187 carries (4.0 avg.) and was the second leading receiver with 75 catches. Valero's group will also be boosted by the comeback of Pro Bowl FB Mike Alstott, who missed 12 games last season with a neck injury. Bolstering the running back position is a trio of recently signed veteran ball carriers, led by Charlie ever Super Bowl title in 2002.

Garner. Garner, who ranks sixth in the NFL with 7,812 yards from scrimmage since 1999, signed with the Buccaneers this past offseason following three seasons in Oakland. Along with Garner, Jamel White (470 rushing yards with Cleveland in 2003) and Brandon Bennett (173 rushing yards with Cincinnati in 2003) joined the Buccaneers this past offseason. Both should provide contributions on special teams while also vying for carries in Valero's backfield.

Coach Valero's tight ends proved to be a viable target for QB Brad Johnson throughout 2003. Valero's unit totaled 38 receptions for 369 yards (9.71 avg.) with five TDs. The venerable Ken Dilger led the group with 22 receptions for 244 yards (11.1 avg.) and one touchdown in 15 starts last season. Expected to team with Dilger for an imposing TE combination, Rickey Dudley was injured late in the preseason and did not rejoin the club until Week 11. In seven games with two starts in 2003, Dudley totaled seven receptions for 42 yards (6.0 avg.) and one TD. Adding depth for Valero was special teams maven Todd Yoder and undrafted rookie free agent Will Heller. Yoder appeared in all 16 games with one start in which he hauled in a career-high two touchdown receptions. Heller, a promising young talent, appeared in nine games with one start.

Under Valero's direction, Dilger, Dudley and Yoder combined to haul in 52 receptions for 547 yards and five TDs in 2002. By comparison, in 2001 the tight ends unit combined for a total of 39 receptions with four scores. Starter Ken Dilger's 34 receptions in 2002 ranked sixth on the team and he added two TDs. Three of Dudley's 16 receptions went for TDs and his 12.0-yard average ranked second on the team for those with 10 or more receptions. Yoder's production increased each season through 2002 and he also ranked fifth on the team with 15 special teams tackles.

Valero joined Tampa Bay after spending four seasons (1998-2001) as assistant head coach and offensive line coach at the University of Louisville. During his tenure, the Cardinals boasted one of the nation's top offensive attacks, including finishing first nationally in total offense in 1998, averaging nearly 560 yards per game. Before heading to Louisville, Valero spent three years at Utah State (1995-97) as the assistant head coach/offensive line coach.

Prior to that, Valero served as an offensive coordinator and assistant head coach at Idaho (1990-94), helping the Vandals to a combined record of 44-18, including four appearances in the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs. Under his direction, Idaho produced four 1,000-yard rushers, with Sherriden May becoming just the second back in Big Sky Conference history to record three 1,000-yard campaigns. In 1994, Idaho finished first in the conference in total offense, rushing offense and scoring offense.

Valero has also worked as offensive line coach for three seasons at New Mexico (1987-89) and served in a similar capacity at Long Beach State (1984-86) and Iowa State (1983). Valero originally began his coaching career at his alma mater, Boise State, from 1981-82 as offensive line coach.

Valero has previous NFL experience with the Kansas City Chiefs (1994), Buffalo Bills (1996) and the New York Jets (1998), serving minority coaching fellowships with those clubs.

Valero, a native of La Mirada, California, was a two-time letterwinner along the offensive line at Boise State from 1979-80, where he played on the 1980 NCAA I-AA national championship squad. He graduated in 1981 with a degree in psychology and sociology.

Last offseason, Valero lent his coaching knowledge to "NFL 101," a program that educates women on the terminology, formations, strategy and basics of football. Prior to the 2002 season, the Buccaneers tight ends coach participated in the "Bucs on the Beach" volleyball tournament, sponsored by Checkers, in which all proceeds went to the Make-A-Wish Foundation and the Glazer Family Foundation.

JOE WOODS ■ DEFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL COACH

1st NFL Season, 1st with Buccaneers

Joe Woods enters his first season as the Buccaneers defensive quality control coach. This season also marks his first in the NFL after spending the previous 12 seasons coaching at the collegiate level.

Most recently, Woods was an assistant coach in charge of the secondary for three seasons (2001-2003) at Western Michigan University. In 2002, WMU's secondary posted 14 INTs and helped lead a defense that ranked second in MAC pass defense (179.5 ypg) and third in pass defense efficiency (115.3). The 2001 season saw Woods' unit contribute to a pass defense that ranked first in the MAC and 17th in the nation. Under Woods, CB Ronald Rogers earned first team All-MAC honors in 2001.

Prior to his appointment at Western Michigan, Woods spent three seasons (1998-2000) on the Hofstra University coaching staff. During his time with the Pride, the team made two trips to the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs, advancing to the quarterfinals in consecutive seasons (1999-2000).

Woods spent one season (1997) coaching defensive backs at Kent State University before heading to Hofstra. Prior to KSU, Woods worked as defensive backs coach at Grand Valley State from 1994-1997, inside linebackers coach at Northwestern State University (spring 1994) and was a graduate assistant at Eastern Michigan University (1993-1994). His first season in coaching came at Muskingum College in 1992.

A native of North Vandergrift, Pennsylvania, Woods was a four-year letterwinner and a captain his senior year at Illinois State University, receiving All-Gateway Conference First Team honors in 1991. He also earned a bachelor of arts degree in criminal justice from ISU in 1992.

Born June 25, 1970, Woods is married to the former Ellen Campbell and the couple has one daughter, Brianna.

BUCCANEERS

DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

his first full season with Tampa Bay, Arteaga helped guide the Buccaneers to their first Super Bowl title in club history against the Oakland Raiders in Super Bowl XXXVII.

Arteaga works directly with Bucs General Manager Bruce Allen and oversees all daily football operations for the club, as well as serves as a liaison between Allen, head coach Jon Gruden and the entire coaching staff.

Arteaga's experience in all aspects of football administration and his excellent organizational skills have been invaluable to maintaining the success of one of the league's most respected franchises. He is able to rely on more than 15 years of experience in the National Football League in dealing with the day-to-day business of the team and every component of the club's football operation.

Prior to joining the Buccaneers, Arteaga spent 13 seasons with the Raiders, including his final 11 campaigns as the club's administrative assistant to the head coach for four different Raider head coaches. Arteaga spent his last four seasons in Oakland (1998-2001) working with Gruden, who led the Raiders to consecutive postseason appearances (2000 and 2001), including an appearance in the AFC Championship Game in 2000.

Arteaga joined the Raiders on a full-time basis under head coach Mike Shanahan as the coaches' administrative assistant during the 1989 season. He served in that capacity for two seasons before being named the team's administrative assistant to the head coach in 1991.

Arteaga worked for the Raiders as a summer training camp football intern during the 1988 and 1989 summers. Prior to joining the Raiders, Arteaga worked as a spring training intern with the New York Yankees in 1987 and 1988 in Fort Lauderdale.

Arteaga studied sports administration at St. Thomas University in Miami. He hails from Chicago and graduated in 1985 from St. Rita High School, where he lettered in baseball for one season as an infielder. He and his wife, Jacqueline, live in Tampa with their daughter Marianna and son Anthony.

ROXANNE KOSARZYCKI

GENERAL COUNSEL

Roxanne Kosarzycki begins her first season with the Buccaneers as general counsel after spending the previous 14 years with the Oakland Raiders in legal affairs.

Kosarzycki's main responsibilities include overseeing a variety of in-house legal matters for both football and administration. She is instrumental in the negotiation and drafting of player contracts as well as the review and drafting of agreements with the club's marketing and media partners and other service providers. Kosarzycki is involved with the Buccaneers trademark protection and enforcement. Additionally, she maintains an open door policy using her legal skills and years of experience to assist players and staff with a variety of issues.

Her unique talents and vast knowledge provide the Buccaneers with a valuable resource in every facet of the organization.

While in Oakland her duties were vastly similar, but also included assisting in various business litigation matters and overseeing the legal affairs for the Raiders' retail department. Kosarzycki was also the co-director of the player development department as she managed such programs as continuing education, financial and family assistance and career internships.

A native of Newport Beach, California, Kosarzycki holds a bachelor's degree in sociology with a minor in psychology from UCLA and a Juris Doctorate from Southwestern School of Law in Los Angeles. She is married to Gene, and the couple has two children, Christopher and Sarah.

RUSTON WEBSTER

DIRECTOR OF COLLEGE SCOUTING

Ruston Webster enters his fourth season as Tampa Bay's director of college scouting after serving in several different capacities during his first 13 seasons with the Buccaneers. Webster coordinates a staff of five regional scouts and oversees the compilation of information on college players. Webster proved to be instrumental in helping guide the Buccaneers to their first Super Bowl title in 2002, a 48-21 victory over the Oakland Raiders in

Super Bowl XXXVII.

Webster joined the Buccaneers in 1988 as the team's scout for the northeastern United States. From 1989-91, he served as the club's director of pro personnel. In 1992, he returned to the field as Tampa Bay's scout for the southern states and shifted to the Midwest region in 1993 and the southwest region from 1995-2000.

Before joining the Buccaneers, Webster was the tight ends/safeties coach at Tulsa University in 1987. In 1986, he was a graduate assistant at Alabama under former Buccaneer head coach Ray Perkins. Webster also served as a graduate assistant at Southwestern Louisiana in 1985.

Webster earned his bachelor's degree in health, physical education and recreation from the University of Mississippi. A native of Madison, Mississippi, he and his wife, Gayle, reside in Tampa with daughter Hannah and sons Jacob and Drew.

MARK DOMINIK

DIRECTOR OF PRO PERSONNEL

Mark Dominik enters his fourth season as Tampa Bay's director of pro personnel. Dominik was added to the Buccaneers' staff in June 1995 as a pro personnel assistant. He served in that capacity through the 1997 season before assuming the title of pro scout in 1998. In 2000 he was elevated to the coordinator of pro personnel before being promoted to his current position. In 2002, his eighth season with the Tampa Bay, Dominik helped guide the Buccaneers to their first world championship in Super Bowl XXXVII against Oakland.

Dominik's responsibilities include coordinating the recruiting and signing of all NFL free agents, while also monitoring NFL transactions and handling player tryouts. In addition, he is in charge of Tampa Bay's scouting efforts of all other professional football leagues, including the NFL, NFL Europe, the Canadian Football League and the Arena Football Leagues.

Dominik, a native of St. Cloud, Minnesota, joined Tampa Bay after spending a year-and-a-half working in both the college and pro personnel departments for the Kansas City Chiefs. Dominik has a bachelor's of science degree in sports management from the University of Kansas. He and his wife, Amy, live in Tampa.

DOUG WILLIAMS

PERSONNEL EXECUTIVE

Doug Williams re-joins the Buccaneers following a successful tenure as head coach at his alma mater, Grambling State, and one of the most storied playing careers in league and team history. As personnel executive, he returns to lend his expertise and more than 20 years of experience in football to Tampa Bay's front office. Williams' duties will include scouting, player evaluations and recruiting free agents.

In six seasons (1998-2003) at Grambling State University, Williams brought one of the most storied programs in college football history back to prominence, compiling a 52-18 record as head coach after succeeding the legendary Eddie Robinson, who was at the helm for 57 years from 1941-1997 and re-wrote the record books as the winningest coach in the history of college football with 408 career wins.

"We are thrilled to welcome Doug back to our family," said Executive Vice President Joel Glazer. "He was one of the cornerstones in the early years of our franchise as a player, and his wealth of experience in coaching and scouting will be a major asset in our future."

Williams led the Tigers to three consecutive Southwestern Athletic Conference titles from 2000-02 as they were named National Black College Champions during the same three-year span. He was also named SWAC Coach of the Year in each of those three seasons, and was also honored as Street and Smith's Black College Coach of the Year in 2000. Williams was a two-time finalist for The Sports Network Eddie Robinson (Division I-AA) National Coach of the Year.

Williams, a first-round pick by Tampa Bay in the 1978 NFL Draft (17th overall), led the Bucs to the first three playoff appearances in team history (1979, 1981, 1982), including an amazing appearance in the 1979 NFC Championship Game in just the fourth year of existence. He propelled the team to three winning seasons (10-6 in 1979, 9-7 in 1981 and 5-4 in 1982), the only campaigns in franchise history with a winning record until more than 15 years later, in the 1997 season. Williams also guided Tampa Bay to its first NFC Central title in 1979.

Tampa Bay's starting quarterback from 1978-82, Williams still ranks among the leaders in club history in several major passing categories: second in touchdown passes (73), third in passing yards (12,648), third in pass attempts (1,890) and fourth in pass completions (895). Williams, who started 67 career games for the Buccaneers, was a two-time team MVP in 1980 and 1981. He ended his Tampa Bay career in 1982 as the all-time franchise leader in TD passes, passing yards, attempts and completions.

"Doug has been successful at every level of football he has been associated with," said General Manager Bruce Allen. "We think he will help us improve our team. His accomplishments here in Tampa were really stunning when you look at what occurred prior to his arrival, and what occurred after his departure."

In 1986, Tampa Bay traded the NFL rights to Williams to the Washington Redskins for a 1987 fifth-round pick, which was used on S Tony Mayes, who never saw action in a Buccaneer uniform. The trade followed two seasons for Williams with the Oklahoma Outlaws of the USFL. Williams led the Redskins to a 42-10 victory over Denver in Super Bowl XXII following the 1987 season, and was anointed the game's MVP after he set or tied several Super Bowl passing records, including most TD passes (4), most yards passing (340), longest pass completion (80 yards) and longest TD pass (80 yards). He was the first black quarterback to ever start a Super Bowl. Williams ended his playing career following the 1989 season with the Redskins.

BUCCANEERS

Williams has gained invaluable experience at many levels, including the start of his college head coaching career at Morehouse College in 1997. He also has previous NFL experience as a scout for Jacksonville in 1995 and as offensive coordinator for the Scottish Claymores of the World League in 1995, and tutored running backs for Navy in 1994. Williams also excelled on the high school level as head coach and athletic director at Point Coupee High School in New Roads, Louisiana in 1991, and in 1993, he was head coach at Northeast High School in his hometown of Zachary, La., where he guided the team to a 13-1 record and the state semifinals.

As Grambling's quarterback from 1974-77, Williams had a spectacular college career as he passed for more than 8,000 yards and 93 TDs, leading the Tigers to three National Black College National Championships and two SWAC titles. He posted a 36-7 record as a starter and finished fourth in voting for the 1977 Heisman Trophy.

This past offseason, Williams was honored by Pop Warner as the Joseph J. Tomlin Award recipient. The Tomlin award is presented to an individual who has demonstrated outstanding character development, physical fitness and scholastic achievement.

Williams has five children: Ashley, Adrian, Doug, Jr., Jasmine and Temesia.

CEDRIC SAUNDERS

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Cedric Saunders enters his fourth season with the Buccaneers as director of player development. Saunders serves as the primary contact between the players, coaches and the community. Under Saunders' direction and assistance, the Buccaneers were successful in the community and on the field in 2002, as they captured the first Super Bowl title in team history.

Saunders' responsibilities include involving players in continuing educations program, offseason internships and jobs that provide insight into possible post-NFL careers. He is also the main liaison between the players and the club's community relations department, and encourages player involvement in charities and community activities.

Prior to joining the Buccaneers, Saunders spent the previous two seasons as an Area Scout for the Kansas City Chiefs, evaluating college talent in the Midwest. A native of Sarasota, FL, Saunders is in his second stint with the Buccaneers. He was in training camp for three seasons with Tampa Bay (1994-96), and saw action on both the practice squad and active roster in 1995 as a tight end and special teams player. Saunders also played with the Scottish Claymores of NFL Europe in 1997.

A four-year starter at Ohio State, Saunders posted 68 career receptions for 853 yards for the Buckeyes. He recorded 27 catches and earned second-team All-Big 10 honors as a senior and was an honorable mention selection as a junior.

Saunders and his wife, Bashi, have a daughter Reegan, and son, Cayden. The family resides in Tampa.

REGGIE COBB

COLLEGE SCOUT

Reggie Cobb enters his second season as a college scout for Tampa Bay. Cobb is responsible for the southwest portion of the United States and re-joined the Buccaneers after spending two seasons as a member of the Washington Redskins scouting department.

Cobb had a seven-year playing career that began as a second round pick (30th overall) of the Buccaneers in 1990. Cobb played his first four seasons (1990-93) with Tampa Bay before playing one season each with Green Bay (1994) and Jacksonville (1995) and his last two seasons with the New York Jets (1996-97).

In college, Cobb finished his career ranked third on Tennessee's career rushing chart with 2,360 yards and 26 touchdowns. He also lettered in track and graduated with a degree in urban studies in 1990.

Cobb and his wife, Stephanie, live in Sugarland, Texas, with their son DeMarcus.

FRANK DORAZIO

COLLEGE SCOUT

Frank Doriazo enters his fourth season with the Buccaneers as a college scout. He spent the 2001 and 2002 seasons scouting in the western region and recently moved to the northeast region in 2003. In 2002, Doriazo's contributions culminated with the Buccaneers first Super Bowl title, a 48-21 victory against Oakland in Super Bowl XXXVII. Before joining the Buccaneers, he spent three years as the director of operations for the University of Southern California football team (1998-2000).

Prior to working at USC, Doriazo served nine years at Purdue in various capacities. He worked as an assistant football recruiting coordinator (1989-91), football recruiting coordinator (1992-94) and as football administrative assistant/football operations (1995-97).

He also had stints in the Cleveland Browns and Cleveland Indians organizations between 1986-88. Prior to that, he served as student manager of Ohio State's football team for five seasons (1981-85). Dorazio received his bachelor's degree in business administration/marketing from Ohio State in 1985 and his master's degree in sports administration from Kent State in 1988. Dorazio is single and resides in Cleveland, Ohio.

DENNIS HICKEY

COLLEGE SCOUT

Dennis Hickey enters his seventh season as a college scout for Tampa Bay. He is responsible for scouting the midwestern states for the team. Hickey was a member of the Buccaneers first Super Bowl championship in 2002, a 48-21 victory against Oakland in Super Bowl XXXVII.

Before assuming his role as a scout for Tampa Bay, Hickey spent the 1996 and '97 seasons as a pro personnel assistant in the Bucs' scouting department. Prior to joining the Buccaneers, Hickey spent two years (1994-95) as an assistant coach at Blinn Junior College in Brenham, Texas. At Blinn, he coached the defensive backs and was responsible for recruiting in the state of Texas. Hickey played collegiately at Coffeyville Community College and was a three-year starter and captain at the University of Tulsa where he was also named an academic All-American. He received his bachelor's degree from Tulsa in 1994. He and his wife, Stephanie, have one daughter, Breanna, and one son, Barrett. They live in Lee Summit, Missouri.

PRO SCOUT

Mike Martin enters his second season in the Buccaneers pro personnel department and first as a pro scout. Martin assists in the recruiting and signing of free agents while also scouting the NFL and compiling reports on free agents and current Buccaneers.

Prior to joining the Bucs, he interned with the Tennessee Titans and also worked for Boffkin and Associate, an executive search consulting firm in Nashville, Tennessee.

Martin played collegiately at Vanderbilt University (1999-2002) as a safety and on special teams for the Commodores and was a 2003 SEC Scholar Athlete of the Year finalist. Martin graduated cum laude from Vanderbilt in 2002 with a bachelor's of science in human and organizational developmental studies. He also earned his master's degree in organizational leadership in 2003.

A native of Tampa, Martin attended Jesuit High School, he is single and resides in Tampa.

MIKE PHAIR

COLLEGE SCOUT

Entering his third season on Tampa Bay's staff, Mike Phair is responsible for scouting colleges in the west coast region of the United States for the Buccaneers. In just his first season with the organization in 2002, Phair helped lead the Buccaneers to their first Super Bowl title in team history. Before joining Tampa Bay, he spent a year coaching at Tiffin University, helping coach the linebackers and special teams along with his recruiting and academic study responsibilities with the team.

Prior to his stint at Tiffin, Phair spent two seasons (1999-2000) as a defensive graduate assistant at Arizona State University. While at ASU, he helped coach defensive ends and coordinated the scout teams for the defense and special teams.

A two-year starting linebacker at ASU, where he began his career as a walk-on in 1990, Phair also played two seasons at Mesa Community College and garnered first-team all-conference recognition in 1989.

Phair graduated from ASU with a bachelor's degree in sociology in 1994 and his master's degree in education, curriculum and instruction in 2000.

Mike and his wife, Jennifer, live in Orem, Utah with their three children: Parker, Coleman and Maisy.

SETH TURNER

NATIONAL COMBINE SCOUT

Seth Turner begins his fourth season as Tampa Bay's national combine scout. Turner serves as a scout for the southeastern United States, as well as Tampa Bay's scout for the annual NFL combine. In 2002, Turner was a part of the Buccaneers first Super Bowl championship, a 48-21 victory against Oakland in Super Bowl XXXVII.

Turner joined the Buccaneers in July of 2000 as an intern in the college and pro scouting department. In that role, he assisted in the evaluation of professional free agents and draft-eligible college players. He also served as one of Tampa Bay's representatives at the 2001 NFL Draft.

Prior to joining the Buccaneers, Turner was an intern for the NFL's player personnel department, as well as a summer intern for the Buffalo Bills' player personnel staff in 1999.

Turner graduated with a B.S. in physical education from Baker University in Kansas in 1997 and then earned a master's in sport management in 1999 from Indiana State. He was a four-year letterman at linebacker and defensive end at Baker, garnering third-team all-conference honors in 1996 as a senior.

Turner, a native of Lansing, Kansas, lives in Tampa with his wife, Ariana.

MIKE YOWARSKY

COLLEGE SCOUT

A 14-year member of the Buccaneers' scouting staff, Mike Yowarsky is responsible for the southeastern portion of the United States. Yowarsky's contributions proved vital in 2002, as the Buccaneers captured their first Super Bowl title in team history with a 48-21 victory against Oakland in Super Bowl XXXVII. He joined Tampa Bay in 1991 after spending the 1990 campaign as a graduate assistant at the University of Florida under head coach Steve Spurrier.

Prior to working at UF, Yowarsky spent 1989 as a teacher in Cleveland, Tennessee. From 1984-85, he was a graduate assistant at Kansas and then served as a defensive assistant for the Jayhawks from 1986-88. Yowarsky taught in the Knoxville school system from 1983-84.

Yowarsky earned his bachelor's degree in secondary education from Tennessee, and his master's in athletic administration and sports psychology from Kansas.

Mike and his wife, Viva, live in Cleveland, Tennessee with their daughters, Maclain and Bridger.

PERSONNEL CONSULTANT

Jim Gruden, a veteran of 34 professional and collegiate football seasons, enters his first season as personnel consultant with the Buccaneers in his second stint with the club. Gruden will work directly with general manager Bruce Allen and the entire personnel department as well as the Buccaneers coaches in all personnel matters.

Prior to joining the Buccaneers, Gruden spent 17 seasons with the San Francisco 49ers, most recently as a regional scout responsible for the Southeast region. Before working with the 49ers, he spent five seasons with Tampa Bay as director of player personnel (1984-86) and running backs coach (1982-83).

Born in Cleveland, Ohio, Gruden joined the NFL ranks in 1982, after eight years of high school coaching and 15 years of collegiate coaching at Heidelberg (OH) College (1966-68), Dayton (1969-72), Indiana (1973-77) and Notre Dame (1978-80). He was with the Fighting Irish during Joe Montana's playing days, and at Dayton he was an assistant coach under John McVay, former general manager of the San Francisco 49ers.

Gruden and his wife, Kathy, have three sons: Jon (Buccaneers head coach), Jay (Orlando Predators head coach/Buccaneers offensive assistant) and Jim (chief radiologist at Emory University in Atlanta, Georgia).

TODD TORISCELLI

HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

Head trainer Todd Toriscelli enters his eighth season with the Buccaneers. In 2002, his sixth season with the club, Toriscelli helped guide the Buccaneers to their first Super Bowl title, a 48-21 victory over Oakland in Super Bowl XXXVII. Prior to coming to Tampa Bay, he spent a combined seven years as a head trainer for Stanford, Miami (FL) and Kansas State universities.

Toriscelli spent 1995-96 as Stanford's head trainer, while also serving as the National Athletic Trainers Association's liaison to the NCAA Football Rules Committee during that time period. He worked as the head athletic trainer at the University of Miami during the 1993-94 seasons, and spent three years in the same capacity for Kansas State (1990-92).

A native of Steubenville, Ohio, Toriscelli holds a bachelor's degree in athletic training from Ohio University (1984), and a master's degree in physical education with an emphasis on sports medicine from the University of North Carolina (1985).

Toriscelli and his wife, Chris, reside in Tampa with their son Shane and daughter Jenna.

SHANNON MERRICK

DIRECTOR OF REHABILITATION

Shannon Merrick enters his first season as the Buccaneers' director of rehabilitation. Merrick works directly with Head Trainer Todd Toriscelli to treat and rehabilitate injured Buccaneer players.

He joined the Buccaneers after spending the past eight years as a site coordinator/rehabilitation director for HealthSouth in Melbourne, Florida. Prior to his appointment at HealthSouth, Merrick held athletic training internships at the University of Notre Dame (1989-90) and Indianapolis Colts (1988-89). While an undergraduate at Purdue University, he also served as a student athletic trainer from 1985-89.

Merrick earned a bachelor's degree in athletic training, pre-physical therapy from Purdue in 1990, and a master's degree in physical therapy from Washington University School of Medicine (St. Louis, MO) in 1992.

A native of Goshen, Indiana, Merrick and his wife, Lynne, reside in Tampa with their daughter Elani (7) and sons Joshua (3) and Jack (1).

PAT JERNIGAN

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Pat Jernigan begins his third season as the Buccaneers' assistant athletic trainer. In his first season in his current role with the organization, Jernigan helped the Buccaneers capture their first Super Bowl title.

His job responsibilities entail assisting Head Athletic Trainer Todd Toriscelli with the treatment and rehabilitation of players. Jernigan spent two seasons (2000-2001) as Tampa Bay's seasonal intern and also served as the Buccaneers' intern during training camp from 1998-2000.

Jernigan graduated from Valdosta State (GA) in 1998 with a bachelor's of science degree in sports medicine and earned a master's degree in health science from Middle Tennessee State University in 2000. While pursuing his master's degree at MTSU, he worked as a athletic trainer for both the football and baseball teams.

A native of Atlanta, Jernigan enjoys golfing, jogging and weightlifting. Jernigan, who resides in Tampa, is engaged to Krisden Wunsch.

DR. JOSEPH DIACO

TEAM PHYSICIAN

Dr. Joseph Diaco enters his 27th year with the Buccaneers and 26th as the chief team physician. Diaco is the Chief of Surgery at St. Joseph's Hospital in Tampa, where he currently practices general and laparoscopic surgery. In 2002, Diaco helped the Buccaneers claim their first Super Bowl title in team history with a 48-21 victory against Oakland in Super Bowl XXXVII.

Besides his aforementioned duties, Diaco is also a clinical professor at the University of South Florida and at one time served as the president of the Tampa Surgical Society. A fellow of the American College of Surgeons, Diaco came to the Tampa Bay area 30 years ago. From 1971-74, he served as the chief of surgery at the Air Force Hospital at Warner Robbins Air Force Base in Georgia. Diaco served his residency in general surgery at the University of Pennsylvania Hospital from 1965-70.

A Tampa resident, Diaco earned his bachelor's degree from Villanova and also graduated from Hahnemann Medical College and Hospital in his native Philadelphia. His twin brother, Nick, is a heart specialist in Los Angeles. Diaco has three sons: Daniel, Stephen and Joseph. Daniel is the Chief of Plastic Surgery at St. Joseph's Hospital and will be assisting Diaco this upcoming season. Stephen is a Tampa attorney and Joseph is also an attorney practicing in Tampa.

HEAD TEAM ORTHOPEDIC SURGEON

Dr. John Zvijac enters his seventh season as the Buccaneers head team orthopedic surgeon. Dr. Zvijac is a professor at the University of Miami School of Education, Department of Exercise Science and Sports Medicine as well as a member of the Athletic Training Education Advisory Board at Florida International University. He is in private practice at the UHZ Sports Medicine Institute in Coral Gables. Zvijac's contributions were vital to the Buccaneers as the club claimed its first Super Bowl title in 2002 against the Oakland Raiders in Super Bowl XXXVII.

Zvijac is also the team physician for the University of Miami, Florida International University and a consultant to the USTA while providing medical care for all Miami-Dade County Public High Schools.

Zvijac graduated from the State University of New York at Buffalo School of Medicine and completed his residency at the University of Miami School of Medicine. He also fulfilled an additional year of fellowship training in arthroscopy and sports medicine at the American Sports Medicine Institute in Birmingham, Alabama.

Zvijac resides in Miami with wife Gail.

DAVE LEVY

VIDEO DIRECTOR

Dave Levy begins his 17th season as the team's video director. Levy's contributions helped lead the Buccaneers to their first Super Bowl title in 2002, a 48-21 victory over Oakland in Super Bowl XXXVII.

His responsibilities include all videotaping, editing and production for the team. He also oversees the Bucs' game film library and handles film trade-outs with the other NFL clubs. In preparation for each season's NFL draft, Levy's department also aids the personnel department in acquiring, editing and maintaining videotape on draft-eligible players. He was hired by the Bucs after previously serving as an assistant in the Pittsburgh Steelers' video department.

A native of Pittsburgh, Levy went to high school in nearby Bethel Park. Levy also attended the Community College of Allegheny County, the University of Pittsburgh, and Indiana University of Pennsylvania. He and his wife, Kelly, a registered nurse, live in New Tampa with sons Andrew, Garrett and Bryce.

PAT BRAZIL

ASSISTANT VIDEO DIRECTOR

Pat Brazil enters his 14th season as Tampa Bay's assistant video director. He assists video director Dave Levy in the shooting and duplicating of games and practices while also editing and producing various other tapes for the coaching staff. The 2002 season saw Brazil help lead the Buccaneers to a Super Bowl XXXVII victory over the Oakland Raiders.

Brazil came to the Buccaneers from the Kansas City Chiefs, where he spent four seasons as a video assistant. Brazil's father, Dave, coached for more than 40 years, including 20 in the NFL.

A native of Tulsa, Oklahoma, Brazil graduated from Blue Springs (MO) High School and also attended Blue Springs Community College. He and his wife, Dana, live in Lutz with sons, Jason and Connor.

TIM SAIN

EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Tim Sain begins his third season on Tampa Bay's staff, serving as equipment manager after a long career in the college and pro ranks. Responsible for outfitting Buccaneer players and coaches, purchasing equipment and maintaining the locker room facilities, Sain also oversees the transportation of the team's equipment for road games. His duties proved to be invaluable as the Buccaneers earned their first Super Bowl championship against Oakland in Super Bowl XXXVII in 2002. The Super Bowl victory completed a rather rare feat for Sain, as he was also on the University of Florida football equipment staff when they won the national championship in 1996.

Sain came to Tampa Bay after spending 15 years as the Football Equipment Manager for the University of Florida. His main responsibilities included ordering and accounting for UF's football equipment, while also directing the Gators' game-day equipment efforts.

A 1975 graduate of UF with a degree in parks and recreation administration, Sain was a student manager for the Gators before moving on to work with the Portland Thunder of the World Football League in 1974 and 1975. From 1982-85, Sain served as Equipment and Facilities Director for the USFL's Tampa Bay Bandits after serving as a construction manager and job superintendent from 1976-81.

Tim and his wife, Nancy, reside in Tampa.

MARK MESCHEDÉ

ASSISTANT EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Mark Meschede enters his eighth season with Tampa Bay. His responsibilities with the team include assisting equipment manager Tim Sain with the outfitting of players and maintenance of Buccaneer locker room facilities. Meschede's contributions helped the Buccaneers capture their first Super Bowl title in 2002.

Meschede joined the Buccaneers' equipment staff on July 1, 1997. Before coming to Tampa, Meschede served as the equipment manager for NFL Europe's Frankfurt Galaxy from 1995-97. He was an equipment assistant with the Kansas City Chiefs from 1992-94.

Meschede owns a bachelor's degree in history from Missouri Valley College and a master's in history from Central Missouri State University. He is currently working towards his PhD in sport psychology. Originally from Marshall, Missouri, Meschede now lives in Tampa.

LARRY HOYT

EQUIPMENT ASSISTANT

Larry Hoyt enters his third season with the Buccaneers' equipment staff. His responsibilities with the staff include assisting equipment manager Tim Sain with the outfitting of players and maintenance of Buccaneer locker room facilities. In his first year with the Buccaneers in 2002, Hoyt was part of the team's first Super Bowl championship.

Prior to joining Tampa Bay, Hoyt held two different stints as the equipment manager for the Arena Football League's Orlando Predators, from 1995-99 and again from 2000-02. He also worked in sponsorship sales for the Predators and served as the team's interim ticket manager for a three-month period in 2000. During his tenure in Orlando, Hoyt was part of Arena Bowl championships in 1998 and 2000.

A native of Englewood, Florida, Hoyt earned a bachelor's of science degree in exercise and sports science from the University of Florida. He earned a scholarship while working as a student equipment manager under Sain for the Gator football team from 1990-95, and was part of SEC Championships in 1990, 1991, 1993 and 1994.

Hoyt, who also possesses his Florida real estate license, resides in Tampa with his wife, Peggy and son, Jamie, who was born this past offseason.

Acquired: D2, 1996

College: Purdue

6-Time Pro Bowl Selection (1997-2002)

Pro: Recognized as one of the game's most unique talents... Looks to return to action after missing 12 games with a neck strain in 2003... Starting FB for the Super Bowl XXXVII champion Tampa Bay Buccaneers... Displays an intriguing blend of power and balance... Named to the Pro Bowl for the sixth consecutive year in 2002, including the third straight year as a starter, marking the most appearances for an offensive player in club history... Possesses tremendous work ethic and toughness... His bruising style and penchant for finding the end zone has helped him become the Buccaneers' all-time leader in total touchdowns (59) and rushing touchdowns (47)... Ranks second all-time on the club's rushing list with 4,607 yards... Stands fourth on the Bucs' career scoring list with 358 points, tops among non-kickers... Owns seven career 100-yard rushing games... Tampa Bay owns a 39-8 record in the regular season when he scores a touchdown... Career totals include 1,198 rushing attempts for 4,607 yards (3.8 avg.) and 47 touchdowns and has added 230 receptions for 1,775 yards (7.7 avg.) and 12 touchdowns... Has played in 112 career games with 104 starts... Also has seen action in nine postseason contests with seven starts.

2003: Played in four games (at Philadelphia, vs. Carolina, at Atlanta and vs. Indianapolis) with three starts (vs. Carolina, at Atlanta and vs. Indianapolis) at fullback before being placed on injured reserve on October 7 because of a neck strain... Rushed 27 times for 77 yards and two touchdowns during the season... Also caught 10 passes for 83 yards... Started at fullback at Philadelphia (9/8) and rushed a team-leading 12 times for 23 yards... Also caught five passes for 36 yards... Rushed four times for nine yards vs. Carolina (9/14)... Also caught three passes for 22 yards... Started at fullback at Atlanta (9/21) and rushed for two touchdowns and 44 yards on eight carries... Scored on back-to-back touchdown runs of two-yards and one-yard in the third quarter... Started at fullback vs. Indianapolis (10/6) and rushed three times for one yard... Also caught two passes for 25 yards... Placed on injured reserve for the remainder of the season on October 7.

2002: Named to the Pro Bowl for the sixth consecutive season and a starter for the third straight year... The six appearances are the most for an offensive player in club history... Named to the

QUICK SLANTS

For the second consecutive year, Mike hosted a charity golf and fishing tournament weekend with all of the proceeds benefiting the Children's Cancer Center.

Football Digest and College and Pro Football Newsweekly's All-Pro teams... Played in all 16 regular season games with nine starts (all but vs. New Orleans, at Cincinnati, at Carolina, vs. Carolina, vs. Green Bay, at New Orleans and vs. Pittsburgh)... Played in all three playoff games with one start (vs. Oakland in the Super Bowl)... Led club with seven overall touchdowns... Rushed 146 times for 548 yards (3.8 avg.) and five touchdowns... Caught 35 passes for 242 yards (6.9) and two touchdowns... Did not start for the first time in his Buccaneer career (a streak of 92 games) as the offense started in a four wide receiver set in the season opener vs. New Orleans (9/8)... Rushed six times for 11 yards... Caught four passes for 48 yards (12.0 avg.) with a long of 15 yards... 48 receiving yards were his most since 1997... Three of four catches went for first downs, all coming after halftime... Rushed 11 times for 23 yards in first start of the season, at Baltimore (9/15)... Also caught five passes for 25 yards... 23 yards on the ground put him over the 4,000-yard plateau in rushing for his career... Started at FB and rushed for a two-yard TD against St. Louis (9/23)... Finished the game with 10 yards rushing on five attempts and one reception for 10 yards... Rushed seven times for 29 yards and one touchdown at Cincinnati (9/29)... Also caught one pass for six yards... Carried the ball four straight times, beginning at the 21-yard line, leading up to his one-yard touchdown plunge late in the fourth quarter... Started at fullback at Atlanta (10/6) and rushed for nine yards on four attempts... Also caught one pass for six yards... Had a breakthrough performance vs. Cleveland (10/13) with 126 yards rushing (seventh career 100-yard game) and two touchdowns on 17 carries... 121 of his yards came in the second half alone... Also caught two passes for 13 yards... Gained all 55 yards in a touchdown drive that culminated with him scoring from 17 yards out... Also scored on a one-yard touchdown run... Started at fullback at Philadelphia (10/20) and gained 14 yards on five carries... Also caught a team-leading five passes for eight yards... Moved into second place on the club's all-time rushing chart... Also surpassed the 200-catch plateau for his career... Saw action at full-back at Carolina (10/27), rushing five times for four yards while catching three passes for 11 yards... Started at the tailback position vs. Minnesota (11/3) and produced 71 total yards... Rushed 26 times for 55 yards and added three catches for 16 yards and one touchdown... Touchdown was his first receiving on the season and came from five yards out... Rushed twice for eight yards vs. Carolina (11/17) while also catching two passes for 13 yards... Rushed nine times for 30 yards vs. Green Bay (11/24)... Rushed eight times for 17 yards at New Orleans (12/1) along with catching two passes for 47 yards and a touchdown... 44-yard touchdown reception was the longest of his career... Started vs. Atlanta (12/8) and had his second-best rushing day this season... Paced the team with 95 rushing yards on 13 carries (7.3), including his two longest rushes of the season, of 27 and 32 yards, respectively... In his 100th career start, rushed 11 times for a team-leading 47 yards at Detroit (12/15) with one touchdown... One-yard touchdown dive capped off a 96-yard drive, the longest of the season and second-longest in club history... Also caught three passes for 23 yards... Rushed five times for 28 yards, including a long of 18 yards vs. Pittsburgh (12/23)... Also caught one pass for four yards... Started and rushed 12 times for 42 yards at Chicago (12/29)... In the Divisional Playoff game, rushed 17 times for 60 yards and a pair of touchdowns (both two yards) vs. San Francisco (1/12)... Led the team with 17 carries and 25 yards rushing in NFC Championship Game at Philadelphia (1/19)... Scored on a one-yard run to put the Bucs up 10-7 and give them their first lead of the game... Score also capped off a 96-yard drive, the longest in club postseason history... Rushed 10 times for 15 yards and one touchdown vs. Oakland (1/26) in Super Bowl XXXVII, while also catching five passes for 43 yards... Continued his punishing ways against New England (9/3), recording 54 yards on 16 carries with two bruising scoring runs of five yards and three yards, respectively... Posted game-winning touchdown late in the third quarter... Moved into fourth on the club's all-time scoring list with his second quarter TD... Also moved into second place on the all-time TD list with his 35th and 36th career scores... Passed RB Errict Rhett for fourth on the team's all-time rushing chart with a five-yard run in the second quarter... Had 15 carries for a season-high 71 yards (4.7 avg.) and one touchdown versus Chicago (9/10)... Had the run of the day, breaking three tackles while carrying another defender into the end zone on a 20 yard scamper... Led the team in rushing with 68 yards rushing on 21 carries at Detroit (9/17)... Scored for the third consecutive week with a four-yard touchdown in the third quarter... Had 60 yards on 16 attempts (3.8 avg.) to lead the Bucs in rushing for the third consecutive week versus the Jets (9/24)... Had fourth touchdown of the year against Washington (10/1), rushing for 46 yards on 15 carries... Racked up 10 rushes for 56 yards (5.6 avg.), including a 14-yard run in the fourth quarter that helped set up a WR Reidel Anthony touchdown grab... Was injured at Chicago (11/19) with a third degree sprain of the MCL in his left knee... Missed the next three contests, but returned to the starting lineup in a Monday Night win versus St. Louis (12/18)... Led the team in rushing in a Wild Card game at Philadelphia (12/31), carrying the ball seven times for 42 yards (6.0 avg.)... Had an 18-yard run in the second quarter that help set up a 29-yard field goal by K Martin Gramatica.

1999: Started all 16 games, earning Associated Press All-Pro honors and a trip to the Pro Bowl... Also collected first-team All-Pro honors from College and Pro Football Newsweekly and Football Digest... Rushed for a career-best and team-leading 949 yards on a career-high 242 carries (3.9 avg.)... Accounted for all seven of Tampa Bay's rushing TDs... Also caught 27 passes for 239 yards and two scores... Carried 15 times for 64 yards and scored on a 17-yard screen pass in 19-5 win at Philadelphia (9/19)... Rushed for a career-high 131 yards on a career-best 25 carries in 13-10 win over Denver (9/26)... Opened scoring with a 28-yard TD run on Tampa Bay's opening possession, then gobbled up 52 yards in the fourth quarter... Racked up 87 yards on 14 carries at Green Bay (10/10)... Scored on a 22-yard run that gave the Bucs a 23-19 lead with 1:45 left... Netted 72 yards on 14 carries in win over Chicago (10/24)... Toted the ball 25 times for 117 yards and one score in 31-16 win at New Orleans (11/7)... Racked up 64 yards in the fourth quarter, including a game-clinching 25-yard TD run... Rushed for 48 yards — 29 in the final quarter — in win over Atlanta (11/21)... Totaled 73 yards in 16-3 win at Seattle (11/28), including 24-yard catch that set up Tampa Bay's lone TD... Collected 95 yards on 23 carries in Monday Night win over Vikings (12/6), including season-best 30-yard scamper that set up a FG... Scored twice in the fourth quarter to rally Bucs to 23-16 win over Lions (12/12)... Plunged into the end zone from one yard out, then scored on a 22-yard screen pass with 4:18 left to give Tampa Bay its first lead... Carried 19 times for 79 yards and two TDs in win over Packers (12/26)... Scored on a five-yard run to extend Bucs' lead to 22-10... Sealed the game with a 17-yard run, faking CB Mike McKenzie out of his cleats on his way to the end zone... Rushed for 61 yards in the fourth quarter... Carried 22 times for 64 yards and a one-yard TD run in division-clinching win at Chicago (1/2)... Turned in a high-light-reel scoring scamper that ignited a two-TD rally in 14-13 divisional playoff triumph over Washington (1/15)... Initially ventured right, eluded some tackles, then cut back to the middle, bounced off another tackle and rumbled into the end zone for perhaps the longest two-yard TD run ever caught on film... Rushed for 39 yards on 12 carries in NFC Championship Game at St. Louis (1/23).

1998: Played in his second consecutive Pro Bowl as the NFC's top vote-getter at fullback (considered a non-starting position)... Also the only Buccaneer selected to the Associated Press All-Pro first team and earned the same honor from USA Today... Pro: Physically imposing punter, possessing one of the NFL's stronger legs... Has shown improvement over the past four seasons, especially related to his consistency, since having his 1999 rookie campaign dashed by a testicular cancer diagnosis late in training camp... Spent his first four professional seasons with the Green Bay Packers as one of the NFC's top punters despite often kicking in the NFL's toughest weather conditions... Signed by the Buccaneers as an unrestricted free agent on March 13, 2004... Has appeared in 64 career games and five postseason contests... Has totaled 308 career punts for 12,659 yards (41.1 avg.) with a long of 68... Has placed 85 punts inside the 20-yard line in his career... In six career games against the Buccaneers, including four contests at Raymond James Stadium, has totaled 38 punts for 1,661 yards (43.7 avg.) with 13 punts placed inside the 20-yard line... Placed a career-high 26 punts inside the 20-yard line in 2002 after recording the second-best net average in Packers team history in 2001... Raised his gross average by a full four yards between his first and second seasons, jumping from a 38.5-yard average in 2000 to the 42.5-yard mark in 2001... Selected by the Packers in the fourth round (133rd overall) of the 1999 draft.

2003: Appeared in all 16 games for the fourth straight season, extending his consecutive games played streak to 64... Also saw action in both playoff contests... Ranked sixth among NFC punters in both gross (41.7) and net average (35.1)... Punted 69 times for 2,875 yards with a long of 60 yards... Placed 16 punts inside the 20-yard line... Broke David Beverly's 23-year-old Packers team record for most consecutive punts without a block (274, set from 1977-80) by extending his own streak of unblocked punts to 308; has not had a regular-season punt blocked over his four-year NFL career... Made one special teams tackle... Punted 12 times for 485 yards (40.4-yard average), placing two inside the 20 and a long of 55 yards, during the postseason... Matched his career high of four punts inside the 20, including a pair that landed inside the five-yard line, in 20-13 triumph at Tampa Bay (11/16) while equaling his season highs in both punts (seven) and net average (40.3 yards)... Also punted seven times vs. Detroit (9/14), against Philadelphia (11/10) and in playoff contest with the Eagles (1/11)... Enjoyed successful afternoon at Arizona (9/21), establishing his season-best 40.3-yard net average, posting a 43.3-yard gross average and dropping three of his four punts inside the 20... Had a three-game stretch, starting with the Kansas City contest (10/12) where his gross averages were 44.8, 45.8 and 46.5 yards, respectively... Also launched a season-long 60-yard punt against the Chiefs... Put up a season-high 47.8-yard gross average, while booting another 60-yarder, at San Diego (12/14)... Punted seven times for a 41.9-yard average in Divisional playoff contest at Philadelphia (1/11), including a pair he landed inside the 20.

2002: Saw action in all 16 games and one playoff contest... Finished in the top half of NFC punters in both net average (35.7 yards; seventh) and punts inside the 20-yard line (a career-high 26; fifth)... Kept his touchbacks to only six among 79 punts and never had more than a single touchback in any one game... Finished 10th in the conference in gross average (41.7; 79 for 3,296 yards)... Averaged a career-best 53.3 yards per punt (min. four att.) — also tying him with Boyd Dowler for the fourth-best, single-game performance in Packers history — at New Orleans (9/15), when he punted four times for 213 yards with two placed inside the 20... Also enjoyed a season-high 42.3-yard net average and a season-long 57-yard punt against the Saints... Maintained a 48.7-yard average over seven punts at Tampa Bay (11/24) with a long of only 54 yards; ended Bucs contest with a 42.1 net average... Established a career high with four punts placed inside the 20-yard line in victory over Carolina (9/29) while averaging 42.6 yards on a season-high eight punts... Dropped three inside the 20 in three other games — at Detroit (9/22), vs. Miami (11/4) and against Buffalo (12/22); did so in win over the Bills in spite of swirling winds that gusted up to 30 miles per hour... Forced four fair catches in game at Minnesota (11/17)... Punted five times for a 46.0-yard average at Chicago (10/7), he later turned in similarly good day in rematch with the Bears (12/1), posting a 44.7-yard average in spite of frigid conditions... Had a workmanlike day in rainy conditions at New England (10/13) with six punts for a 43.0-yard average... Incurred the only blocked punt of his NFL career in playoff contest with Atlanta (1/4), when the Falcons' Mark Simoneau stormed up the middle to smother the ball midway through the first quarter.

2001: Played in all 16 regular-season games, plus both playoff contests... Posted the second-best net average (36.5 yards) in team history... Punted 82 times for 3,485 yards (42.5 average), dropping 21 inside the 20-yard line with 10 touchbacks... His 36.5-yard net average ranked third among NFC punters... Upped his gross average by a full four yards over the previous season (to 42.5, after averaging 38.5 yards in 2000) to place seventh in the conference on that basis... Was named NFL 'Special Teams Player of the Week' after punting three times for gross and net averages of 47.7 yards, including two inside the 20, in NFC Wild Card playoff win over San Francisco (1/13)... His 47.7 net average represented a career best and was the highest in a playoff game (min. 3 punts) since the Steelers' Craig Colquitt had a 48.3-yard net average vs. Houston in the 1979 postseason... Subsequently averaged 43.7 yards on three punts (two inside the 20-yard line) in Divisional playoff game at St. Louis (1/20)... Finished a strong postseason with six punts for 274 yards – a 45.7-yard gross average – and a net average of 44.7 yards with four inside the 20 and no touchbacks... Averaged a season-high 47.8 yards on four punts vs. Atlanta (Nov. 18), including a 43.3-yard net and two inside the 20... Had his initial punt of 60-or-more yards in the NFL four at Detroit on Thanksgiving Day (11/22) while averaging 46.5 yards on four kicks... Subsequently nailed a career-best 68-yarder among seven punts for a 46.9-yard average in Monday night win at Jacksonville (12/3)... Dropped punts at the Buccaneers' one- and five-yard lines at Tampa Bay (10/7) in posting a regular-season career best net average of 44.0 yards... In 21-20 rematch victory over the Bucs (11/4), he averaged 46.3 yards on four fourth-quarter punts.

2000: Won Green Bay's punting job left open when Louie Aguiar was not re-signed, beating out veteran Tom Hutton with a steady training camp performance... Played in all 16 games in his first NFL season on the field... Punted 78 times for 3,003 yards (38.5 avg.)... Posted a 34.6-yard net average while dropping 22 of his 78 punts inside the 20... Managed to maintain gross and net averages of 41.5 and 41.1 yards, respectively, in the finale against Tampa Bay (11/24) despite punting a season-high eight times in 15-degree temperatures... Hit a season-long 53-yard punt a week earlier in win at Minnesota (12/17)... Made a strong statement early in the year with a stellar performance at Buffalo (9/10), punting seven times for a 42.7-yard average, including a season-best 42.3-yard net and three placed inside the 20... Also had three punts inside the 20-yard line in three other games – at Tampa Bay (11/12), at Chicago (12/3) and in the rematch with the Buccaneers (12/24)... Turned in a season-high 44.8-yard average (four-punt min.) vs. Philadelphia (9/17)... Pinned the Colts at their own six-yard line, leading to an early Green Bay safety and the eventual winning margin, in 26-24 win over Indianapolis (11/19).

1999: Missed his entire rookie season after being diagnosed with testicular cancer September 1 on the eve of the team's final preseason game... Was placed on the reserve/non-football illness list on September 5... Having discovered the cancer in its early stages, he began a whirlwind period in his life with an initial surgery on September 1 to remove a tumor... Subsequently underwent a second surgery later that month, in Portland, to remove roughly 25 cancerous lymph nodes and then went through two cycles of intensive chemotherapy, which were completed in late November of 1999... Eventually rehabilitated in Eugene, Oregon, as he worked to regain the nearly 40 pounds he had lost during the treatment process... Was supported throughout his treatment by Tour de France champion cyclist Lance Armstrong, who had used the same surgeon and chemotherapist in his own successful battle with testicular cancer... Armstrong's support, often in the form of exchanged emails, typically included counsel on what to expect as the treatment process unfolded... Also received emotional and monetary support from his Packers teammates throughout his ordeal... When it was found that he was ineligible for the NFLPA insurance program – Bidwell's cancer was discovered 11 days prior to the first regular-season game, when his insurance coverage would have begun – his teammates, particularly kicker Ryan Longwell, worked to raise nearly $100,000 to help defray his anticipated medical expenses, including roughly $70,000 in personal cash contributions... A team-wide golf tournament to help cover his costs also was held on the players' off day... Before his cancer diagnosis, he had punted 11 times for 440 yards (40.0 avg.), with a long of 58, in three preseason games... Struggled early in training camp, but seemed to find his true form in the team's third preseason contest, at New Orleans (8/28), averaging 43.6 yards on six punts... Was the second of two fourth-round draft choices (133rd overall and the first punter) by Green Bay in 1999, he was selected with a free agency compensatory pick.

College: Became Oregon's punter midway through the first game of his redshirt freshman season when the incumbent suffered what turned out to be a career-ending injury... Lettered the next four years (1995-98) for the Ducks... Had redshirted in 1994, playing as much tight end as punter for the scout team... Was concentrating on his duties as a backup wide receiver when punting opportunity presented itself early in '95 campaign... Punted 229 times for 9,350 yards – a 40.8-yard average, third-best in school history with a long of 69... Placed 61 punts inside the 20 and registered a 38.1-yard net average over his collegiate career... Caught seven passes for 144 yards and two touchdowns - a 43-yard catch and run and an 11-yarder that proved to be the game winner vs. Jacksonville (11/24)... His 144 receiving yards were the second highest yardage total of his career (146 vs. San Francisco, 12/30/01)... Went over the 6,000-yard mark for his career in receiving yardage against the Jaguars... Against Washington (11/28), hauled in the game winning touchdown on a 41-yard catch-and-run in the fourth quarter... Finished the game with three catches for 54 yards... Caught one pass for seven yards vs. San Francisco (12/8) while spraining his left thumb during the third quarter... Also had a 30-yard punt return against the 49ers... Played with the sprained thumb at the New York Giants (12/15), and caught one pass for 30 yards, the 400th reception of his career... Held without a catch for only the second time in his career, but turned in a 71-yard punt return vs. Philadelphia (12/21)... Shut out again the following week at Washington (12/29), marking just his third career game without a reception.

2001: Started all 16 games with the Cowboys... After fully recovering from major knee surgery that forced him to miss 15 games in 2000, finished the year second on the team in receptions (52) and receiving yards (699) while leading in receiving touchdowns (three)... Led the team with six receptions for 18 yards in the opener against Tampa Bay (9/9), marking his return to action following his ACL injury in Week One of the 2000 season... Held without a reception for the first time in his career at Philadelphia (9/30)... Picked up his first touchdown reception of the year with a 40-yard reception at Oakland (10/7)... Finished with two catches for 59 yards and one rushing attempt for 10 yards against the Raiders... On pace to enjoy his finest game of the year against Washington (10/15) when a second quarter foot sprain forced him to miss the second half... Prior to the injury, had four catches for 51 yards... Tied for the team lead in receptions (three for 28 yards) vs. Arizona (10/28)... Also drew a pass interference penalty that picked up 47 yards and led to the Cowboys deciding touchdown... At the New York Giants (11/4), registered 73 yards and a touchdown on four receptions... Against Philadelphia (11/18), caught two passes for 20 yards and ran the ball twice for 22 yards... Tied for the club lead in receptions vs. Denver (11/22) with six catches for 64 yards... At Washington (12/2), recorded a 13-yard reception and drew an 11-yard pass interference penalty to convert a fourth-down attempt... In his return to Seattle (12/16), caught a season-high seven passes for 82 yards... Biggest play of the game was a 40-yard catch... Tied for the team lead with three receptions for 28 yards at Arizona (12/23)... With that yardage, topped the 5,000-yard receiving mark for his career... Set a career-high with 146 receiving yards on six receptions (24.3 avg.) vs. San Francisco (12/30)... Caught a 47-yard touchdown along with receptions of 44 and 26 yards... Closed the year with three catches for 58 yards at Detroit (1/6).

2000: Started one game with the Cowboys... In the season opener against Philadelphia (9/3), led the team with four receptions for 62 yards and a touchdown... All four of his receptions gave Dallas a first down, including two on third down... In the fourth quarter he tore the ACL in his left knee... Placed on injured reserve on September 8 and underwent reconstructive surgery on October 5.

1999: Played in eight games with four starts with the Seahawks... Activated to the 53-man roster on November 13 after an eight-week contract dispute... For the season, had 22 receptions for 335 yards (15.2) and one touchdown... Although he didn't start against the Broncos (11/14) in his first game back, caught four passes for 88 yards, including a key 39-yard reception in the third quarter... Had his largest impact of the season at Oakland (12/5) when he recorded four receptions for a team-high 68 yards and a touchdown... The score, his only touchdown of the season, was from 31 yards out... Led the team again the following week with six receptions for 85 yards vs. the San Diego Chargers (12/12).

1998: Started all 16 games with the Seahawks... Led the team in receptions and touchdowns for the third consecutive season while being named first alternate for the AFC Pro Bowl squad... Tied for the AFC lead with 10 receiving touchdowns and tied for third with 12 total touchdowns, tying his career-high set in 1997... Finished the season eighth in the AFC with 1,047 receiving yards, the third 1,000-yard season of his career... His punt return average of 10.0 was seventh in the AFC... Led the team with 65 receptions and four 100-yard games during the year... In the season opener at Philadelphia (9/6), posted his ninth career 100-yard game with a then career-high 142 yards on six receptions, including touchdown catches of 35 and 25 yards... Scored another touchdown among his two receptions vs. Arizona (9/13)... Added his 10th career 100-yard game came at Pittsburgh (9/27) with a 139-yard outburst on a season-high seven receptions... Caught a career-long 81-yard touchdown pass at San Diego (10/25) and later connected on a 41-yard pass to the one-yard line to set up the game-winning touchdown... Finished the game with four catches for 130 yards... Also returned a punt 74 yards for his third career punt return touchdown... Returned a punt 56 yards for a score vs. Oakland (11/15) and caught four passes for 71 yards, including a 44-yard touchdown pass... Against Tennessee (11/29), caught a seven-yard touchdown pass before posting his fourth 100-yard receiving day of the season with 127 yards and two touchdowns on two receptions at the New York Jets (12/6)... The touchdowns against the Jets were from 70 and 57 yards out and marked his seventh-career multi-touchdown game... Tied a season-high with seven receptions vs. San Diego (12/13), including a touchdown, and then led the team in receptions vs. Indianapolis (12/20) with five, including a three-yard touchdown pass... Presented the ball to a Make-A-Wish child, Sterling Grover, following the touchdown.

1997: Started 15 games, missing only the Tennessee game (10/5) because of injury... Suffered the injury the previous week at Kansas City (9/27), an injury suffered on a first quarter touchdown reception which kept him out the remainder of that game... For the season, led the team in receptions, yards and touchdowns for the second consecutive year and set single-season bests with 72 receptions, 1,049 receiving yards and 12 touchdowns - averaging 28.6 yards on each of his scores... His touchdown total was the most by a Seahawks player since Steve Largent had 12 in 1985 and was one off the club record by Daryl Turner in 1984... His 12 touchdowns tied for the AFC lead and was the third best total touchdown figure in the NFL... Twice during the season, tied his single-game high with eight catches at St. Louis (10/19) and again at Denver (11/2), in addition he had at least five receptions in eight games... Against Oakland (10/26), had seven receptions for 117 yards and three touchdowns... Scored all three touchdowns in the second half, including the game-clincher with 2:24 left... One of three 100-yard efforts on the year... Caught five passes for 106 yards vs. San Diego (9/21) and six for 101 with two touchdowns vs. San Francisco (12/21)... Totaled 98 yards receiving at Denver (11/2)... At San Diego (11/9), scored the game-winning touchdown on a 40-yard reception with 2:20 remaining... Named a first alternate to the AFC Pro Bowl squad.

1996: Started all 16 games with the Seahawks... Just missed becoming only the fourth receiver in league history to have back-to-back 1,000-yard receiving seasons in his first two years, finishing the season leading the team in receptions (57), yards (987) and touchdowns (seven)... Posted two 100-yard games during the season... Opened the season with a 60-yard reception at San Diego (9/1) before tallying his second career punt return touchdown with an 88-yarder vs. Denver (9/8)... Turned out a season-best 137 yards on five receptions, including touchdowns of 51 and 65 yards at Miami (10/6)... Had a single-game high eight receptions in back-to-back midseason games against Houston (11/3) and Minnesota (11/10)... In the Oilers' contest, had 94 yards receiving and the game-tying touchdown reception with 3:30 left... Eight catches against the Vikings were good for 91 yards and one score... In a late season AFC West showdown vs. Oakland (11/24), had three receptions for 99 yards, with receptions of 40 and 42 yards to set up touchdowns... Caught five balls for 108 yards, with a 43-yarder to set up a touchdown at Denver (12/1)... Through the first seven games of the season, averaged 11.8 yards on 12 punt returns to rank fourth in the AFC before relinquishing those duties to concentrate on offense.

1995: Started all 16 games for the Seahawks... Was the first rookie wide receiver to start every game for Seattle and the first since 1976 to start the opener... Along the way, was named NFL

Offensive Rookie of the Year by College and Pro Football Newsweekly and was a consensus All-Rookie choice... Caught 67 passes for 1,039 yards and seven touchdowns, becoming the 10th rookie in NFL history to surpass 1,000 yards and the first since 1986... Combined with WR Brian Blades to form the first duo with 1,000 yards in the same season in Seattle history... Also added 154 rushing yards and a touchdown while returning 36 punts for a 10.0-yard average and one touchdown... Along the way, set franchise season records for receptions, yards and 100-yard games (three) by a rookie, totals that also led all NFL rookies — as did his seven touchdown receptions... The first record to fall was Daryl Turner's for yardage (715 in 1984) 11 games into the season... In Week 14, broke WR Steve Largent's record for rookie receptions (54 in 1976)... Prior to his arrival, the franchise had seen only five 100-yard games by a rookie, but he almost matched that himself, posting a franchise rookie best three 100-yard games: five receptions for 102 yards and one touchdown at Buffalo (10/15); five receptions for 114 yards and two scores at Jacksonville (11/12); and five catches for 108 yards against Oakland (10/08)... In the Jaguars game, established a franchise record for the longest run from scrimmage with an 86-yard touchdown dash... Accounted for 200 yards from scrimmage in the game and earned AFC Offensive Player of the Week honors for his performance... A club-record 89-yard punt return for a touchdown against the New York Giants (11/5) started him on his way to AFC Special Teams Player of the Month honors for November, a month in which he returned 13 punts for a 13.2 yard average and one touchdown... Both the 89-yard punt return and the 86-yard run were the longest such plays in the NFL in 1995... For the season, averaged 48.0 yards on each of his nine touchdowns (seven receiving, one rushing, one punt return) and was one of two players in the NFL (San Francisco's Jerry Rice) to score three different ways.

College: Finished his college career second in Ohio State history in touchdown receptions with 19 — trailing only Cris Carter's 27 — and had two games with three touchdowns... Finished fourth in both career receptions (108) and receiving yards (1,894)... Also added 20 kickoff returns for a 25.0-yard average and one score and 34 punt returns for a 7.8 average... Earned First-Team All-Big Ten Conference honors as a junior and Second-Team accolades as a senior while leading the team in receiving both years... As a senior, recorded 44 receptions for 669 yards and seven touchdowns... Also returned 18 kickoffs for 462 yards (25.7) and one touchdown... Also returned 16 punts for a 10.6 average... Finished his senior season catching eight passes for 146 yards and two touchdowns in the Citrus Bowl against Alabama, including a career-best 69-yard reception... As a junior, caught 47 passes for 946 yards and a school record equaling (Carter — 1986) 11 touchdowns... His yardage total ranked third for a single-season in school history trailing Carter's 1,127 in 1986 and 950 in 1985...

Posted four 100-yard games, including 186 yards (third best single-game total in school history) on nine receptions with three touchdowns against Michigan State... Pro: Highly-respected veteran quarterback... A smart and savvy signal caller with an unmatched work ethic and an ability to soundly run any offense... Signed with the Buccaneers on March 15, 2004 after spending the last 11 seasons as a backup for the New York Giants (2000-2003) and Dallas Cowboys (1993-1999)... Expected to compete for a backup QB spot behind starter QB Brad Johnson... Has appeared in 40 career games with nine starts while also playing in two career postseason games... Completed 165-of-294 pass attempts in his career (56.1%) for 2,042 yards with 11

Jason has spent time as a color analyst for FOX the last four offseasons during the broadcast of NFL Europe games.

touchdowns and five interceptions... Has a career QB rating of 83.2... Owns a 6-3 record for his career as a starter, all with Dallas

(1-0 in 1993, 1-0 in 1994, 3-2 in 1998 and 1-1 in 1999)... Began his career as an undrafted rookie and spent two seasons on NFL practice squads, sandwiched around stints in the Canadian Football League, the World League of American Football and a year coaching at his alma mater (Princeton), before making Dallas' active roster in 1993... Originally entered the league as an undrafted free agent with the New Orleans Saints in 1989.

2003: Was inactive for 13 games and did not play in three others, serving the majority of the season as the Giants third QB... Inactive as the third QB for the season's first 13 games: vs. St. Louis (9/7), vs. Dallas (9/15), vs. Carolina (12/28), at Washington (9/21), vs. Miami (10/5), at New England (10/12), vs. Philadelphia (10/19), at Minnesota (10/26), at NY Jets (11/2), vs. Atlanta (11/9), Philadelphia (11/16), at Tampa Bay (11/24) and vs. Buffalo (11/30)... Active as the backup quarterback but did not play in the season's final three contests: vs. Washington (12/7), at New Orleans (12/14) and at Dallas (12/21).

2002: Was inactive as the third QB for all 16 regular season games and the NFC Wild Card game at San Francisco (1/5).

2001: Played in 15 games, with no starts... Saw all his action as the holder on extra points and field goal attempts... Did not play at Denver (9/10), but was the holder and backup QB for the final 15 games of the season.

2000: Played in two regular season games and the NFC Championship Game... Did not attempt a pass in the regular season, running out the clock at Arizona (11/26) and vs. Pittsburgh (12/10)... Played the entire fourth period in the NFC Championship Game, completing his only pass to Ike Hilliard for four yards.

1999: Played in five games with two starts for Dallas... Was 1-1 as the starter for the Cowboys, filling in for Troy Aikman... Finished the season with 32 completions on 64 attempts for 314 yards, three touchdowns and one INT... Took over when Aikman suffered a concussion on the first drive of the second half at Minnesota (11/8)... Completed 3-of-11 passes for four yards... Earned his first start of the season vs. Green Bay (11/14)... Completed 13-of-23 passes for 199 yards and two touchdowns in victory... Started the following week at Arizona (11/21) and completed 16-of-29 passes for 111 yards and an 11-yard touchdown pass to David LaFleur in a loss to Cardinals.

1998: Played in eight games with five starts... Saw the most extensive action of his career after beginning the season as the Cowboys' No. 2 quarterback for the second time... Was 3-2 as a starter when Aikman missed five games early in the season with a fractured clavicle... Finished with career-high totals of 158 attempts, 91 completions, 1,206 yards, five touchdowns and three INTs... After Aikman was injured in the second quarter at Denver (9/13), guided Dallas to field goals on his first three possessions and finished 14-of-19 (73.7%) for 113 yards... Faced the Giants in Giants Stadium on a Monday night (9/21) the following week in his first start since Nov. 24, 1994 and completed 11-of-27 passes for 224 yards and a touchdown on an 80-yard scoring pass to Billy Davis... The 80-yard pass was the longest of his career and the longest play from scrimmage by Dallas since a 90-yard Aikman-to-Alvin Harper pass play on Nov. 13, 1994... The next week against Oakland (9/27) marked the first back-to-back starts of Garrett's career, and he completed 18-of-33 passes for 222 yards and two interceptions in a loss... At Washington (10/4), connected on 14-of-17 passes (82.4%) for 169 yards and a 43-yard touchdown to Ernie Mills in a victory over the Redskins... Was 14-of-22 for 287 yards, including seven pass plays of over 20 yards, and two touchdowns the following week against Carolina (10/11)... In his final start of the year at Chicago (10/18), finished 14-of-26 for 136 yards, a touchdown and one interception.

1997: Inactive for the first 15 games before seeing his only action of the year in the season-finish against the Giants (12/21), completing 10-of-14 passes for 56 yards in fourth quarter action.

1996: Played in one game... Inactive for 13 regular season games and one postseason game... Did not play at Philadelphia (9/30) and vs. Arizona (10/13)... Led three fourth quarter drives at Washington (12/22), completing all three of his passes for 44 yards and guiding Dallas to its only touchdown of the day... Saw his first career postseason action against Minnesota (12/28), leading the Cowboys to a field goal on 2-of-2 passing for 14 yards.

1995: Played in one game... Inactive as the third quarterback in 18 of 19 games, including the postseason... Only action was in the fourth quarter against San Francisco (11/12) when Aikman (bruised left knee) and Wade Wilson (lacerated left hand) were both injured... Completed 4-of-5 passes for 46 yards, including an 8-yard touchdown pass to Michael Irvin.

1994: Played in two games with one start... After being inactive for the first 10 games, saw action against Washington (11/20), replacing Aikman (sprained knee) and Rodney Peete (sprained thumb), who were injured during the game... In only his second NFL start, led Dallas to a 42-31 come-from-behind victory against Green Bay (11/24) with a club record 36 second-half points... Led Dallas to scores on six consecutive drives, including five straight second-half touchdowns, after the Packers had taken a 17-3 lead... Finished with 15 completions on 26 attempts for 311 yards, two touchdowns and one interception... Received a Game Ball from the coaches, earned NFC Offensive Player of the Week honors and was the NFL/Miller Lite Player of the Week.

1993: Played in five games with one start... Moved onto the active roster ahead of Hugh Millen on the depth chart after passing for 549 yards and three touchdowns in the preseason... Orchestrated two scoring drives and completed 5-of-6 passes for 34 yards against the Giants (11/7) after Aikman strained his left hamstring and left the game... The following week against Phoenix (11/14), made his first NFL start in the Cowboys 20-15 win... Moved into the third quarterback spot and was deactivated for the final seven regular season games and all three postseason games with the mid-November signing of QB Bernie Kosar.

1992: Attended training camp with Dallas, but he was released on the final roster cut and was signed onto the practice squad the following day... Started the year with San Antonio of the World League, but was released so he could sign with Dallas.

1991: Opened the World League season as the starting quarterback for the San Antonio Riders, but suffered a separated shoulder in the season opener... Rebounded to complete 60-of-113 passes for 609 yards, three touchdowns and three interceptions... Following his World League season, joined the Ottawa Rough Riders of the Canadian Football League for 13 games, seeing very limited action.

1989-90: After going undrafted in 1989, signed with New Orleans as a free agent and spent the year on the Saints developmental roster before being released prior to the 1990 season... Spent 1990 as an assistant coach at Princeton before joining the World League in the spring of 1991.

College: An honorable mention All-America selection at Princeton as a senior, establishing NCAA Division I-AA records for single-season completion percentage (68.2%) and lowest percentage of passes intercepted (1.0%)... As the 1988 Ivy League Player of the Year, completed 204-of-299 passes for 2,217 yards, 12 touchdowns and three interceptions... Despite playing only two seasons at Princeton, finished his career second on the school's all-time passing list with 4,274 yards, including a career-high 309 yards on 25-of-31 passing against Lehigh as a junior... Earned a degree in history.

Personal: Married to Brill. Was an all-league safety and quarterback at University High School in Chagrin Falls, Ohio... Also lettered in basketball and baseball, earning all-league honors in basketball... Jason and his family followed his father Jim's coaching career with stops in Pennsylvania, Florida, Dallas, New Jersey, Houston, New Orleans and finally Cleveland... Has seven brothers and sisters, including Judd and John, who have been assistant coaches in the NFL... In conjunction with the NFL and the NFLPA, hosted the Play It Smart Football Clinic at his alma mater Princeton University this past offseason for 200 student-athletes... At the clinic, student-athletes acquired football instruction from professional players and college coaches and attended life skills workshops... Was very active in the Dallas community, hosting a summer youth football camp benefiting Spina Bifida Association, Happy Hill Farm, Irving Infant Intervention Center and Crossroads Interfaith Housing... In 1997, established the Jason Garrett Starfish Charities, whose mission is to strive to make the New York Metropolitan and the Dallas/Ft. Worth community a better place by enriching the lives of its youth... Jason and wife Brill have both served as model escorts for the annual Children's Cancer Fund (of Dallas) Fashion Show... Joined forces with students from the Leadership In Public Services High School located at Ground Zero for "Operation PaintFest"... Sponsored by the Foundation for Hospital Art, created paintings of hope that would later be donated to the five New York hospitals involved in the September 11th tragedies... Attended the New York Giants/Ronald McDonald House of New York City Holiday Party and shared in the Holiday spirit during dinner, gift-giving and caroling with the children and their families... Hosted one family from the Ronald McDonald House of New York City at each Giants home game during the 2002 season... Born Jason Garrett on March 28, 1966 in Abington, Pennsylvania.

BUCCANEERS

JOE Jurevicius

Wide Receiver

HT: 6-5

WT: 230

Born: 12/23/74

NFL: 7th Year

Acquired: UFA (NYG), 2002

College: Penn State

Pro: Has emerged as an exceptional red zone target in Tampa Bay's attack... Aggressive playmaker who possesses outstanding size and athleticism... Physical receiver who uses his strength and reach to secure an edge over opposing defensive backs... Missed the most significant action of his six-year career playing in a total of five games after sustaining a right MCL tear against Carolina in Week 2... Played an integral role in the Buccaneers' postseason championship run to Super Bowl XXXVII, posting eight receptions for a team-high 197 yards (24.6 avg.)... Reeled in a 71-yard catch-and-run that set up the go-ahead TD against Philadelphia in the NFC Championship Game and followed with four receptions for a game-high 78 yards in the Super Bowl XXXVII victory over Oakland... Spent his first four NFL seasons (1998-01) with the New York Giants... Has produced as both a reserve and a starter... Can boast 151 career receptions for 1,983 yards (13.1 avg.) with 11 TDs... Seen action in 78 career games with 19 starts... Also played in five postseason games with one start... Originally a second round (55th pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 1998.

2003: Played in five games (at Philadelphia, vs. Carolina, vs. Green Bay, vs. the New York Giants and at Jacksonville) with two starts (vs. Carolina and vs. the New York Giants) before being placed on injured reserve on December 2... Sustained an MCL tear vs. Carolina... Returned to action vs. Green Bay... Recipient of the Ed Block Courage Award for the season... One of three finalists for the George Halas Award... Had his second straight impressive season opener, catching a pair of touchdowns in a 17-0 win at Philadelphia (9/8)... Leaped high in the air over CB Lito Sheppard to snag his first touchdown of the night... After snatching the ball out of the air, had the awareness and body control to land both feet in-bounds before falling out of the end zone... On his second touchdown reception, tipped the ball high in the air over Sheppard before coralling the ball in the end zone for the score... Finished with four catches for 39 yards... Also had an acrobatic 11-yard touchdown reception against the New Orleans Saints in the 2002 season opener... Started at wide receiver vs. Carolina (9/14) and caught four passes for 31 yards before leaving the game with a right MCL tear... Did not play at Atlanta (9/21), vs. Indianapolis (10/6), at Washington (10/12), at San Francisco (10/19), vs. Dallas (10/26), vs. New Orleans (11/2) and at Carolina (11/9) because of injury... Returned to action vs. Green Bay (11/16) and caught one pass for five yards... Started at wide receiver against his former team, the New York Giants (11/24), and caught three passes for 43 yards...

QUICK SLANTS

Joe was the recipient of the 2003 Ed Block Courage Award, given to the Bucs player who best exemplifies commitment to the principles of sportsmanship and courage.

Saw action as a reserve wide receiver for one play at Jacksonville (11/30)... Placed on injured reserve on December 2.

2002: Played in 15 regular season games (all but vs. Minnesota) with three starts (vs. New Orleans, at Carolina and vs. Pittsburgh)... Played in all three playoff games with one start (vs. Philadelphia)... Caught 37 passes for 423 yards (11.4) and a career-high four touchdowns... Of his 15 third down catches, 12 were good for first downs... One of three finalists for the George Halas Award, given to the player or coach who has performed with abandon despite injury or personal problems off the field... Started in Buccaneer debut as the offense opened with four wide receivers against New Orleans (9/8)... Tipped and hauled in an 11-yard touchdown pass from QB Brad Johnson that closed the Buccaneers deficit to 20-17 with 2:41 left in regulation... Finished with four catches for 37 yards and a score... Saw action as a reserve wide receiver at Baltimore (9/15)... Caught two passes for 18 yards... Caught 14-yard pass on third-and-11 that moved the Bucs from their own five-yard line and continued a scoring drive that would amount to 17 plays and cover 82 yards... Saw action as a reserve at wide receiver vs. St. Louis (9/23)... Caught one pass for 12 yards at Cincinnati (9/29)... Caught one pass for 19 yards at Atlanta (10/6)... Saw reserve action vs. Cleveland (10/13)... Caught three passes for 35 yards at Philadelphia (10/20)... Started at wide receiver at Carolina (10/27) and caught five passes for 55 yards before sustaining a right knee sprain at the conclusion of the third quarter... Also suffered a right ankle sprain in the same contest... Missed game vs. Minnesota (11/3) with a right ankle/knee sprain... Returned to action vs. Carolina (11/17) and caught two passes for 48 yards, including a season-long 26-yard reception... Caught a team-leading five passes for 41 yards vs. Green Bay (11/24), including a four-yard touchdown reception in which he tip-toed the sideline in the end zone to haul in the pass... Caught two passes for 18 yards at New Orleans (12/1)... Tied career highs with eight catches and two touchdowns vs. Atlanta (12/6) while setting a new personal high with 100-yards receiving... Two touchdown grabs of 10 and 13 yards were the first two scores of the game... Saw action as a reserve at Detroit (12/15)... Started vs. Pittsburgh (12/23) and caught two passes for 28 yards, including a long of 21 yards... Caught two passes for 12 yards at Chicago (12/29)... Caught three passes for 48 yards in the NFC Divisional Playoff game vs. San Francisco (1/12)... At Philadelphia (1/19), caught career playoff-long 71-yard pass from QB Brad Johnson that led to a one-yard FB Mike Alstott touchdown run in the NFC Championship Game... Caught four passes for 78 yards vs. Oakland (1/26) in Super Bowl XXXVII, including a long of 33 yards... Finished the postseason with a team-leading 197 yards receiving on eight receptions for an average of 24.6 yards per catch with one touchdown.

2001: Played in 14 games, with a career-high nine starts, for the Giants... Easily enjoyed the finest and most productive season of his career, establishing career-bests for catches (51), receiving yards (706) and touchdowns (3)... His totals for the first three years of his career were 51 catches for 736 yards and two touchdowns... The 51 receptions placed him fourth on the team, the 706 yards was the Giants' second-highest total, and the three scores were third on the team... Caught at least one pass in every game in which he played... Had the first two-touchdown game of his career vs. Dallas (11/4)... Accounted for 36 first downs, tying him with WR Ike Hilliard for second on the team behind WR Amani Toomer (54)... Joined Toomer, RB Tiki Barber and Hilliard to give the Giants four receivers with at least 50 catches, only the second time in team history the team accomplished that feat... Started season opener at Denver (9/10) and finished with five receptions for 76 yards... Had seven receptions for 90 yards at Kansas City (9/23)... Caught two passes for 60 yards, including a 46-yard touchdown that gave the Giants a 21-10 lead in the fourth quarter, vs. New Orleans (9/30)... Had a 12-yard reception vs. Washington (10/7)... Started and finished with a career-high 93 yards on five receptions at St. Louis (10/14)... Did not start for the first time in 2001 vs. Philadelphia (10/22)... Had three receptions for 22 yards... Started and finished with six receptions for 77 yards at Washington (10/28)... Started and finished with three receptions for 50 yards with two touchdowns vs. Dallas (11/4)... Was the first two-touchdown game of his career... His four-yard touchdown reception from QB Kerry Collins in the second quarter was the Giants' first score of the game... Scored his second touchdown of the game and his third of the season on a 34-yard pass from Collins in the third quarter... Had three receptions for 42 yards at Minnesota (11/19) and one catch for 14 yards at Arizona (11/11)... Caught two passes for 18 yards vs. Oakland (11/25)... Was inactive at Dallas (12/9) and vs. Arizona (12/15) due to hamstring injury suffered in practice... Returned to action vs. Seattle (12/23) after missing two weeks with a hamstring injury... Finished with four receptions for 52 yards, including two for 25 yards on the Giants game-winning touchdown drive... Started and finished with one catch for 18 yards at Philadelphia (12/30)... The fourth-quarter catch helped set up K Morten Andersen's 32-yard field goal... Started and finished with a career-high eight receptions for 82 yards vs. Green Bay (1/6)... Long reception of 25 yards came in the fourth quarter on third-and-11 to keep alive a drive that would result in RB Ron Dayne's one-yard touchdown run.

2000: Played in 14 games, including three starts... Finished with 24 receptions for 272 yards and one touchdown... Started the season slowly, with only three catches in the first six games before catching 21 balls over the next eight weeks... Started two games when Ike Hilliard was sidelined with an injury and caught 11 passes in those contests, including a team-high six receptions in critical victory at Washington (12/10)... Played special teams every game in which he was active... Caught first pass of season at Chicago (9/17), a 10-yarder... Saw action in multiple receiver formations vs. Dallas (10/15) before replacing Toomer in the second half... Finished with four receptions for 25 yards... Started as Giants opened the game in a three-wide formation vs. Philadelphia (10/29), but did not have any receptions... Also recovered an Eagles on-sides kickoff attempt and returned it three yards in the fourth quarter... Replaced injured Amani Toomer on first team during game vs. St. Louis (11/2) and caught two passes for 31 yards... Caught two passes for 23 yards and a touchdown vs. Detroit (11/19)... Recorded his only touchdown of the regular season late in the fourth quarter when he caught a 13-yard pass from Kerry Collins... Replaced Hilliard in the starting lineup at Arizona (11/26) and recorded five receptions for 71 yards... Caught three passes for 38 yards on the Giants opening drive to help set up score... Started and led the team in receiving with six catches for 83 yards at Washington (12/3)... Game-long 43-yard reception in the second quarter resulted in a turnover when CB Darrell Green forced a fumble that was recovered by the Redskins... Resumed reserve role with return of Hilliard to starting lineup vs. Pittsburgh (12/10) and had one reception for six yards... Left game early in the third period with a knee sprain... Missed the last two games of the regular season and Divisional Playoff vs. Philadelphia (1/7) with the sprained knee... Made postseason debut in NFC Championship Game vs. Minnesota (1/14) and had two receptions for 15 yards, including an eight-yard touchdown in the second quarter... Saw action in multiple receiver formations and on special teams, but did not record a reception in Super Bowl XXXV vs. Baltimore (1/28).

1999: Played all 16 games with one start for the Giants... Finished the season with 18 receptions for 318 yards and one touchdown, playing primarily in three and four wide receiver sets... Caught two passes for 63 yards vs. New Orleans (10/24), including touchdown with six seconds left in the first half when Kent Graham threw a bomb to the back right corner of the end zone... Defensive Tackle

WT: 300

Born: 12/18/77

NFL: 6th Year

Acquired: D1, 1999

College: Louisiana State

Pro: Exhibits rare speed and athleticism, making him one of the league's rising talents at the defensive tackle position... Is a rugged and physical player who has a penchant for making plays in the opposition's backfield... Football instincts and quick first step make him a force on one of the league's most productive defensive lines... Boasts 223 career tackles, 15.0 sacks, two forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries, one interception and six passes defended... Played in 70 career games with 56 starts.

2003: Started all 16 games, 15 at NT and one at DT (vs. Houston)... 54 tackles ranked third among defensive linemen... Also posted 2.5 sacks, one fumble recovery, three passes defended and one interception... Part of a defense that ranked fifth in the NFL, marking the seventh straight year the defense has finished among the NFL's Top 10... Started at NT at Philadelphia (9/8), registering three tackles and two passes defended... Recorded first interception of career, picking off a batted Donovan McNabb pass in the fourth quarter... Helped defense post third shutout in last 16 regular season games... Posted two tackles in start at NT against Carolina (9/14)... Registered five tackles in start at Atlanta (9/21)... Helped defense limit the Falcons to 136 total yards, the seventh best defensive effort in club history... Appeared on offense in three goal line situations against the Falcons, helping along the offensive line for two Mike Alstott touchdown runs and one Warren Sapp touchdown reception... Notched three tackles in start at NT against Indianapolis (10/6)... Posted two tackles at Washington (10/12)... Finished contest at San Francisco (10/19) with five tackles... Posted first sack of the season against Dallas (10/26), dropping QB Quincy Carter for a two-yard loss in the second quarter... Finished contest with three tackles... Helped the defense post its second shutout of the season... Recorded six tackles in start at NT against New Orleans (11/2)... Notched four tackles at

Though Thomas Jones opened at tailback vs. Atlanta (9/30), came off the bench to provide noticeable spark to the offense with seven rushing attempts for 53 yards, including a 24-yard scoring run, and caught team-best six passes for 31 yards... Churned out 83 yards on 22 carries in starting role at Philadelphia (10/7)... Two pass receptions for 16 yards combined for 99 yards from scrimmage vs. Eagles in 21-20 victory... Posted 48 yards rushing on 10 carries in the first half, including bursts of nine and 11 yards on Cards' first two plays from scrimmage... Also skirted the left side on fourth-and-one in first quarter for first-down yardage in 14-play, 70-yard drive that put Cards up 14-0... Rushed for 50 tough yards on 16 carries at Chicago (10/14) despite playing with a concussion suffered on first play of game... Opened the contest with six-yard run around left end, then went to the bench with mild concussion... Returned later in the series, however, and split much of the backfield duties in first half with Jones... Third quarter proved disastrous as he bounced outside on handoff at Bear 30-yard line, had ball stripped by Chicago defensive back as R.W. McQuarters picked up the bouncing ball in full stride and sped 69 yards for a touchdown and 20-6 lead... Finished the game with five pass receptions in second half for 25 yards... Accounted for 137 yards offense with 95 rushing yards on 26 carries and 42 yards on four pass receptions to fuel a 24-16 win over Kansas City (10/21)... After a quiet first half of 12 rushing yards on four carries and two pass receptions for six yards, exploded in third quarter with 13 carries for 55 yards, then added fourth-quarter totals of nine attempts for 28 yards on the ground and a 27-yard pass reception, the latter to set up a Jones 13-yard scoring run... Capped a 10-play, 80-yard scoring drive to open the second half with 24-yard burst around right tackle to give Cards 10-9 lead with nine minutes left in third quarter, then added two third-down rushing conversions on 16-play, 95-yard scoring drive that ate up 8:51 of the clock on ensuing possession... Nearly hit the 100-yard rushing mark but losses of 12 yards on four carries... Though slowed by tender ribs and shoulder, rushed for 49 yards on 13 carries and caught six passes for 29 yards at Philadelphia (11/19)... Accounted for 173 yards from scrimmage — 65 percent of Cards' total offense — with 13 carries for 77 yards and career-best 10 pass receptions for 96 more yards vs. N.Y. Giants (11/26)... Scored Arizona's only touchdown with 36-yard rumble on textbook screen pass in third quarter... Added season-best 29-yard run earlier in the period... Left game at Baltimore (12/17) after suffering a concussion... Another ironman effort at Cincinnati (12/3) as only Cardinal to carry the ball from scrimmage with 19 attempts for 72 yards and added six pass receptions for 31 yards... Rebounded for season finale at Washington (12/24) to collect 72 yards rushing on 16 attempts and catch three passes for 13 yards.

1999: In 10 games (two starts), rushed for 289 yards on 64 carries for team-best 4.5-yard average per attempt with two touchdowns... Also caught 16 passes for 196 yards and returned four punts (16 yards) and two kickoffs (31 yards)... Flashed glimpses of talent and productivity in frustratingly-short sophomore season marred by turf-toe injury... In first pro starting role vs. Detroit (11/14), amassed 177 yards total offense with 133 rushing yards on 23 carries and two receptions for 44 yards in 23-19 win... Featured plays were 58-yard scoring run and 46-yard pass reception... The 58-yard run was the longest by a Cardinal in 52 games and the longest scoring jaunt in 53 contests (LeShon Johnson, 70 yards at New Orleans, 9/22/96)... The 133 rushing yards rank 10th among NFL players in their first starts in the 1990s... The effort also was Arizona's only 100-yard rusher

BUCS 17 EAGLES 0
SEPTEMBER 8, 2003

LINCOLN FINANCIAL FIELD (67,772)

PHILADELPHIA — Tampa Bay opened up the regular season with a convincing victory over Philadelphia in the Eagles' first regular season game at Lincoln Financial Field. The Eagles, who were limited to just 245 total yards and converted on 2-of-11 (18%) third down conversions, suffered a home shutout for the first time since 1998. Tampa Bay's defense set the tone early, holding the Eagles scoreless on a goal-line stand in the first quarter. WR Joe Jurevicius reeled in a pair of second half touchdowns from QB Brad Johnson, who completed 13-of-14 passes in the second half. Jurevicius gave the Buccaneers a 10-0 lead as he hauled in a 13-yard score in the corner of the end zone. He followed with another improbable catch in the fourth quarter, deflecting the ball over an Eagles defender, spinning to his left and diving for his second TD reception of the contest for a 17-0 lead. Brad Johnson, who marched Tampa Bay on consecutive TD drives of 80 and 73 yards in the second half, completed 27-of-36 passes for 238 yards with two touchdowns and one interception. Johnson's top target, WR Keyshawn Johnson, reeled in a team-high six receptions for 83 yards, and DT Warren Sapp caught his first career pass, a 14-yard grab in the fourth quarter for a first down. DE Simeon Rice added two sacks on Eagles QB Donovan McNabb.

SEPTEMBER 14, 2003

RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM (65,621)

TAMPA - Panthers K John Kasay's fourth field goal, a 47-yarder with 3:28 left in overtime, lifted Carolina to a 12-9 victory over Tampa Bay in the 2003 home opener. The Panthers had a 9-0 lead behind Kasay's three field goals from 28, 35 and 20 yards before the Bucs finally got on the scoreboard late in the third quarter when K Martin Gramatica connected on a 41-yard FG after an interception by CB Brian Kelly. Trailing 9-3 late in the fourth quarter, QB Brad Johnson marched the Bucs on an 11-play, 82-yard drive in 1:49, capping it off with a six-yard TD pass to WR Keenan McCardell on the final play of regulation to tie the score at 9. Gramatica, who had never missed an extra point in his career in 129 attempts, had the PAT blocked and the game went into overtime. Tampa Bay's special teams unit struggled as Gramatica also had two field goals blocked. In overtime, Panthers WR Steve Smith returned a punt 52 yards and RB Stephen Davis, who rushed for game-highs in carries (33) and yards (142), had a key 10-yard run to set up Kasay's game-winner. Offensively, Tampa Bay posted 397 total yards as Brad Johnson completed 34 of a career-high 61 pass attempts for 339 yards with one TD and one INT. WR Keyshawn Johnson had a game-high nine receptions for 102 yards. DE Simeon Rice added a sack and an INT as the Buccaneers posted a sack and an interception for the 43rd consecutive game, marking the longest such streak in the NFL in the last 40 years.

BUCS 31 FALCONS 10 SEPTEMBER 21, 2003 GEORGIA DOME (70,871)

ATLANTA - Tampa Bay QB Brad Johnson tossed touchdown passes to RB Michael Pittman and DT Warren Sapp and the Buccaneers forced five turnovers en route to a 31-10 win over Atlanta at the Georgia Dome. Tampa Bay took charge in an entertaining second quarter, which featured big plays and helped the defending Super Bowl champions defeat the Falcons for the sixth consecutive time. Pittman broke a 3-3 tie with a 68-yard touchdown reception, the longest TD reception by a Bucs running back in club history. Then Sapp, who lined up as a tight end, hauled in his first career offensive TD from six yards out to lift Tampa Bay to a 17-3 lead at the half. Falcons QB Doug Johnson threw three interceptions in the second quarter, including two that were picked off by S Dwight Smith. The Falcons took advantage of a Buccaneer turnover to cut the deficit to 17-10 with a Woody Dantzler one-yard TD run, but Tampa Bay responded on consecutive drives in the third quarter with a pair of Mike Alstott TD runs. Pittman, who combined for 164 yards of total offense, led the Buccaneers in carries (20), rushing yards (82), receptions (7) and receiving yards (82). Tampa Bay's defense limited the Falcons to 136 total yards (29 rushing, 107 passing), the seventh-best defensive effort in club history. RB Warrick Dunn was limited to seven yards on nine carries (0.8 avg.) and the Falcons converted on just 3-of-12 (25%) third down attempts.

COLTS 38 BUCS 35 (OT) OCTOBER 6, 2003

RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM (65,647)

TAMPA - QB Peyton Manning led the Colts to three touchdowns in the final five minutes of regulation to overcome a 21-point deficit and force overtime, leading Indianapolis to a dramatic 38-35 overtime win in former head coach Tony Dungy's return to Raymond James Stadium. Manning led the Colts to four TDs in the fourth quarter to help jump start the Colts to a 5-0 mark for the first time since 1977. Tampa Bay built a 35-14 lead with 5:09 left after CB Ronde Barber's 29-yard interception return for a score. But that would be the last score of the night for the Bucs. WR Brad Pyatt returned the ensuing kickoff 90 yards and four plays later RB James Mungro ran in from three yards out on fourth-and-1 for the score. The Colts recovered an onside kick and Manning connected with WR Marvin Harrison, who hauled in a game-high 11 receptions for 176 yards and two TDs, from 28 yards on fourth-and-six to cut the deficit to 35-28. After a Bucs punt, the Colts took over with 1:41 remaining in the contest. Manning marched the Colts on a five-play, 85-yard drive in just 1:06 that was capped off by RB Ricky Williams, whose one-yard run tied the game at 35. In overtime, Tampa Bay won the toss but was forced to punt on the first possession. Manning moved the Colts downfield to set up a 40-yard field goal attempt by K Mike Vanderjagt. He missed it wide right, but DE Simeon Rice was flagged for leaping and the Colts received another chance because of the unsportsmanlike conduct penalty. Vanderjagt's 29-yard kick bounced off the right post and through the uprights to complete the improbable comeback. WR Keenan McCardell caught two TD receptions, including a career-long 74 yarder, and added a third score on a 57-yard fumble return for a touchdown.

BUCS 35 REDSKINS 13 OCTOBER 12, 2003

FEDEX FIELD (85,490)

LANDOVER - QB Brad Johnson threw four touchdown passes and DE Simeon Rice posted a career-high and club record-tying four sacks as the Buccaneers extended their club record with their fifth straight road win, defeating the Washington Redskins 35-13. Brad Johnson tossed a pair of scores to TE Todd Yoder, who posted the first receiving TDs of his career, from one yard out in the second quarter and the go-ahead score from 11 yards in the third quarter. Brad Johnson added a pair of fourth quarter TD passes, a four-yard pass to rookie TE Will Heller and a 39-yard strike to WR Keyshawn Johnson. LB Derrick Brooks sealed the win, returning an interception 44 yards for a TD as the Buccaneers posted the fourth largest margin of victory in a road game - 22 points - in club history. DT Warren Sapp added two sacks and Dwight Smith, who moved from safety to cornerback because of injuries to the Bucs' secondary, set up a touchdown with his team-leading third interception of the season. Brad Johnson, who played for the Redskins in 1999-2000, completed 22-of-30 passes for 268 yards and a 140.0 quarterback rating, including 14-of-18 for 205 yards in the second half. The Bucs defense recorded at least one sack for the 65th consecutive game, and registered a takeaway for the 46th straight contest.

OCTOBER 19, 2003
 3COM PARK (67,809)

SAN FRANCISCO - QB Jeff Garcia threw a pair of TD passes and the 49ers rushed for 212 yards en route to a 24-7 win over the Buccaneers. San Francisco racked up 458 total yards of offense, including 306 in the first half, to build a 21-7 lead at the intermission. The 49ers took advantage of the first of four Buccaneer turnovers when RB Garrison Hearst, who finished with a game-high 117 yards on 20 carries, scored on a seven-yard run for a 7-0 lead. Bucs WR Keenan McCardell tied the score with a career-long 75-yard TD reception from QB Brad Johnson. But the 49ers scored on their next possession as Garcia hit Tai Streets for 14 yards for a 14-7 lead, capping an eight-play, 81-yard drive. On the next 49ers possession, DT Warren Sapp blocked K Owen Pochman's 31-yard field goal attempt, but San Francisco forced a Tampa Bay punt. 49ers WR Terrell Owens followed with a 75-yard catch-and-run from Garcia to give the 49ers a 21-7 advantage. After a Johnson interception on Tampa Bay's first offensive possession of the third quarter, CB Ronde Barber blocked a Pochman field goal attempt from 39 yards. Both teams then traded turnovers as Bucs RB Thomas Jones fumbled on the 49ers 20-yard line after a six-yard reception and Barber recovered a fumble on the Bucs' 37-yard line on fourth-and-one to halt a 49ers scoring threat. Barber also notched a second quarter sack on Garcia, extending Tampa Bay's sack streak to 66 consecutive games. DE Simeon Rice ended another 49ers scoring drive with an interception, but Tampa Bay could not take advantage as Johnson was intercepted on the ensuing possession for the third time on a tipped pass.

BUCS 16 COWBOYS 0 OCTOBER 26, 2003

RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM (65,602)

TAMPA - Tampa Bay forced three turnovers and limited Dallas to 178 total yards of offense as the Buccaneers posted their second shutout of the season, defeating the Dallas Cowboys 16-0 at Raymond James Stadium. The shutout marks the eighth in club history, including four over the past two seasons. RB Michael Pittman rushed a career-high 30 times for 113 yards, which led to three field goals by K Martin Gramatica from 24, 26 and 50 yards. Gramatica's first two field goals were set up by interceptions from S Jermaine Phillips, who posted his first career pick, and CB Ronde Barber, who also had eight tackles and one forced fumble. The duo led a secondary that played without CB Brian Kelly (pectoral strain - injured reserve) and S John Lynch (right shoulder stinger). Sandwiched between the pair of Gramatica field goals was a seven-yard touchdown reception by WR Keyshawn Johnson from QB Brad Johnson, who led Tampa Bay on eight-play, 78-yard scoring drive for a 10-0 lead in the second quarter. Dallas QB Quincy Carter completed 15-of-25 passes for 140 yards and two INTs for a 42.1 passer rating, and was sacked four times by the Bucs defensive line. The Buccaneers have now posted a sack in 67 consecutive games, one shy of the NFL record of 68 straight games by the Dallas Cowboys (1976-80). Additionally, Tampa Bay posted a sack and a turnover for the 48th straight game, the longest such streak since 1963.

SAINTS 17 BUCS 14 NOVEMBER 2, 2003

RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM (65,524)

TAMPA - K John Carney kicked a game-winning 47-yard field goal with eight seconds remaining to lift New Orleans to a 17-14 victory over the Tampa Bay Buccaneers at Raymond James Stadium. Tampa Bay had six turnovers and could not take advantage of five scoring opportunities inside the Saints' 35-yard line. CB Ashley Ambrose, who had a pair of interceptions, returned his second pickoff 73 yards for a touchdown as the Saints took a 14-0 lead at the end of the third quarter. Ambrose's first interception in the second quarter set up QB Aaron Brooks' 38-yard touchdown strike to WR Michael Lewis on the ensuing play. Through the first three quarters, Tampa Bay had four turnovers and just 157 total yards, but the Buccaneers rallied in the fourth quarter. QB Brad Johnson completed six passes to lead the Buccaneers on a 97-yard scoring drive - tying a club record, which was capped off by RB Michael Pittman's 26-yard touchdown reception to cut the Saints' lead to 14-7 with 7:59 remaining. Carney missed a 39-yard field goal with 3:58 left and the Buccaneers capitalized as Brad Johnson hit WR Keenan McCardell on a 30-yard scoring pass in the corner of the end zone to tie the score at 14 with 2:08 remaining in the contest. But Brooks ended Tampa Bay's comeback hopes as he completed five passes and drove the Saints 43 yards with no timeouts remaining for Carney's game-winner. DE Simeon Rice's ninth sack of the season extended Tampa Bay's streak to 68 consecutive games with a sack to tie the Dallas Cowboys (1976-80) for the longest steak in NFL history.

ERICSSON STADIUM (73,245)

CHARLOTTE - QB Jake Delhomme's five-yard touchdown pass to WR Steve Smith with 1:06 remaining rallied Carolina to a 27-24 victory. Trailing 20-7 with 12:34 left in the fourth quarter, QB Brad Johnson ignited the Buccaneers with a pair of fourth quarter TD drives to overcome a 13-point deficit. Brad Johnson connected with WR Keyshawn Johnson for a 23-yard TD pass to cut the deficit to 20-14 with 10:19 to play. On Tampa Bay's next possession, WR Keenan McCardell made a one-handed circus grab between a pair of Panther defenders in the end zone for a 36-yard TD and a 21-20 lead with 4:44 remaining. McCardell's catch was set up by an 18-yard catch by DT Warren Sapp, who lined up as an eligible tight end, on fourth-and-1 from the Bucs' 44-yard line. The Bucs added to their lead with a 39-yard field goal by K Martin Gramatica for a 24-20 advantage with 2:41 remaining, which was set up by CB Tim Wansley's second interception of the game. But Delhomme marched the Panthers on a six-play, 78-yard drive in 1:35 with no timeouts remaining for the game-winning score. DE Simeon Rice had two sacks as the Buccaneers set the NFL record with a sack in their 69th consecutive game. Tampa Bay's defense also extended its streak to 50 straight games with a takeaway when Wansley returned his first career interception 23 yards for a score in the second quarter. Offensively, McCardell posted a team-high nine receptions for 118 yards, while Keyshawn Johnson (five receptions, 80 yards) registered his 600th career reception.

PACKERS 20 BUCS 13 NOVEMBER 16, 2003

TAMPA - RB Ahman Green's tie-breaking one-yard touchdown run midway through the fourth quarter capped off a 17-play, 98-yard drive as Green Bay snapped a five-game losing streak at Raymond James Stadium with a 20-13 win. The drive, which took 9:42 off the clock, was part of a Packers rushing attack that totaled 190 yards on the day, including 109 yards on 21 carries by Green and 70 yards on 13 rushes by RB Najeh Davenport. Green Bay jumped out to a 10-0 lead behind QB Brett Favre's five-yard shovel pass for a TD to RB Tony Fisher and a 31-yard field goal by K Ryan Longwell. On the Buccaneers' following possession, K Martin Gramatica connected from 24 yards out, but Davenport took the ensuing kickoff and returned it 56 yards to set up Longwell's 33-yard FG for a 13-3 Packers lead. The Buccaneers trimmed the lead to 13-6 on the final play of the half with a 47-yard FG by Gramatica, which was set up by a 25-yard punt by Packers P Josh Bidwell and a pair of receptions by WR Keyshawn Johnson. Tampa Bay tied the game at 13 on the first drive in the third quarter when WR Keenan McCardell hauled in a three-yard score for his career-high seventh TD reception of the season. McCardell's score was set up by RB Thomas Jones, who took his first carry of the second half 51 yards to set up the score. Jones, who finished with a season-high 134 yards on nine carries, also added a season-best 61-yard run in the second quarter that set up Gramatica's first FG of the game. But Tampa Bay's offense could not get into a rhythm as it was called for eight penalties and finished 1-of-11 on third down conversions. The Bucs also failed to record a sack for the first time since 10/399 at Minnesota as their NFL-record sack streak was snapped at 69 straight games.

RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM [65,648]

TAMPA - WR Charles Lee's career-long 53-yard catch-and-run for a touchdown late in the first half helped Tampa Bay snap a three-game losing skid en route to a 19-13 win over the New York Giants at Raymond James Stadium. Lee, who posted his first career TD as a Buccaneer and his second career scoring reception, finished with five receptions for a game-high 91 yards, while WR Keenan McCardell added a game-high nine receptions for 83 yards. RB Thomas Jones' one-yard TD run in the second quarter gave Tampa Bay a 7-0 lead. It was Jones' first score as a member of the Buccaneers and marked Tampa Bay's first rushing score since Week 3 at Atlanta. After K Matt Bryant's 30-yard field goal, Lee's 53-yard TD reception lifted the Buccaneers to a 14-3 advantage. The Giants had an opportunity to cut the deficit, but DE Simeon Rice, who posted his NFL-leading 12th sack, nailed QB Kerry Collins on the Tampa Bay 29-yard line and forced a fumble that was recovered by DT Chartric Darby as time expired in the first half. The Giants, who entered the contest ranked third in the NFL in total offense (365.9 ypg.), could muster just 212 total yards of offense as the Buccaneers forced four turnovers. After the team exchanged field goals in the third quarter - a 30-yarder by Bryant and a 21-yarder by K Martin Gramatica - Giants rookie CB Frank Walker intercepted QB Brad Johnson and returned it 56 yards for a score to cut the Buccaneers' lead to 17-13 early in the fourth quarter. But Tampa Bay's defense closed out the game, stifling the Giants on their final two offensive possessions. S John Lynch intercepted a Collins pass and on the following series DT Warren Sapp recorded his second sack of the game, forcing the Giants into fourth-and-19 from their three-yard line. The Giants elected to snap the ball out of their own end zone for a safety, but TE Ken Dilger recovered the ensuing onside kickoff to preserve Tampa Bay's victory.

NOVEMBER 30, 2003

ALLTEL STADIUM (60,543)

JACKSONVILLE - WR Jimmy Smith's diving 48-yard touchdown reception with 10:23 remaining in the fourth quarter lifted Jacksonville to a 17-10 win. Smith and WR Keenan McCardell, teammates with the Jaguars from 1996-2001, became the 16th and 17th players, respectively, to reach the 700-reception mark as Smith finished with a game-high 10 receptions for 136 yards, while McCardell paced the Buccaneers with eight catches for 74 yards. Stifled in the first half, Jaguars RB Fred Taylor emerged in the second half, finishing with 118 yards on 29 carries to help the Jaguars run out the clock in the waning minutes with a pair of first down runs. Jacksonville jumped out to a 7-0 lead behind QB Byron Leftwich's 10-yard scoring pass to TE Kyle Brady following LB Mike Peterson's interception of Bucs QB Brad Johnson. The Buccaneers responded on the following offensive series with an 11-play, 56-yard drive capped off by Thomas Jones' five-yard TD run to tie the score at 7. On the ensuing possession, LB Derrick Brooks forced a fumble that was recovered by CB Tim Wansley as the Buccaneers recorded a takeaway in their 53rd consecutive game. Tampa Bay took advantage with a 47-yard field goal by K Martin Gramatica as Tampa Bay took its only lead of the game. But Jacksonville responded on its next possession as Leftwich, who completed 20-of-34 passes for 224 yards and the aforementioned two TDs, drove the Jaguars down the field before the half to set up K Seth Marler's 28-yard FG, tying the score at 10. Despite numerous chances, the Jaguars failed to score three times inside the Buccaneers' 30-yard line, missing a pair of field goals and losing the ball on downs. But Leftwich found Smith in the end zone for the go-ahead score early in the fourth quarter, and Jacksonville's defense kept the Buccaneers scoreless in the second half.

BUCS 14 SAINTS 7 DECEMBER 7, 2003

LOUISIANA SUPERDOME (68,442)

NEW ORLEANS - Tampa Bay scored a pair of touchdowns with less than two minutes left in the first half, taking advantage of a fumble recovery and a blocked punt en route to the victory. The Saints' lone touchdown came when QB Aaron Brooks connected with TE Boo Williams on a 31-yard touchdown for a 7-0 lead in the first quarter. Two possessions later, the Saints marched down the field to the Tampa Bay 28-yard line on 11 plays and were poised to score, but WR Joe Horn dropped a touchdown in the end zone with 1:49 remaining in the second quarter. On the following play, Brooks fumbled and S Jermaine Phillips returned it 20 yards into New Orleans territory. Tampa Bay needed just two plays to capitalize on the turnover as QB Brad Johnson hit TE Ken Dilger for his first TD reception of the season from 14 yards out to tie the score at 7. Four plays later, S David Gibson blocked a punt by P Mitch Berger and CB Ronde Barber returned the block 20 yards to the Saints' one-yard line. Johnson then executed a perfect play action fake to DT Warren Sapp, who corralled a one-yard TD catch for the go-ahead score with 12 seconds remaining in the half. Tampa Bay's defense, which held New Orleans scoreless after the early TD, recorded seven sacks and recovered three fumbles by Aaron Brooks. The Bucs allowed just 76 total yards in the second half and RB Deuce McAllister, who entered the contest with nine consecutive 100-yard rushing games, finished with just 69 yards on 22 carries. DE Simeon Rice had three sacks and one forced fumble, and LB Derrick Brooks added one sack and one forced fumble.

BUCS 16 TEXANS 3 DECEMBER 14, 2003

TAMPA - RB Thomas Jones rushed for 134 yards and one touchdown and the Buccaneers' defense allowed just 107 total yards as Tampa Bay beat Houston 16-3. Tampa Bay, which won consecutive games for the first time this season, sacked Texans' QB Dave Ragone five times and the 107 yards tied for the second-lowest total by a Buccaneer opponent in franchise history. While the Texans struggled with a passing attack that netted -3 yards (a Buccaneers' half-game record) in the first half, the Buccaneers scored on their initial offensive possession for the first time this season. Jones broke free for an 18-yard touchdown run for a 7-0 lead. K Martin Gramatica connected on a pair of second quarter field goals from 36 and 23 yards to give Tampa Bay a 13-0 halftime lead. The Texans' lone points came via a 38-yard field goal by K Kris Brown on Houston's first offensive possession in the second half. Tampa Bay responded when Brad Johnson connected with Charles Lee on a 72-yard reception, setting up Gramatica's third field goal from 26 yards for a 16-3 lead. Tampa Bay, which dominated the time of possession category 38:34 to 21:26, received key offensive contributions from Lee (three receptions for 95 yards) and WR Keenan McCardell (five catches for 59 yards), who became the fifth player in club history to eclipse 1,000-yards receiving in a season. Defensively, Tampa Bay played without six-time Pro Bowl DT Warren Sapp (left foot strain), but the Buccaneers overcame his absence with sacks from DE Greg Spires (2), DT Chartric Darby, DT Anthony McFarland and DT Cleveland Pinkney.

FALCONS 30 BUCS 28 DECEMBER 20, 2003

RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM (65,572)

TAMPA - Tampa Bay rallied with three touchdowns in the final 12 minutes of regulation, but the comeback attempt fell short as the Falcons defeated the Bucs 30-28 in their regular season home finale. Atlanta jumped out to a 30-7 lead, taking advantage of four interceptions by QB Brad Johnson. Johnson's interceptions helped lead to 27 first half points by the Falcons as QB Michael Vick connected on TD passes to TE Alge Crumpler and WR Brian Finneran. Tampa Bay's lone score came on a Johnson TD pass to TE Rickey Dudley, but Johnson threw a pair of interceptions in the final 1:13 of the first half as the Falcons built a 20-point lead. CB Juran Bolden returned an interception 41 yards for a score and two plays later S Bryan Scott picked off a Johnson pass that set up K Jay Feely's 38-yard field as time expired in the first half. Feely added his third field goal of the game from 37 yards late in the third quarter to extend Atlanta's lead to 30-7. But Johnson rebounded with an outstanding second half by completing 21-of-27 passes for 240 yards and three TDs. The rally began when Johnson hit WR Charles Lee from three yards out with 11:27 left in the game to cut the deficit to 30-14. After DE Greg Spires recovered a fumble by RB T.J. Duckett with 3:45 left in the game, Johnson connected with WR Keenan McCardell on a 76-yard TD pass and WR Karl Williams caught the two-point conversion, cutting the lead to 30-22 with 2:20 remaining. K Martin Gramatica then successfully executed an onside kick, which was recovered by CB Dwight Smith. Johnson drove the Buccaneers down the field on a seven-play, 62-yard drive that was capped off by FB Jameel Cook's one-handed 11-yard TD reception as Tampa Bay trailed 30-28 with 27 seconds remaining. Tampa Bay's two-point conversion attempt, which would have sent the game into overtime, failed as DE Travis Hall batted down Johnson's throw intended for WR Charles Lee.

TITANS 33 BUCS 13 DECEMBER 28, 2003 THE COLISEUM (68,809)

NASHVILLE - Tennessee QB Neil O'Donnell threw a pair of touchdown passes to WR Derrick Mason and K Gary Anderson kicked four field goals as the Titans defeated the Buccaneers 33-13 in the season finale. The Titans built a 16-3 halftime lead after O'Donnell, who started in place of an injured Steve McNair, connected with Mason for a 23-yard touchdown and Anderson connected on field goals of 37, 33 and 43 yards. Tennessee's defense posted four interceptions, including three off Bucs QB Brad Johnson. The Titans added two sacks and held Tampa Bay to 274 total yards of offense. Tennessee scored on both of its offensive possessions in the third quarter as O'Donnell, who made his first start since September 23, 2001, led the Titans to a 23-yard field goal by Anderson and then lifted the Titans to a 26-6 lead late in the third quarter with a 33-yard scoring pass to Mason. Other than a pair of K Martin Gramatica field goals from 27 and 33 yards, Tampa Bay could only muster a fourth quarter TD pass from QB Shaun King to RB Aaron Stecker from 14 yards to cut the deficit to 26-13 with 13:21 remaining in the fourth quarter. But after King's pass was intercepted by LB Keith Bulluck with 4:11 remaining in the contest, the Titans put the game out of reach after TE Erron Kinney recovered RB Chris Brown's fumble in the end zone for the Titans' final score.

BUCCANEERS

COMMUNITY INVESTMENT TAX PASSES (9/3) – Hillsborough County voters pass the Community Investment Tax by a 53-47% margin. The tax will fund the construction of a new stadium and practice facility as well as various other community projects.

DUNGY WINS FIRST GAME (10/8) – Tony Dungy earns his first victory as Buccaneer head coach with a 24-13 victory over his former team, the Minnesota Vikings.

BUCS DEFEAT CHARGERS FOR FIRST CALIFORNIA WIN SINCE '80 (11/17) – Tampa Bay edges the San Diego Chargers 25-17 to earn its first victory in California since 1980 (24-23 vs. San Francisco).

GRUBER RE-SIGNS (2/13) – LT Paul Gruber, the team's designated franchise player and cornerstone of the Buc offensive line for the past eight years, signs a three-year deal to remain in Tampa.

BUCCANEERS UNVEIL NEW LOGO AND COLORS (4/9) – The team unveils its eagerly anticipated new logo and color scheme at a noon downtown ceremony. The new logo, consisting of a red pirate flag with a skull and crossed swords, draws instant rave reviews. The team colors are Buccaneer red, pewter, black and orange.

STATE SUPREME COURT RULES IN FAVOR OF COUNTY, BUCS (5/22) – The Florida State Supreme Court refuses former Tampa Mayor Bill Poe's opposition to the stadium. In a 7-0 decision, the Court rules all aspects of the tax are constitutional.

BUCS START SEASON WITH FIVE CONSECUTIVE WINS (9/28) – The Buccaneers match the franchise record for most consecutive wins at the start of a season with five. After a 13-6 season-opening defeat of the San Francisco 49ers, the team rolls on to road victories at Detroit (9/7) and Minnesota (9/14) and home defeats of Miami (9/21) and Arizona (9/28).

MAYBERRY ATTAINS CONSECUTIVE STARTS RECORD (10/26) – C Tony Mayberry achieves one of the more remarkable achievements in team history by surpassing Dave Logan's streak of 103 consecutive games started in the team's 10/26 contest versus Minnesota.

CULPEPPER BECOMES FIRST TO BAG TRIFECTA TWICE IN SAME SEASON (11/9) – DT Brad Culpepper enters the team's sack race with a three-sack performance against Arizona (9/28) in a week-five contest, becoming just the fifth player in team history to do so. Little more than a month later, he becomes the first player in team annals to accomplish the feat twice in the same season with a trio of sacks at Atlanta.

BUCS SET SINGLE-GAME ATTENDANCE MARK (12/7) – After setting a new single-game attendance record earlier in the season on 9/21 against Miami (73,314), the Bucs eclipse that mark when 73,523 are in attendance for the team's 6-17 loss to the Green Bay Packers.

BUCS TIE FRANCHISE RECORD FOR WINS (12/21) – By virtue of their season-ending 31-15 downing of the Chicago Bears, the Bucs match the club record for most regular season victories in a season with 10, assuring themselves an NFC Wild Card berth.

FIRST PLAYOFF GAME PLAYED IN TAMPA IN 15 YEARS (12/28) – The Buccaneers defeat the Detroit Lions 20-10 in front of a sellout crowd of 73,361 in the final game played at Houlihan's Stadium. The game is marked by outstanding individual performances, including FB Mike Alstott's playoff-record 31-yard touchdown run in which he barrels through a variety of Lions defenders.

NFL-HIGH EIGHT BUCS PLAY IN PRO BOWL (2/1) – As further recognition of the team's dramatic rise in league prominence, a team-record and NFL-most eight Buc players are selected to play in the Pro Bowl. Joining third-time selection LB Hardy Nickerson are first timers FB Mike Alstott, LB Derrick Brooks, QB Trent Dilfer, RB Warrick Dunn, S John Lynch, C Tony Mayberry and DT Warren Sapp.

DUNGY RECEIVES NEW CONTRACT (3/11) – After tying the franchise record for victories in a season with 10, Head Coach Tony Dungy is rewarded by Owner Malcolm Glazer with a new five-year contract that essentially voids out his original contract. The new deal ensures Dungy will be with the team through the 2002 season.

SAPP SIGNS EXTENSION TO BECOME TEAM'S HIGHEST-PAID PLAYER (3/18) – Pro Bowl DT Warren Sapp agrees to a six-year contract that makes him the wealthiest player in team history and one of the highest paid defensive tackles in the league.

EMANUEL LANDS IN TAMPA (4/14) – Less than a week after signing an offer sheet with the Buccaneers, Atlanta transitional free agent WR Bert Emanuel officially joins the team after the Falcons fail to match the Bucs' four-year offer.

McKAY RECEIVES CONTRACT EXTENSION (4/30) – Owner Malcolm Glazer rewards General Manager Rich McKay with a new five-year contract extension for his efforts in assembling one of the league's most talent-rich rosters. McKay's new deal guarantees that he will be with the team through the 2002 season.

BUCS SELL OUT INAUGURAL RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM SEASON (8/2, 8/15) – For the first time in team history, the Buccaneers entire home schedule is sold out before the season begins. Though the Bucs will play seven straight road games (including pre-season) to open 1998, the entire sum of single-game tickets for the eight home games in Raymond James Stadium sells out on the first day of availability.

BUCS OPEN NEW ERA IN RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM WITH DRAMATIC VICTORY (9/20) – Raymond James Stadium, already known as 'The Crown Jewel of the NFL', officially opens as the Buccaneers take on arch-rival Chicago. TE Dave Moore's acrobatic one-handed touchdown catch sparks a 27-point rally as Tampa Bay wins its Raymond James Stadium debut, 27-15.

TAMPA BAY OUTGUNS UNDEFEATED MINNESOTA IN RAYMOND JAMES SHOOTOUT (11/1) — The Buccaneers run their Raymond James Stadium record to 4-0 with an eye-opening, 27-24 upset of the previously undefeated Minnesota Vikings. The Vikings' only regular-season loss of 1998 is powered by a Buccaneer-record 246 rushing yards, including the first dual-100-yard performance in team history by FB Mike Alstott (128 yards) and RB Warrick Dunn (115).

FIRST MONDAY NIGHT FOOTBALL VICTORY IN 16 YEARS COMES AT EXPENSE OF PACKERS (12/7) — Having ended a 15-year hiatus from ABC's Monday Night Football earlier in the year at Detroit, Tampa Bay records its first MNF victory since 1982 with a 24-22 dismissal of Green Bay. QB Trent Dilfer completes 64 and 62-yard TD passes to Jacquez Green and Reidel Anthony and the Buccaneer defense records eight sacks and a team-record eight forced fumbles.

BUCS BLANK CINCY FOR FIRST ROAD SHUTOUT (12/27) — Tampa Bay records the third shutout in team history, the first since 1985 and the first on the road with a 35-0 dismantling of Cincinnati in the season finale. FB Mike Alstott ties a team-record with three touchdown runs as the Bucs open a 28-0 lead by halftime.

FIVE BUCS MAKE REPEAT PRO BOWL VISIT (2/7) — A five-some of Bucs, the second-largest contingent in team history, represents the NFC in the Pro Bowl; all five are repeat honorees from the team's NFL-high group of eight Pro Bowlers in 1998. LB Hardy Nickerson makes his fourth visit, tying TE Jimmie Giles for the second-most in team history, and DT Warren Sapp, LB Derrick Brooks, C Tony Mayberry and FB Mike Alstott all make their second trips.

BUCS SIGN AHANOTU TO SIX-YEAR DEAL (7/30) — The Buccaneers sign DE Chidi Ahanotu to a six-year contract. Ahanotu, entering his seventh year with the club, had been designated Tampa Bay's franchise player.

BUCS COMPLETE UNDEFEATED PRESEASON (9/3) — Rookie QB Shaun King hits rookie WR Darnell McDonald on a three-yard TD pass with seven seconds left, lifting the Bucs to a 16-13 win over host Washington. The victory caps a 4-0 preseason campaign, the franchise's first in 16 years.

SACK ATTACK SMOTHERS EAGLES (9/19) — Tampa Bay's swarming defensive line racks up nine sacks in a 19-5 win at Philadelphia. DT Warren Sapp and DE Chidi Ahanotu each collect three sacks, while DE Marcus Jones bags two and DT Brad Culpepper adds one. The nine-sack effort falls one sack short of the team record of 10, set in 1979 at Baltimore.

GRAMATICA BOOTS ATLANTA (11/21) — Rookie K Martin Gramatica kicks four FGs, including a game-winning 53-yarder with 58 seconds remaining, to rally Tampa Bay to a 19-10 win over Atlanta at Raymond James Stadium. Gramatica had earlier nailed attempts from 24, 26 and 50 yards. He became the first Buccaneer kicker to boot two 50-plus-yard FGs in one game. The last time a rookie K booted a game-winning FG of that length was San Francisco's Steve Mike-Meyer, who nailed a 54-yarder against the Rams (11/9/75).

KING SHINES IN RELIEF ROLE (11/28) — Rookie QB Shaun King replaces an injured Trent Dilfer (clavicle) and escorts Tampa Bay to a 16-3 win at Seattle. The win marks the club's first in the Kingdom. King hits WR Jacquez Green for his first career completion, then later lofts a scoring toss to TE Patrick Hape, sealing Tampa Bay's fourth consecutive victory.

RECORD CROWD LIFTS BUCS TO MONDAY NIGHT WIN (12/6) — Tampa Bay beats Minnesota 24-17 before a then-record crowd of 65,741 at Raymond James Stadium. The game marks the starting debut of rookie QB Shaun King, who throws two second-half TD passes. Tampa Bay's swarming defense forces four Viking turnovers, including a 55-yard INT return by CB Donnie Abraham on the third play of the game.

BUCS WIN SIXTH CONSECUTIVE GAME (12/12) — Tampa Bay rallies for two fourth-quarter TDs to defeat Detroit 23-16 at Raymond James Stadium. The win is the Bucs' sixth consecutive triumph, breaking the team mark of five consecutive victories (1979, 1997). In the process, Tampa Bay assumes sole possession of first place in the NFC Central Division.

BUCS SET HOME WIN MARK AGAINST PACKERS (12/26) — Tampa Bay completes its 1999 home slate with a club-record 7-1 mark after a 29-10 triumph over Green Bay. FB Mike Alstott runs for two TDs in the fourth quarter to seal the win. The Bucs' previous besthome record was a 6-2 mark, set in 1984 and 1998. Tampa Bay also clinches its fifth-ever playoff appearance.

BUCS CLAIM FIRST NFC CENTRAL TITLE IN 18 YEARS (1/2) — The Bucs beat Chicago 20-6 at Soldier Field to claim their first NFC Central Division title since 1981. Tampa Bay also concludes the regular season with a franchise-record 11 wins. The Bucs rush for 143 yards and hold the potent Bears offense to two FGs. An estimated crowd of 5,000 greets the champs upon their arrival at One Buccaneer Place Sunday night.

FOUR BUCS EARN FIRST-TEAM-ALL-PRO HONORS (1/8) — Four Buccaneers FB Mike Alstott, LB Derrick Brooks, S John Lynch and DT Warren Sapp — earn first-team All-Pro honors from the Associated Press. Tampa Bay could claim five first-team AP All-Pro selections in the franchise's first 23 seasons of existence. The Bucs tied the eventual Super Bowl champion Rams for most players on the 1999 squad.

SAPP NAMED AP NFL DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR (1/13) — DT Warren Sapp earns NFL Defensive Player of the Year honors from the Associated Press. In a poll of 50 media members, Sapp receives 19 votes, edging out Tennessee DE Jevon Kearse. Sapp is the first Buccaneer to win the award since Hall of Famer Lee Roy Selmon turned the trick in 1979. Sapp finished the regular season with 54 tackles and a career-best 121/2 sacks.

BUCS RALLY PAST REDSKINS IN DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF (1/15) – Tampa Bay rallies from a 13-0 deficit to defeat the Washington Redskins 14-13 in an NFC divisional playoff game before a record crowd of 65,835 at Raymond James Stadium. QB Shaun King hits TE John Davis on a one-yard TD toss midway through the fourth quarter to give the Bucs their first and only lead. Tampa Bay's defense holds Washington's second-ranked offense to 157 total yards and no offensive TDs. The win propels the Bucs to their first NFC Championship Game in 20 years.

TAMPA BAY FALLS ONE WIN SHY OF SUPER BOWL (1/23) – Tampa Bay's valiant defensive effort falls short as the St. Louis Rams rally late for an 11-6 win in the NFC Championship Game at the Trans World Dome. The Bucs hold the high-powered Rams offense 22 points below their season average. St. Louis would capture Super Bowl XXXIV the following Sunday in Atlanta.

SIX BUCS HELP COACHING STAFF DEFEAT AFC IN PRO BOWL (2/6) – The NFC, led by Tony Dungy and the rest of the Buccaneers coaching staff, whips the AFC 51-31 in the highest-scoring Pro Bowl ever. Tampa Bay is represented by six players – FB Mike Alstott, LB Derrick Brooks, S John Lynch, C Tony Mayberry, LB Hardy Nickerson and DT Warren Sapp. Alstott scores three TDs and Brooks returns a Mark Brunell INT for a score.

BUCS INK 11-TIME PRO BOWLER McDANIEL (3/1) – The Bucs snag another former Vikings offensive lineman, signing perennial Pro Bowl G Randall McDaniel to a three-year contract. McDaniel, who spent his previous 12 seasons in Minnesota, owns the NFL record for consecutive Pro Bowl starts with 11. He enters the 2000 season with 170 consecutive starts, second only to Tennessee's Bruce Matthews (197) among active players.

BUCS TRADE FOR JETS WR JOHNSON (4/12) – The Bucs trade their two first-round picks (13th, 27th overall) in the 1999 NFL Draft to the New York Jets for two-time Pro Bowl WR Keyshawn Johnson. Tampa Bay then signs Johnson to an eight-year contract. Johnson's 305 catches over his first four NFL seasons trail only Marvin Harrison (Colts, 311, 1996-98) and Andre Rison (Falcons, 308, 1989-92) in league annals. The fifth-year pro can also boast 31 career scoring grabs.

BUCS RECORD LARGEST MARGIN OF VICTORY IN HOME OPENER (9/10) – Tampa Bay records the largest margin of victory in team history with a 41-0 win over Chicago in its home opener at Raymond James Stadium. The Bucs defense extends their streak to 14 quarters against Chicago without allowing a touchdown, and limits the Bears just 165 total yards, including 49 passing, while forcing four turnovers.

BUCS SIGN S JOHN LYNCH TO EXTENSION (9/11) – Tampa Bay inks Pro Bowl S John Lynch to a six-year contract extension.

Lynch goes on to earn his second consecutive All-Pro selection and third trip to the Pro Bowl.

BUCS KNOCK OFF UNDEFEATED VIKINGS (10/29) – The Bucs offense scores on each of its first four possessions as Tampa Bay snaps a four-game skid and ends Minnesota's 7-0 start at Raymond James Stadium. Tampa Bay's 31 first-half points ties the club record for points in a half. For the first time in club history, Tampa Bay scores 40-plus points in a game twice in the same season.

SAPP SETS SINGLE-SEASON SACK RECORD (11/26) – DT Warren Sapp breaks Lee Roy Selmon's franchise record for sacks in a season with two — giving him 13.5 for the year — as Tampa Bay downs Buffalo 31-17 at Raymond James Stadium. The Bucs' defense notches six sacks overall to surpass the club's single-season record of 44 in 1997.

DUNN LEADS CLUB-RECORD DAY ON THE GROUND (12/3) – Tampa Bay sets a club record with 250 yards rushing, including a career-high 210 by RB Warrick Dunn, on the way to a 27-7 victory over Dallas at Raymond James Stadium. Dunn's performance marks the second-best single-game effort in Bucs' history. K Martin Gramatica adds a 25-yard FG prior to halftime, tying the franchise record for consecutive field goals made with his 16th straight.

BUCS SET FRANCHISE MARK FOR POINTS SCORED (12/10) – FS Damien Robinson intercepts Miami QB Jay Fiedler at the Bucs nine-yard line with 14 seconds remaining as Tampa Bay holds on for a 16-13 victory at rainy Pro Player Stadium. With the 16 points, Tampa Bay sets a club record for points in a season with 336, eclipsing the previous mark of 335 points in 1984. In addition, K Martin Gramatica breaks his own record for points in a season.

TAMPA BAY CLINCHES SECOND STRAIGHT PLAYOFF BERTH (12/18) – RB Warrick Dunn scores his third rushing touchdown of the game with 48 seconds remaining as Tampa Bay rallies for a 38-35 win over St. Louis before a national television audience on Monday Night Football. With the win at Raymond James Stadium, the Bucs clinch their second straight playoff berth and third in the last four seasons. Head coach Tony Dungy also becomes the winningest coach in franchise history with his 45th coaching victory.

CHRISTENSEN PROMOTED TO OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR (1/26) – Tampa Bay announces that quarterbacks coach Clyde Christensen, who has served on Tampa Bay's staff under head coach Tony Dungy since Dungy's arrival in 1996, has been promoted to offensive coordinator. Christensen coached Tampa Bay's quarterbacks during each of the last two seasons after tutoring the tight ends for his first three years from 1996-98.

BUCS HOST THIRD SUPER BOWL (1/28) – Baltimore defeats the New York Giants, 34-7 as Tampa Bay plays host to Super Bowl XXXV at Raymond James Stadium.

LEAGUE-HIGH AND TEAM-RECORD NINE BUCS PLAY IN PRO BOWL (2/4) – Tampa Bay boasts a league-high and team-record nine players in the 2001 Pro Bowl in Hawaii. The Bucs' contingent includes a club-record six starters, but the AFC posts a 38-17 victory.

BUCS GRAB QB BRAD JOHNSON IN FREE AGENCY (3/6) – Tampa Bay ventures into free agency and returns with the biggest name on the market in Washington Redskins QB Brad Johnson. Johnson, who ranks third all-time in completion percentage, signs a five-year contract.

RICE JOINS THREE OTHER FIRST-ROUNDERS ON DEFENSIVE LINE (3/23) – Arizona Cardinals Pro Bowl DE Simeon Rice signs a five-year contract with Tampa Bay, joining a defensive line that features three other former first-round draft picks. Rice, who established an Arizona franchise mark with 16.5 quarterback sacks in 1999, notched 51.5 career sacks with the Cardinals.

BUCS SWAP FIRST-ROUND PICKS WITH BUFFALO (4/21) – Tampa Bay trades its first-round pick (21st overall) and second-round selection to the Buffalo Bills for their first-round draft choice (14th overall) in order to select T Kenyatta Walker in the 2001 NFL Draft. Walker, expected to compete for Tampa Bay's starting left tackle position in his rookie season, is the first offensive lineman selected by the Buccaneers in the first round in 10 years.

JOHN MCKAY DIES (6/10) – John McKay, the first coach in Buccaneers history, dies of kidney failure due to complications from diabetes at the age of 77. McKay coached Tampa Bay from 1976-1984, leading the team to three playoff appearances, including a trip to the 1979 NFC Championship Game.

BUCS SECOND GAME POSTPONED DUE TO TERRORIST ATTACKS (9/16) – Due to the terrorist attacks on America of September 11, the NFL postpones all of its games on September 16 and 17, including the Bucs' home contest against Philadelphia. The games are rescheduled for the first weekend in January, with the rest of the playoff schedule, including the Super Bowl, moving back one week. Due to an already-scheduled bye in Week Three, the Bucs have a bizarre, 21-day layoff between the first and second games of the season.

ALSTOTT LEADS ANOTHER HOME POUNDING OF THE VIKINGS (10/28) – Almost exactly one year after demolishing Minnesota, 41-13, in Raymond James Stadium on 10/29/00, the Bucs prove it was no fluke with a 41-14 decision over the Vikings on 10/28/01. FB Mike Alstott leads the runaway victory with 129 rushing yards, tying a team and personal record with three rushing touchdowns.

FIRST MNF ROAD VICTORY GIVES BUCS ANOTHER PRIME-TIME WIN OVER RAMS (11/26) – For the second time in two years, the Buccaneers defeat the St. Louis Rams on Monday Night Football, following up a 38-35 thriller in Tampa in 2000 with a 24-17 victory at St. Louis in 2001. The win, which stands as the first road win for the Bucs on Monday Night Football in team history, gives the Bucs a measure of revenge in the stadium that saw their run to the 1999 Super Bowl come to an end.

BUCS RECORD THIRD STRAIGHT ROAD WIN (12/2) – During yet another December surge, the Buccaneers defeat the Cincinnati Bengals, 16-13 in overtime, when S John Lynch forces and recovers a fumble at the Bengals' three-yard line early in the extra period, setting up Martin Gramatica's game-winning field goal. Following wins at Detroit and St. Louis, the victory over Cincinnati gives Tampa Bay three consecutive road wins for the first time in franchise history.

BUCS TIE SINGLE-GAME SCORING RECORD IN CRUCIAL WIN OVER NEW ORLEANS (12/23) – In a contest that would basically eliminate the loser from playoff contention and nearly guarantee the winner a postseason spot, the Buccaneers explode for 48 points in a blowout win over New Orleans. Taking a 30-0 halftime lead, the Bucs cruise to the 48-21 win, tying the team record for points scored in a single game (also against Atlanta, 9/13/97).

DUNGY DISMISSED (1/14) – The team announces that head coach Tony Dungy has been relieved of his coaching duties after six seasons. Dungy posted a 54-42 record at the helm and led the Buccaneers to the playoffs in four of his six campaigns.

GRUDEN INTRODUCED (2/20) – New head coach Jon Gruden is introduced at a press conference at a downtown hotel after becoming the seventh head coach in franchise history. Gruden, 38, spent four seasons (1998-2001) as head coach of the Oakland Raiders.

TAMPA BAY STARTS TRAINING CAMP AT DISNEY (7/29) – The Buccaneers begin their first season under new head coach Jon Gruden at Disney's Wide World of Sports Complex at Walt Disney World Resort. For the first time, Tampa Bay will conduct training camp at Disney after training at the University of Tampa since 1987. The Buccaneers are the first NFL team to conduct training camp at Disney's sports complex.

GRUDEN MAKES BUCCANEERS DEBUT (9/8) – Jon Gruden, the Buccaneers seventh head coach, makes his regular season debut at Raymond James Stadium in a 26-20 overtime loss to the New Orleans Saints. Tampa Bay trails 20-10 late in the fourth quarter when they post a frantic 10-point comeback to send the game into overtime. The Bucs are forced to punt deep in their own territory on their third possession of overtime. P Tom Tupa lines up to punt, but senses pressure and is forced to pull the ball down and attempt a pass. Saints LB James Allen intercepts the pass in the end zone, giving New Orleans the victory.

TAMPA BAY DEFENSE STIFLES ANOTHER ROAD OPPONENT (10/6) – For the third straight road contest, the Bucs defense does not allow a touchdown and posts an interception return for a score in a club-record fourth straight game en route to a 20-6 win over the Atlanta Falcons at the Georgia Dome. The defense ties a then season-high with four interceptions—all in the second half—and adds four sacks against the Falcons. LB Derrick Brooks becomes the first linebacker in NFL history with three interception returns for touchdowns in a single season.

RICE SETS NFL RECORD (12/1) – In a Week 13 contest at New Orleans, DE Simeon Rice sets an NFL single-season record by recording his fifth consecutive multi-sack game. His three-sack performance against the Saints highlights a five-game streak that began at Carolina on October 27, during which he totaled 11 sacks, 29 tackles, four forced fumbles and one pass defensed.

BUCCANEERS CLAIM FIRST NFC SOUTH TITLE (12/22) – Tampa Bay and New Orleans enter their Week 16 contests with the Bucs holding a one-game advantage in the NFC South. New Orleans suffers a 20-13 loss at Cincinnati on Sunday, thereby giving the first NFC South Division title to Tampa Bay before the Buccaneers take the field the following night against Pittsburgh. The division title is the fourth in Buccaneers history.

GRAMATICA LEADS BUCS TO FRANCHISE-BEST 12TH VICTORY (12/29) – Tampa Bay closes out the first regular season under Jon Gruden with its club record 12th win against the Chicago Bears in Champaign, IL. K Martin Gramatica kicks a career-high and team-record five field goals and the Bucs defense registers four interceptions in a 15-0 shutout. The win also marks the second road shutout of the season for the Buccaneers and is the first Tampa Bay victory in 22 tries when the thermometer reads below 40 degrees. With the victory, Tampa Bay finishes 6-2 on the road; the most wins away from home in franchise history, and secures the No. 2 seed in the NFC playoffs.

BROOKS NAMED NFL DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR (1/8) – LB Derrick Brooks, the Bucs all-time leader in tackles, garners NFL Defensive Player of the Year honors. As part of the league's top-ranked defense, Brooks led the team with 170 tackles and tied for fourth in the NFC with five interceptions. Brooks was also selected to a club-record sixth consecutive Pro Bowl in 2002 (as was DT Warren Sapp). His four touchdowns on turnovers in 2002 tied for the second-most in a single season in NFL history. He later adds another touchdown on an interception return in Super Bowl XXXVII.

BUCS ADVANCE TO NFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME (1/12) – Tampa Bay qualifies for the NFC Championship Game for the third time in club history by defeating San Francisco 31-6 at Raymond James Stadium in an NFC Divisional Playoff contest. Tampa Bay races to a 28-6 halftime lead, scoring touchdowns on three consecutive possessions in the first half. The Bucs force five 49er turnovers and keep San Francisco out of the end zone for the first time in 50 games (including postseason).

BUCS CLAIM NFC TITLE (1/19) – Tampa Bay clinches its first NFC crown and Super Bowl berth with a 27-10 victory over the Philadelphia Eagles in the final game at Veterans Stadium. The Bucs defense forces three Eagle turnovers en route to securing the club's first postseason road win in franchise history. CB Ronde Barber paces an outstanding defensive effort and secures the victory with a club-record 92-yard interception return for a touchdown late in the fourth quarter.

BUCS WIN SUPER BOWL XXXVII (1/26) – The Bucs defeat the Oakland Raiders, 48-21, in Super Bowl XXXVII in San Diego behind a suffocating defense, setting Super Bowl records with five interceptions and three interception returns for touchdowns. It is the first NFL Championship in club history. At the age of 39, Jon Gruden becomes the youngest head coach to win a Super Bowl. S Dexter Jackson is named the game's MVP as the Bucs' top-ranked defense stifles the Raiders and the league's number one ranked offense. Tampa Bay limits Oakland to just 62 total yards in the first half, the second-fewest in Super Bowl history, and finishes the game surrendering just 269 total yards and 11 first downs. RB Michael Pittman runs for a season-high 125 yards and WR Keenan McCardell scores two touchdowns. LB Derrick Brooks seals the victory with a late fourth quarter interception return for a touchdown and CB Dwight Smith sets a Super Bowl record by returning a pair of second-half interceptions for touchdowns.

WORLD CHAMPIONS PARADE THROUGH TAMPA (1/28) – Following their 48-21 victory over Oakland in Super Bowl XXXVII, the World Champion Tampa Bay Buccaneers parade through downtown Tampa where more than 150,000 fans line the streets and crowd office buildings to celebrate the city's first major professional sports championship.

BUCS SIGN DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR MONTE KIFFIN TO A NEW CONTRACT (1/30) – Tampa Bay signs Monte Kiffin, architect of the NFL's top-ranked defense, to a new, three-year contract. Kiffin, a head coaching candidate, is rewarded for designing the first defense since the 1985 Chicago Bears to lead the league in total defense, fewest points allowed and total interceptions. Tampa Bay's defense allowed just 196 points in 2002, the fifth-fewest in a single season in NFL history during a 16-game schedule.

SEVEN BUCS APPEAR ON PRO BOWL ROSTER (2/2) – Tampa Bay has seven players on the roster for the 2003 Pro Bowl in Hawaii; FB Mike Alstott, LB Derrick Brooks, QB Brad Johnson, S John Lynch, LB Shelton Quarles, DE Simeon Rice and DT Warren Sapp. A total of six Buccaneers, all but Sapp due to an injury, see game action in the 45-20 AFC victory.

BUCS RE-SIGN PRO BOWL LB SHELTON QUARLES (3/7) – The Buccaneers re-sign linebacker Shelton Quarles to a five-year contract following his first Pro Bowl season in 2002. Quarles finished second on the team with a career-high 159 tackles and led the club with 21 stops in the postseason. He started all 16 regular season games and each of the three playoff games in his first season as Tampa Bay's middle linebacker after three seasons on the strong side.

BUCS DEFEAT THE JETS IN THE 2003 AMERICAN BOWL IN TOKYO, JAPAN (8/2) – The defending Super Bowl champion Tampa Bay Buccaneers opened the preseason with a 30-14 victory over the New York Jets in the 2003 American Bowl in their first-ever international appearance at the Tokyo Dome. Tampa Bay, which played in the final game of the 2002 season in its victory over the Oakland Raiders in Super Bowl XXXVII, joined the Jets in the first game of the 2003 preseason in Tokyo, Japan. Tampa Bay also conducted a pair of practices at the Tokyo Dome in preparation for the exhibition contest.

BUCS DEFEAT EAGLES IN 2003 REGULAR SEASON OPENER (9/8) – The defending Super Bowl champion Tampa Bay Buccaneers open up the regular season with a convincing 17-0 victory over Philadelphia in the Eagles' first regular season game at Lincoln Financial Field. WR Joe Jurevicius caught a pair of second-half touchdowns, including a spectacular fourth-quarter scoring reception in which he deflected the ball over an Eagles defender, spun to his left and dove to haul in the improbable touchdown catch. Tampa Bay's defense limited the Eagles to just 245 total yards as Philadelphia suffered a home shutout for the first time since 1998.

BUCS POST SECOND SHUTOUT OF THE SEASON (10/26) – Tampa Bay forces three turnovers and limits Dallas to 178 total yards of offense as the Bucs post their second shutout of the season, defeating the Dallas Cowboys 16-0 at Raymond James Stadium. The shutout marks the eighth in club history, including four over the past two seasons (2002 and 2003).

BUCS RECORD-SETTING SACK STREAK ENDS AT 69 (11/16) – Tampa Bay, which had recorded at least one sack in an NFL-record 69 consecutive games, is held sackless by the Green Bay Packers. It was the first time the Bucs defense had failed to register at least one sack since October 3, 1999 at Minnesota. During that 69-game streak, the Bucs defense also became the first unit to register at least one sack and one takeaway in 50 consecutive games since 1963.

ATLANTA FALCONS NAME RICH MCKAY PRESIDENT AND GENERAL MANAGER (12/15) – The Atlanta Falcons name Rich McKay President and General Manager. McKay spent the previous 12 seasons with Tampa Bay (1992-2003), including the past nine years (1995-2003) as the club's general manager. Under McKay, the Bucs made five playoff appearances, won two division titles and captured the club's first Super Bowl championship in 27 seasons with a 48-21 victory over the Oakland Raiders in Super Bowl XXXVII.

FOUR BUCS SELECTED TO THE PRO BOWL (12/18) – Tampa Bay has four players selected to the 2004 Pro Bowl: LB Derrick Brooks, WR Keenan McCardell, DE Simeon Rice and DT Warren Sapp. Brooks and Sapp are named to the Pro Bowl for the seventh consecutive time, eclipsing Hall of Famer Lee Roy Selmon's club record of six total appearances and consecutive appearances at the annual All-Star game.

ALLEN NAMED THIRD GENERAL MANAGER IN CLUB HISTORY (1/9) – The Bucs name Bruce Allen the third general manager in club history. Allen joins Tampa Bay after spending the previous nine seasons (1995-2003) with the Oakland Raiders, helping the team to three division titles, two AFC Championship Game appearances and a berth in Super Bowl XXXVII.

BUCS NAME DOUG WILLIAMS PERSONNEL EXECUTIVE (2/12) – The Bucs reclaim one of the greatest players in club history by naming Doug Williams personnel executive for the team. Williams, who spent the last six seasons (1998-2003) as head coach of his alma mater at Grambling State University, compiled a 52-18 record and led the Tigers to three consecutive Southwestern Athletic Conference titles (2000-2002). A former first-round draft pick by Tampa Bay in the 1978 NFL Draft (17th overall), Williams led the Bucs to the first three playoff appearances in team history (1979, 1981 and 1982), including an appearance in the 1979 NFC Championship Game in just the club's fourth year of existence.

BUCS UNVEIL PLANS FOR NEW TRAINING FACILITY (3/17) – The Bucs unveil plans for their new, 145,000 square-foot state-of-the-art training facility, promising a "world-class facility" that will be the finest in the National Football League. The spectacular and innovative facility will be built on the Tampa Bay Center mall site across the street from Raymond James Stadium. The signature of the new facility will be its breathtaking entrance, which features the world's largest football towering nearly five stories tall. Since the team's inception in 1976, Tampa Bay has been based at One Buccaneer Place, a training facility located near the Tampa International Airport. The new facility will take approximately 18-24 months to build and will be ready prior to the 2006 season.

BUCS ACQUIRE WR JOEY GALLOWAY (3/19) – The Bucs acquire WR Joey Galloway from the Dallas Cowboys for WR Keyshawn Johnson.

MOST VALUABLE PLAYERS

Two separate awards are presented each year to the team member chosen as the Bucs' Most Valuable Player. The St. Petersburg Times' award is determined by a vote of writers who regularly cover the team. The Tampa Sports Club, a cross section of the Tampa sports community, votes for its award. The Newspaper Enterprise Association no longer conducts a poll which was won in 1977 and 1979 by Lee Roy Selmon, in 1976 by Dave Pear and in 1978 by David Lewis.

ED BLOCK COURAGE AWARD

Each year, the Ed Block Courage Award is given to a player on each NFL team who best exemplifies commitment to the principles of sportsmanship and courage. The recipient symbolizes professionalism, dedication and performance as a community role model. This national award is named after the former Baltimore Colts' trainer who was a tireless worker for victims of abuse, violence, neglect and families in crisis.

BUCCANEERS IN OVERTIME

September 9, 1979 – Tampa Bay 29, at Baltimore 26: Colts win the toss. On Baltimore's third play from scrimmage, Buccaneer DE Randy Crowder sacks Colt QB Greg Landry, forcing a fumble that is recovered by DT Bill Kollar at the opposition's 14-yard line. PK Neil O'Donoghue kicks a 31-yard field goal on the next play to win the game at 1:41 of OT.

October 12, 1980 – at Tampa Bay 14, Green Bay 14: Packers win the toss. After the two teams exchange a pair of punts, Green Bay QB Lynn Dickey continues the most prolific passing day ever by a Buccaneer opponent (418 yards), guiding the Packers into Tampa Bay territory in the final minute of overtime. A 21-yard completion to WR Aundra Thompson helps Green Bay reach the Bucs' 18-yard line, but a 36-yard field goal attempt by PK Tom Birney sails wide right as time expires, resulting in the NFL's first tie since 1978.

January 2, 1983 – at Tampa Bay 26, Chicago 23: Bears win the toss. Chicago takes possession on its own 20 but gains just five yards as QB Jim McMahon is nearly sacked on successive plays. After a 35-yard punt, the Bucs take over on their own 40-yard line. RB James Wilder takes a pitch around the right end on the Bucs' first play and runs 47 yards to the Chicago 13. Two plays later, PK Bill Capece hits a 33-yard field goal at 3:14 of OT to send the Bucs into the playoffs.

September 18, 1983 – Minnesota 19, at Tampa Bay 16: Vikings win the toss. The Buccaneers force a Minnesota punt and take over on their own 47-yard line. QB Jack Thompson produces three first downs and leads the Bucs down to the Vikings' 15-yard line, but PK Bill Capece misses a 33-yard field goal. Minnesota RB Ricky Young turns a short pass into a 48-yard gain to the Buccaneer 27-yard line, setting up a 42-yard game-winning field goal by PK Benny Ricardo at 5:33 of OT.

October 9, 1983 – at Dallas 27, Tampa Bay 24: Cowboys win the toss. Dallas takes over on its own 10-yard line after the kickoff and reaches Buccaneer territory with a 46-yard pass from QB Danny White to RB Ron Springs. RB Tony Dorsett's 12-yard jaunt around end sets up a 50-yard field goal try by PK Rafael Septien. Septien's attempt falls short, but a roughing the kicker penalty sets up another try by the Cowboy kicker and he converts from 42 yards out at 4:38 of OT.

December 12, 1983 – Green Bay 12, at Tampa Bay 9: Packers win the toss. Green Bay keeps the ball on the ground in the opening drive with RBs Jessie Clark and Harlan Huckleby running for 43 of the 65 yards gained on the possession. A 20-yard sweep by Huckleby down to Tampa Bay's seven-yard line sets up a game-winning chip of 23 yards by PK Jan Stenerud at 4:07 of OT.

September 30, 1984 – at Tampa Bay 30, Green Bay 27: Packers win the toss. After the teams trade punts, Green Bay begins at its own 27-yard line but is again forced to punt after three plays. A 16-yard Steve DeBerg pass to FB Adger Armstrong brings the Bucs down to the Packers' 17-yard line and, despite consecutive holding penalties, PK Obed Ariri connects on a 48-yard field goal at 10:38 of OT.

October 14, 1984 – at Detroit 13, Tampa Bay 7: Buccaneers win the toss. QB Steve DeBerg leads Tampa Bay into Detroit territory with completions of 10, 19 and 14 yards, but RB James Wilder fumbles at the Lions' 41-yard line (recovered by William Gay). On Detroit's fifth play, QB Gary Danielson hits WR Leonard Thompson in stride for a 37-yard TD at 4:34 of OT.

November 24, 1985 – Tampa Bay 19, Detroit 16: Lions win the toss. After forcing two three-and-out series by Detroit, Tampa Bay takes over at its own 38-yard line. After opening the drive with a 19-yard Steve Young completion, the Bucs run on nine straight plays, driving to the Detroit eight to set up a 24-yard field goal by Donald Igwebuike at 12:31 of OT.

September 28, 1986 – at Atlanta 23, Tampa Bay 20: Falcons win the toss. Neither team advances with its first possession, but the Falcons put together a 52-yard drive after taking a Buccaneer punt at their own 33-yard line, keyed by a 22-yard scamper by RB Cliff Austin on a draw play. PK Mick Luckhurst converts on a 34-yard field goal attempt to win the game at 12:35 of OT.

October 5, 1986 – at L.A. Rams 26, Tampa Bay 20: Rams win the toss. The Bucs lose their second overtime game in as many weeks on L.A.'s first possession as RB Eric Dickerson breaks a 42-yard touchdown run up the middle at 2:16 of OT.

December 11, 1988 – at New England 10, Tampa Bay 7: Buccaneers win the toss but elect to kick. Patriot QB Tony Eason opens New England's first possession with a 21-yard completion to WR Irving Fryar and follows three plays later with a 26-yard hookup with Fryar. Two short runs by FB John Stephens set up a 27-yard field goal by PK Jason Staurovsky at 3:08 of OT.

September 30, 1990 – Tampa Bay 23, at Minnesota 20: Vikings win the toss. Minnesota drives to the Buccaneer 31, but former Buc PK Donald Igwebuike's 48-yard field goal try is wide left. After a Tampa Bay punt, CB Wayne Haddix picks off QB Rich Gammon's pass on the Vikings' next play and returns it to the Minnesota 26-yard line. RB Reggie Cobb runs up the middle for six yards to position the Bucs for a successful 36-yard field goal by PK Steve Christie at 9:11 of OT.

November 27, 1994 – Tampa Bay 20, at Minnesota 17: Buccaneers win the toss. Tampa Bay's initial drive opens with a 16-yard reception by WR Courtney Hawkins but stalls at the Vikings' 49-yard line. P Dan Strzyzinski's punt is fielded at Minnesota's 18, but is nullified by a penalty. On the re-kick, Viking WR Eric Gulford muffs the punt at Minnesota's four-yard line where it is recovered by long-snapper Ed Brady. PK Michael Husted wins the game with a 22-yard field goal on the next play which came at 2:08 of OT.

October 15, 1995 – at Tampa Bay 20, Minnesota 17: Buccaneers win the toss. Minnesota forces a Tampa Bay punt and takes over on its own 48. QB Warren Moon drives the Vikings to the Buccaneer 35-yard line, but PK Fuad Revez misses a 53-yard field goal attempt. The Bucs' ensuing possession nearly ends on a fumble by TE Jackie Harris, but WR Lawrence Dawsey strips Viking S Orlando Thomas during the return and G Ian Beckles falls on the loose ball at the Viking 45. A 15-yard Trent Diller-to-Alvin Harper pass then positions the Bucs for PK Michael Husted's game-winning 51-yard field goal at 8:37 of OT.

December 10, 1995 – at Tampa Bay 13, Green Bay 10: Buccaneers win the toss. Trent Diller passes to TE Jackie Harris for nine yards and WR Horace Copeland for 23 yards, plus an eight-yard scamper by RB Errict Rhett moves Tampa Bay into Packer territory. Rhett is stopped for a loss of one on a third-and-one attempt from Green Bay's 28-yard line, but PK Michael Husted kicks a 47-yard game-winning field goal on the next play at 11:14 of OT.

November 10, 1996 – at Tampa Bay 20, Oakland 17: Buccaneers win the toss. After a Tampa Bay punt, the Buc defense forces a Raider three-and-out and the home team gets the ball back at its own 39. Two big-gainers by rookie FB Mike Alstott, a 20-yard reception of a QB Trent Diller pass and a 10-yard run up the middle, position Tampa Bay at the Oakland five, from where PK Michael Husted kicks the game-winner, a 23-yarder with 3:11 remaining.

October 1, 2000 – at Washington 20, Tampa Bay 17: Redskins win the toss. The Buccaneer defense forces a Washington three-and-out, but Tampa Bay starts at its own 14-yard line. After Washington forces a three-and-out, Deion Sanders returns the punt 57 yards to the Tampa Bay eight-yard line. After three rushes by TB Stephen Davis, former Buccaneer K Michael Husted kicks a 20-yard field goal with 10:51 remaining for the victory.

December 24, 2000 – at Green Bay 17, Tampa Bay 14: Packers win the toss. Green Bay starts at its own 38 and uses nine plays to move the ball to the Tampa Bay four-yard line. On the drive, the Packers convert two third downs and K Ryan Longwell nails the game-winning 22-yard field goal with 8:29 left in overtime.

October 14, 2001 – at Tennessee 31, Tampa Bay 28: Buccaneers win the toss. Joe Nedney nails a 49-yard field goal less than three minutes into overtime to give Tennessee the win. Tennessee forced a three-and-out and starts at the Tampa Bay 46-yard line following a punt. Steve McNair completes a 14-yard pass to the Buccaneer 32-yard line on the first play and Nedney knocks down the game-winner four plays later.

December 2, 2001 – Tampa Bay 16, at Cincinnati 15: Buccaneers win the toss. The Bucs are forced to punt on their first possession of the extra period, but S John Lynch strips RB Corey Dillon on Cincinnati's three-yard line on the Bengals' first play. Gramatica nails the game-winner on a 21-yarder on the next play just over five minutes into overtime.

September 8, 2002 – New Orleans 26, at Tampa Bay 20: Buccaneers win the toss. Each team punts twice in the first four possessions of overtime as the Saints pin Tampa Bay at its own six-yard line to begin the Buccaneers third possession in the extra period. Punting from the Tampa Bay end zone, Tom Tuva pulled the ball down and attempted a pass when he sensed a potential block. Tuva's off-balance pass was intercepted by Saints LB James Allen in the end zone for the game-winning score with 2:59 left in overtime.

September 14, 2003 – Carolina 12, at Tampa Bay 9: Panthers win the toss. Carolina punts on its first possession, pinning the Bucs inside their own 20-yard line. Tampa Bay advances to the Carolina 42-yard line, but the drive stalls and the Buccaneers are forced to punt. Carolina's Steve Smith returns the punt 52 yards to the Tampa Bay 40-yard line. The Panthers advance to the Bucs 29-yard line on four plays, setting up John Kasay's 47-yard game winner with 3:34 left in the extra period.

October 6, 2003 – Indianapolis 38, at Tampa Bay 35: Buccaneers win the toss. Tampa Bay advances to the Colts 41-yard line on the first possession of overtime, but is forced to punt. Indianapolis takes over at its own 13-yard line and pieces together a 15-play drive that places Mike Vanderjagt in position for a 40-yard field goal attempt. Vanderjagt misses wide right, but Bucs DE Simeon Rice is flagged for unsportsmanlike conduct for "leaping." The Colts retain possession and gain 11 yards as a result of the penalty, setting up Vanderjagt's 29-yard game winning field goal on the next play with 3:50 remaining in overtime.

BUCCANEERS IN PRIME TIME

Thursday Night, 9/11/80 (ABC) – Tampa Bay 10, Los Angeles Rams 9: In a rematch of the 1979 NFC Championship Game, the Bucs exacted a small measure of revenge with a 10-9 win over the Rams before 66,576 at Tampa Stadium. Quarterback Doug Williams scored the game's only touchdown on a one-yard sneak with 57 seconds remaining to seal the victory. Despite yielding 360 total yards, the Bucs defense intercepted Rams quarterback Vince Ferragamo four times and held Los Angeles to just three Frank Corral field goals.

Monday Night, 10/6/80 (ABC) – Chicago 23, Tampa Bay 0: Chicago's defense held the Bucs to 147 total yards en route to a 23-0 Monday Night win before 61,350 at Soldier Field. The Bears held a 3-0 lead heading into the third quarter, when Tampa Bay quarterback Doug Williams hit tight end Jimmie Giles for an apparent touchdown. The play was nullified because of a penalty and the Bears' defense stiffened from there.

Monday Night, 11/29/82 (ABC) – Tampa Bay 23, Miami 17: The Bucs intercepted five passes to pick up their first win of the strike-shortened season, a 23-17 triumph over Miami before 65,854 at Tampa Stadium. Tampa Bay led 23-10 late, when Dolphins quarterback Don Strock hit tight end Joe Rose on an 11-yard scoring strike to cut the Bucs lead to six with 34 seconds remaining. Miami recovered the ensuing onside kick, but cornerback Mike Washington intercepted Strock on the game's final play to secure the win.

Monday Night, 12/12/83 (ABC) – Green Bay 12, Tampa Bay 9 (OT): Veteran kicker Jan Stenerud booted a 23-yard field goal with 4:07 left in overtime to lift Green Bay to a 12-9 win over the Bucs before 50,763 at Tampa Stadium. Tampa Bay led 9-6 when kicker Bill Capece missed a 35-yard attempt with 2:49 remaining in regulation. The Packers then drove 65 yards to set up Stenerud for a 23-yarder that sent the game into overtime. The Bucs' defense—which surrendered 55 points to the Packers in their first meeting of the season—kept Green Bay out of the end zone but couldn't prevent the team's third overtime defeat of 1983.

Sunday Night, 9/23/90 (TNT) – Tampa Bay 23, Detroit 20: Vinny Testaverde hit running back John Harvey on a three-yard touchdown pass with 4:21 remaining to rally the Bucs past Detroit, 23-20, before 55,075 at Tampa Stadium. Testaverde completed 5 of 7 passes for 91 yards in the fourth quarter, as the Bucs erased their third deficit of the contest. Gary Anderson rushed for 71 yards and one touchdown.

Sunday Night, 12/8/91 (ESPN) – Minnesota 26, Tampa Bay 24: A valiant Bucs rally fell short as Minnesota escaped with a 26-24 win before 41,091 at Tampa Stadium. The Vikings jumped out to a 20-3 lead before Tampa Bay battled back behind Vinny Testaverde, who threw for a season-best 350 yards. Testaverde hit wide receiver Mark Carrier on a 21-yard scoring toss to cut the lead to two late in the fourth quarter, but the Bucs could pull no closer. Carrier totaled 110 yards on six catches.

Sunday Night, 12/6/92 (ESPN) – Los Angeles Rams 31, Tampa Bay 27: The Los Angeles Rams erased a 24-point halftime deficit to stun the Bucs 31-27 before 38,387 at Tampa Stadium. Tampa Bay jumped out to a 27-3 lead, thanks to two touchdown passes from Vinny Testaverde and a 26-yard fumble return on a kickoff by cornerback Roger Jones. But the Rams scored three touchdowns in an eight-minute span of the third quarter to close the gap to 27-24. Quarterback Jim Everett then hit tight end Pat Carter on an eight-yard scoring toss with six minutes left to cap the comeback.

Sunday Night, 11/21/93 (ESPN) – Tampa Bay 23, Minnesota 10: Bucs running back Vince Workman keyed a workman-like dismantling of Minnesota as Tampa Bay rolled to a 23-10 victory before 40,848 at Tampa Stadium. Workman rushed for 58 yards and one touchdown, adding seven catches for 65 yards in his first career start. The Vikings led 7-6 at halftime before cornerback Milton Mack returned a Sean Salisbury pass 27 yards for his first career touchdown. Workman sealed the win with a one-yard scoring plunge in the fourth quarter. The Bucs' offense did not commit a turnover for the first time all season, while the defense turned in its best effort of 1993, limiting Minnesota to 255 total yards.

Sunday Night, 11/13/94 (ESPN) — Detroit 14, Tampa Bay 9: Detroit running back Barry Sanders rushed for 237 yards, leading the Lions to a 14-9 win over the Bucs before 50,814 at the Silverdome. Tampa Bay marched to the Lions' one-yard line twice in the first half but could only muster a 3-0 halftime lead. Detroit regrouped in the second half as Sanders careered for 200 yards after the intermission. Michael Husted's third field goal cut the margin to five points in the fourth quarter, but Sanders sealed the win with a 48-yarder late in the game, enabling Detroit to run out the clock.

Sunday Night, 12/10/95 (ESPN) — Tampa Bay 13, Green Bay 10 (OT): Michael Husted nailed a 47-yard field goal 2:46 into overtime, vaulting the Bucs to a pulsating 13-10 win over the Green Bay Packers before 67,557 at Tampa Stadium. Earlier, Husted had tied the game at 10 with a 38-yard field goal. The Packers had a chance to win with eight seconds remaining in regulation, but Chris Jacke missed a 45-yarder wide left. Wide receiver Horace Copeland caught a career-high eight passes for 122 yards, including a 23-yarder that led to the Bucs' lone touchdown, a one-yard plunge by running back Jerry Ellison.

Sunday Night, 9/15/96 (TNT) — Denver 27, Tampa Bay 23: Denver quarterback John Elway engineered another of his patented fourth-quarter comebacks, rallying the Broncos past the Bucs 27-23 before 71,555 at Mile High Stadium. Elway directed a 14-play, 80-yard march, culminating with a three-yard touchdown run by Terrell Davis with 3:32 remaining. Earlier, Michael Husted had given the Bucs a 23-10 lead on a 28-yard field goal, set up by Derrick Brooks' first career interception. Tampa Bay running back Reggie Brooks ran for 114 yards, while tight end Jackie Harris paced the Bucs receiving corps with five catches for 96 yards.

Sunday Night, 9/21/97 (TNT) — Tampa Bay 31, Miami 21: The Bucs ran their record to 4-0 with an electrifying 31-21 win over Miami before 73,314 at Houlahan's Stadium. Tampa Bay rang up 357 yards on the Dolphins' defense while holding Miami to just 48 yards on the ground. Rookie running back Warrick Dunn—fresh off two straight 100-yard rushing outings—caught six passes for 106 yards, including a 58-yard touchdown catch. Meanwhile, fullback Mike Alstott rushed for 95 yards and caught two short scoring tosses from Trent Dilfer in the first half. Dilfer outdueled Miami's Dan Marino, completing 18 of 24 passes for 248 yards and a career-high four touchdowns.

Monday Night, 9/28/98 (ABC) — Detroit 27, Tampa Bay 6: Detroit made the Bucs' first Monday Night appearance in 15 years a sobering one, racing past Tampa Bay 27-6 before 74,724 at the Silverdome. Despite being doubled in total yardage (170-85) in the first half, Tampa Bay trailed just 6-3 as the third quarter opened. Bryant Westbrook then intercepted a Trent Dilfer pass and raced 34 yards for a score to give Detroit a 13-3 lead. Quarterback Charlie Batch added a one-yard scoring run before Michael Husted's 47-yard field goal closed the gap to 20-6. Cornerback Terry Fair returned the ensuing kickoff 105 yards for a touchdown to ice the contest.

Sunday Night, 11/8/98 (ESPN) — Tennessee 31, Tampa Bay 22: Quarterback Steve McNair raced 71 yards for a touchdown with 1:46 left, squelching a Bucs comeback and lifting Tennessee to a 31-22 win over Tampa Bay before 65,054 at Raymond James Stadium. Trent Dilfer connected with wide receiver Reidel Anthony on a 10-yard scoring strike to pull the Bucs within 24-22, but misfired on the subsequent two-point conversion. Tampa Bay pressed the Oilers into a third-and-eight at their own 29 before McNair scampered to the end zone. The Bucs jumped out to a 16-3 halftime lead, but Tennessee stormed back behind running back Eddie George, who totaled 134 rushing yards.

Monday Night, 12/7/98 (ABC) — Tampa Bay 24, Green Bay 22: The Bucs ended a string of futility against Green Bay in style, beating the defending NFC champions 24-22 before 65,497 at Raymond James Stadium. Quarterback Trent Dilfer connected on two long scoring strikes in the first half—a 64-yarder to Jacquez Green and a 62-yarder to Bert Emanuel—to give the Bucs a 14-6 halftime lead. Meanwhile, Tampa Bay's defense was suffocating, sacking quarterback Brett Favre eight times and forcing a team-record eight fumbles, recovering two. The Packers clawed to within two points with 2:20 remaining, but the Bucs then ran all but 24 seconds off the clock. Defensive tackle Brad Culpepper and Warren Sapp capped the sack parade by downing Favre on the last play of the game.

Sunday Night, 10/10/99 (ESPN) — Green Bay 26, Tampa Bay 23: QB Brett Favre hit WR Antonio Freeman on a 21-yard touchdown pass with 1:05 left, capping a wild fourth quarter and lifting the Packers to a 26-23 win over Tampa Bay before 59,868 at Lambeau Field. The Bucs fell behind 10-0 early, but rallied to take a 13-10 lead on a 16-yard touchdown pass from QB Trent Dilfer to RB Warrick Dunn and two field goals by Martin Gramatica. Ryan Longwell booted a 49-yarder to tie the score at the half. After the team traded field goals, Longwell hit from 45 yards to give Green Bay a 19-16 lead. But FB Mike Alstott scored on a 22-yard rumble with 1:45 remaining, giving the Bucs a 23-19 lead. Favre wasn't done, however, ushering Green Bay to the winning score in just 40 seconds. He threw for 390 yards on the night, the most ever against Tampa Bay in regulation.

Sunday Night, 10/31/99 (ESPN) — Detroit 20, Tampa Bay 3: For the second consecutive week, Tampa Bay's offense could not reach the end zone, resulting in a 20-3 loss to Detroit before 63,135 at the Silverdome. The Bucs rolled up 292 yards of total offense, besting the Lions by 36 yards. But one Tampa Bay fumble led to a Lions TD, while the other miscue prevented a seemingly certain Bucs TD. The team traded field goals before Detroit pinned the Bucs back at their goal line, forced an errant punt and took over at the Tampa Bay 36. Greg Hill's 27-yard scamper set up Sedrick Irvin for a two-yard TD run, lifting Detroit to a 10-3 lead. Two plays into the second half, it was 17-3. LB Chris Claiborne nailed QB Eric Zeier, forcing a fumble that LB Allen Aldridge returned 21 yards for a score. Hanson booted a late field goal to make it 20-3.

Monday Night, 12/6/99 (ABC) — Tampa Bay 24, Minnesota 17: The Bucs coupled a big-play defensive effort with some timely offense to rally for a 24-17 win over Minnesota before 65,741 at Raymond James Stadium. Tampa Bay jumped out on top on the third play of the game. CB Donnie Abraham blitzed from the left side, timed his jump perfectly and picked off a Jeff George pass. He raced 55 yards for a TD to give Tampa Bay a 7-0 lead. Martin Gramatica hit a 20-yard FG to push the lead to 10-0. But the Bucs coughed the ball up twice in the second quarter, leading to two Vikings touchdowns. Tampa Bay answered midway through the third quarter, when QB Shaun King—making his first NFL start—hit WR Jacquez Green on a 29-yard scoring strike. After Minnesota muffed a punt, King found TE Dave Moore in the back of the end zone on a one-yard toss, giving Tampa Bay a 24-14 lead. Gary Anderson pulled Minnesota within seven points on a 54-yard FG, then George mounted one final charge. But a 4th and 19 pass from the Bucs 34 fell incomplete.

Monday Night, 10/9/00 (ABC) — Minnesota 30, Tampa Bay 23: For the second time in its last three games, Tampa Bay lost a fourth quarter lead as Minnesota rallied for a 30-23 victory before 64,162 at the Metrodome. The Bucs, who trailed for most of the game, took their first lead with 12:13 remaining in the game when CB Donnie Abraham returned a blocked field goal attempt 53 yards for a 23-20 Bucs lead. The block by DT Warren Sapp, his second in the last two weeks, gave Tampa Bay its first touchdown on a return of a blocked field goal since 1978. But the Vikings regained the lead on a 42-yard scoring pass from QB Daunte Culpepper to WR Randy Moss and then extended the edge to seven on a Gary Anderson field goal with 59 seconds left in the game. Tampa Bay reached the Viking 43-yard line, but QB Shaun King's "Hail Mary" pass on the final play of regulation fell incomplete in the end zone.

Thursday Night, 10/19/00 (ESPN) — Detroit 28, Tampa Bay 14: For the first time since 1996, Tampa Bay lost its fourth straight game as Detroit came back for a 28-14 victory before 65,557 fans at Raymond James Stadium. The Lions, who had trailed for most of the first half, scored 14 points in the final quarter on two short touchdown runs by James Stewart after K Martin Gramatica had tied the game at 14-14 with a career-long 55-yard FG. Gramatica, who tied his single-game mark with four field goals, connected on his first two and the Bucs added a safety after a blocked punt by LB Nate Webster for an 8-0 lead early in the second period. The two teams traded field goals, but Detroit evened the game at 11-11 just before the half on the first of Stewart's three TDs. Gramatica and Lions K Jason Hanson swapped field goals again after the break before Detroit took control in the final 13 minutes. DE Marcus Jones set a club record with four sacks and added a blocked field goal as the Bucs totaled seven quarterback sacks.

Monday Night, 12/18/00 (ABC) — Tampa Bay 38, St. Louis 35: RB Warrick Dunn scored his third rushing touchdown of the game with 48 seconds remaining as Tampa Bay rallied for a 38-35 win over St. Louis at Raymond James Stadium. After the Rams had stormed back from a 10-point deficit to grab a 35-31 lead, QB Shaun King drove the Bucs 80 yards on 13 plays for the game-winning score on a one-yard run by Dunn. S John Lynch sealed the victory with an interception of Rams QB Kurt Warner, his third of the game, with less than 30 seconds remaining. In a game that featured seven lead changes, Tampa Bay grabbed a 24-14 halftime lead, thanks to a two-yard score by Dunn and two scoring strikes from King to WR Keyshawn Johnson. Rams RB Marshall Faulk, who scored four touchdowns on the night, accounted for St. Louis first-half points with two rushing TDs. Faulk added a TD reception following the break to cut the lead to three, but Dunn broke free for a 52-yard run to extend the edge to 31-21 and eclipse the 1,000-yard mark for the season. But the Rams responded with 14 straight points on Faulk's third rushing TD and a 72-yard score from Warner to WR Torry Holt. The Rams defense then stopped Tampa Bay on downs, but the Bucs defense responded by forcing the Rams to punt with 2:22 left in the game, setting up the game-winning drive. Dunn tied a team single-game record with three rushing touchdowns and the Bucs offense gained a season-high 446 yards.

Monday Night, 11/26/01 (ABC) — Tampa Bay 24, St. Louis 17: RB Warrick Dunn snapped a 17-17 tie early in the fourth quarter on a 21-yard touchdown run as Tampa Bay gained its first-ever win at St. Louis with a 24-17 triumph at the Dome at America's Center. The Tampa Bay defense shut down the Rams' top-ranked offense, holding St. Louis scoreless in the final 15 minutes. Overall, the Bucs allowed just one touchdown and permitted St. Louis only 345 total yards, which was below its league-leading average of nearly 425 yards per game. Tampa Bay also forced five Rams turnovers, including two interceptions of QB Kurt Warner. DT Warren Sapp posted his second two-sack performance in the last three games, and S John Lynch sealed the win for the second consecutive meeting with an interception on the final drive of the game.

Saturday Night, 12/29/01 (ABC) — Tampa Bay 22, Baltimore 10: Tampa Bay moved closer to the playoffs with a 22-10 win over defending Super Bowl champion Baltimore at Raymond James Stadium on a special Saturday Night edition of ABC's Monday Night Football. The Bucs reached the postseason for the third straight year the next day when Atlanta lost to Miami. The Bucs defense held the Ravens to just 257 yards and 4-of-17 on third down conversions. QB Brad Johnson scored on a one-yard sneak to give the Bucs a 16-7 edge at the half. Following a scoreless third quarter, the Ravens cut the lead to 16-10 on a Matt Stoverfield goal, but FB Mike Alstott sealed the victory with a 32-yard touchdown with 1:35 left on the clock. The win marked the third straight year the Bucs have defeated the defending Super Bowl champions.

Sunday Night, 1/6/02 (ESPN) — Philadelphia 17, Tampa Bay 13: Tampa Bay concluded its 2001 regular season as Philadelphia rallied to score a pair of touchdowns in the final 2:12 in a 17-13 win over the Bucs at Raymond James Stadium. With the playoff picture already set prior to the game for both clubs, many of the second-team players saw significant action. The game marked just the seventh time since 1970 that teams have met in the regular season finale before playing in the playoffs. Despite the loss, the Buccaneers finished 9-7 and advanced to the playoffs for the fourth time in five seasons under head coach Tony Dungie.

Monday Night, 9/23/02 (ABC) — Tampa Bay 26, St. Louis 14: Tampa Bay's defense posted five sacks and four interceptions, including a 39-yard interception return for a touchdown by LB Derrick Brooks with 59 seconds remaining, giving head coach Jon Gruden his first victory at Raymond James Stadium with a 26-14 win over the Rams on Monday Night Football. The Buccaneers took a 3-0 lead after K Martin Gramatica connected on a 39-yard field goal to open up the game. The Rams responded on their initial drive, when RB Marshall Faulk scored on a five-yard touchdown run for a 7-3 lead. Tampa Bay QB Brad Johnson led a drive culminated by a 47-yard field goal by Gramatica and cut the Rams lead to 7-6. With the Rams driving in the second quarter, DE Simeon Rice dropped into pass coverage and snared his second career interception. Johnson followed by connecting with TE Rickey Dudley, who played in his first game with Tampa Bay, for a nine-yard scoring pass with less than one minute left in the first half. After a scoreless third quarter, CB Brian Kelly intercepted a Warner pass and returned it 31 yards to the Rams' one-yard line, setting up FB Mike Alstott's two-yard touchdown run for a 19-7 lead two plays later. Rams RB Lamar Gordon, who replaced an injured Faulk, scored on a 21-yard run to cut the deficit to 19-14. The Rams had one last opportunity late in the fourth quarter, but Brooks, who left in the third quarter with a left hamstring strain, returned for one play, replacing an injured Al Singleton. Brooks immediately clinched the win, registering his third career interception return for a touchdown and his second pick for a score in as many games in 2002.

Sunday Night, 12/1/02 (ESPN) — New Orleans 23, Tampa Bay 20: New Orleans held off a late rally by Tampa Bay for a 23-20 victory at the Superdome to snap the Buccaneers' four-game winning streak. Saints WR Joe Horn, who posted five receptions for 106 yards and one touchdown, set up another score with a 52-yard catch and secured the win with a key 10-yard reception on third down in the final two minutes of the contest. Tampa Bay, which trailed 23-12 late in the fourth quarter, cut the lead to 23-20 with 2:54 remaining in the game as QB Brad Johnson led Tampa Bay on a 17-play, 84-yard TD drive, capped off by WR Keenan McCardell's two-yard TD reception on fourth-and-goal and the two-point conversion. But New Orleans converted a key first down when backup QB Jake Delhomme, who replaced an injured Aaron Brooks, connected with Horn for 10 yards on his only passing attempt on third down to seal the win. DE Simeon Rice became the first player in NFL history to record two or more sacks in five consecutive games. Rice, who tied his career high with three sacks, sacked Brooks on successive plays on New Orleans' opening possession. Rice's third sack, late in the first quarter, gave the Bucs a 2-0 lead when he forced a Brooks fumble, which rolled out of the end zone for a safety. Saints RB Deuce McAllister's six-yard TD run in the second quarter lifted New Orleans to a 6-2 lead. On the following series, Brad Johnson marched the Buccaneers on a season-long 90-yard TD drive, capped off by FB Mike Alstott's 44-yard TD catch to give the Bucs a 9-6 lead. New Orleans regained the lead early in the second half on a three-yard reception by WR Jake Reed and the Saints added another score less than four minutes later when Brooks found Horn for a 14-yard TD. Tampa Bay responded on its next possession as K Martin Gramatica nailed a 51-yard field goal.

Monday Night, 12/23/02 (ABC) — Pittsburgh 17, Tampa Bay 7: Tommy Maddox threw for 236 yards and one touchdown and Pittsburgh's defense forced two Tampa Bay fumbles inside the Pittsburgh 10-yard line en route to a 17-7 win over the Buccaneers on Monday Night Football at Raymond James Stadium. Despite the loss, Tampa Bay claimed the NFC South Division title when New Orleans lost to Cincinnati, while the Steelers clinched the AFC North Division with the victory over the Bucs. Tampa Bay played without starting quarterback Brad Johnson, who missed the game with a right lower back contusion. QB Shaun King started in his place and completed 9-of-26 passes for 73 yards and one interception prior to being replaced by QB Rob Johnson in the third quarter. Pittsburgh raced out to a 14-0 lead with 11:10 remaining in the first quarter. Maddox hit WR Antwan Randle El for an 11-yard score on the Steelers opening possession and on Tampa Bay's second offensive play, CB Chad Scott stepped in front of a King pass and raced 30 yards for a TD. The Steelers added a 26-yard field goal by K Jeff Reed to build a 17-0 lead in the first quarter. Tampa Bay had a pair of opportunities to score inside the Steelers 10-yard line, but NT Casey Hampton forced a pair of turnovers. Hampton forced a fumble by FB Mike Alstott on the Steelers' seven-yard run on the first play of the second quarter and then produced another turnover after sacking and forcing a fumble by Rob Johnson inside the 10-yard line in the third quarter. Rob Johnson completed 12-of-18 passes for 159 yards and one TD, but was sacked five times. WR Keyshawn Johnson had a game-high eight receptions for 132 yards and added an 18-yard TD late in the fourth quarter.

Sunday Night, 12/29/02 (ESPN) — Tampa Bay 15, Chicago 0: Tampa Bay closed out the first regular season under Jon Gruden with its club record 12th win as K Martin Gramatica kicked a career-high and team-record five field goals and the Buccaneers defense registered four interceptions in a 15-0 shutout of the Chicago Bears. The win also marked the second road shutout of the season for the Buccaneers, who also blanked the Baltimore Ravens, 25-0 in Week 2. In addition, the temperature at kickoff was 38 degrees, marking the first time Tampa Bay won in 22 tries when the thermometer read below 40 degrees. With the victory, Tampa Bay improved to 6-2 on the road, the most wins away from home in franchise history and secured the No. 2 seed in the NFC. The NFL's top-ranked defense intercepted Bears QB Henry Burris four times, setting up three of Gramatica's five field goals. Burris, making his first career NFL start, completed just 7-of-19 passes for 78 yards and the four interceptions for a 10.3 passer rating. Tampa Bay built a 6-0 halftime lead behind a pair of Gramatica field goals (30 and 32 yards), the second of which was set up by LB Derrick Brooks career-high fifth interception of the season. Tampa Bay sealed the win in the fourth quarter with three fourth quarter INTs and field goals from 33, 26 and 33 yards. CB Brian Kelly, who tied for the NFL lead with a career-high eight interceptions, added a pair of fourth quarter picks and CB Dwight Smith reeled in the final interception. QB Rob Johnson, filling in for the injured Brad Johnson, directed a balanced attack as he passed for 134 yards and the Buccaneers registered 161 yards rushing.

Monday Night, 9/8/03 (ABC) — Tampa Bay 17, Philadelphia 0: Tampa Bay opened up the regular season in the Eagles' first regular season game at Lincoln Financial Field. The Eagles, who were limited to just 245 total yards and converted on 2-of-11 (18%) third down conversions, suffered a home shutout for the first time since 1998. Tampa Bay's defense set the tone early, holding the Eagles scoreless on a goal-line stand in the first quarter. WR Joe Jurevicius reeled in a pair of second half touchdowns from QB Brad Johnson, who completed 13-of-14 passes in the second half. Jurevicius gave the Buccaneers a 10-0 lead as he hauled in a 13-yard score in the corner of the end zone. He followed with another improbable catch in the fourth quarter, deflecting the ball over an Eagles defender, spinning to his left and diving for his second TD reception of the contest for a 17-0 lead. Brad Johnson, who marched Tampa Bay on consecutive TD drives of 80 and 73 yards in the second half, completed 27-of-36 passes for 238 yards with two touchdowns and one interception. Johnson's top target, WR Keyshawn Johnson, reeled in a team-high six receptions for 83 yards, and DT Warren Sapp caught his first career pass, a 14-yard grab in the fourth quarter for a first down. DE Simeon Rice added two sacks on Eagles QB Donovan McNabb.

Monday Night, 10/6/03 (ABC) — Indianapolis 38, Tampa Bay 35: QB Peyton Manning led the Colts to three touchdowns in the final five minutes of regulation to overcome a 21-point deficit and force overtime, leading Indianapolis to a dramatic 38-35 overtime win in former head coach Tony Dungy's return to Raymond James Stadium. Manning led the Colts to four TDs in the fourth quarter after Tampa Bay built a 35-14 lead with 5:09 left after CB Ronde Barber's 29-yard interception return for a score. But that would be the last score of the night for the Bucs. WR Brad Pyatt returned the ensuing kickoff 90 yards and four plays later RB James Munro ran in from three yards out on fourth-and-1 for the score. The Colts recovered an onside kick and Manning connected with WR Marvin Harrison, who hauled in a game-high 11 receptions for 176 yards and two TDs, from 28 yards on fourth-and-six to cut the deficit to 35-28. After a Bucs punt, the Colts took over with 1:41 remaining in the contest. Manning marched the Colts on a five-play, 85-yard drive in just 1:06 that was capped off by RB Ricky Williams, whose one-yard run tied the game at 35. In overtime, Tampa Bay won the toss but was forced to punt on the first possession. Manning moved the Colts downfield to set up a 40-yard field goal attempt by K Mike Vanderjagt. He missed it wide right, but DE Simeon Rice was flagged for leaping and the Colts received another chance because of the unsportsmanlike conduct penalty. Vanderjagt's 29-yard kick bounced off the right post and through the uprights to complete the improbable comeback. WR Keenan McCardell caught two TD receptions, including a then career-long 74 yarder, and added a third score on a 57-yard fumble return for a touchdown.

Monday Night, 11/24/03 (ABC) — Tampa Bay 19, New York Giants 13: WR Charles Lee's career-long 53-yard catch-and-run for a touchdown late in the first half helped Tampa Bay snap a three-game losing skid en route to a 19-13 win over the New York Giants at Raymond James Stadium. Lee, who posted his first career TD as a Buccaneer and his second career scoring reception, finished with five receptions for a game-high 91 yards, while WR Keenan McCardell added a game-high nine receptions for 83 yards. RB Thomas Jones' one-yard TD run in the second quarter gave Tampa Bay a 7-0 lead. After K Matt Bryant's 30-yard field goal, Lee's 53-yard TD reception lifted the Buccaneers to a 14-3 advantage. The Giants had an opportunity to cut the deficit, but DE Simeon Rice, who posted his NFL-leading 12th sack, nailed QB Kerry Collins on the Tampa Bay 29-yard line and forced a fumble that was recovered by DT Chartric Darby as time expired in the first half. The Giants, who entered the contest ranked third in the NFL in total offense (365.9 ypg.), could muster just 212 total yards of offense as the Buccaneers forced four turnovers. After the team exchanged field goals in the third quarter — a 30-yarder by Bryant and a 21-yarder by K Martin Gramatica — Giants rookie CB Frank Walker intercepted QB Brad Johnson and returned it 56 yards for a score to cut the Buccaneers' lead to 17-13 early in the fourth quarter. But Tampa Bay's defense closed out the game, stifling the Giants on their final two offensive possessions. S John Lynch intercepted a Collins pass and on the following series DT Warren Sapp recorded his second sack of the game.

Sunday Night, 11/30/03 (ESPN) — Jacksonville 17, Tampa Bay 10: WR Jimmy Smith's diving 48-yard touchdown reception with 10:23 remaining in the fourth quarter lifted Jacksonville to a 17-10 win at ALTEL Stadium. Smith and WR Keenan McCardell, teammates with the Jaguars from 1996-2001, became the 16th and 17th players, respectively, to reach the 700-reception mark as Smith finished with a game-high 10 receptions for 136 yards, while McCardell paced the Buccaneers with eight catches for 74 yards. Stuffed in the first half, Jaguars RB Fred Taylor emerged in the second half, finishing with 118 yards on 29 carries to help the Jaguars run out the clock in the waning minutes with a pair of first down runs. Jacksonville jumped out to a 7-0 lead behind QB Byron Leftwich's 10-yard scoring pass to TE Kyle Brady following LB Mike Peterson's interception of Bucs QB Brad Johnson. The Buccaneers responded on the following offensive series with an 11-play, 56-yard drive capped off by Thomas Jones' five-yard TD run to tie the score at 7. On the ensuing possession, LB Derrick Brooks forced a fumble that was recovered by CB Tim Wansley as the Buccaneers recorded a takeaway in their 53rd consecutive game. Tampa Bay took advantage with a 47-yard field goal by K Martin Gramatica as Tampa Bay took its only lead of the game. But Jacksonville responded on its next possession as Leftwich, who completed 20-of-34 passes for 224 yards and the aforementioned two TDs, drove the Jaguars down the field before the half to set up K Seth Marler's 28-yard FG, tying the score at 10. Despite numerous chances, the Jaguars failed to score three times inside the Buccaneers' 30-yard line, missing a pair of field goals and losing the ball on downs. But Leftwich found Smith in the end zone for the go-ahead score early in the fourth quarter, and Jacksonville's defense kept the Buccaneers scoreless in the second half.

BUCCANEERS SEASON TICKET WAITING LIST REACHES 110,000

The Tampa Bay Buccaneers recently announced that their season ticket waiting list has reached 110,000. In only its fourth season of existence, the Buccaneers waiting list already ranks as the third-highest in the NFL, behind only the Green Bay Packers and the Washington Redskins.

The Buccaneers, who opened Raymond James Stadium during the 1998 season, have sold out all 60 games (preseason, regular season and postseason) since its opening. Tampa Bay boasts a 35-15 record in the regular season and postseason at Raymond James Stadium.

* Spent one full season on injured reserve

The following were members of the 1987 replacement team fielded during the NFLPA players strike. Games played and started are listed in parentheses. The totals of Ray Criswell, Brian Gant, Charles Gladman, Steve Holloway, Paul Tripoli and Kevin Walker, who were on the roster subsequent to the strike, and Dwayne Dixon, who previously played with the Bucs in 1984, are listed on the main roster: RB Greg Boone (2,0); OG Rufus Brown (2,0); WR Steve Carter (3,1); DE Walter Carter (2,1); DE Mike Clark (3,3); DB Torin Clark (2,2); DB Ivory Curry (3,2); DB Jeff George (2,1); DE Roy Harris (3,2); OT Dave Heffernan (2,0); QB Mike Hold (2,0); OG Jim Huddleston (1,1); OG John Hunt (1,0); WR David Jackson (1,0); LB Cam Jacobs (3,0); OG David Jordan (3,3); DB Tim King (3,2); RB Dan Land (3,2); LB Fred McCallister (3,3); TE Jeff Modestitt (1,0); LB Sankar Montoute (3,3); NT Fred Nordgren (3,3); OG Paul O'Connor (2,2); DB Lee Paige (3,0); LB Leon Pennington (3,0); C Chuck Pitcock (2,2); OG Donald Pumphrey (3,3); DB Marcus Quinn (3,3); DE James Ramey (3,0); QB John Reaves (2,2); RB Harold Ricks (3,1); DE Charles Riggins (3,0); WR Stanley Shakespeare (1,0); OT Reggie Smith (3,3); WR Eric Streater (3,3); PK Van Tiffin (3,0); LB Pat Teague (1,1); RB Derrick Thomas (1,0); DE Calvin Turner (3,0); LB Miles Turpin (3,1); WR Herkie Walls (2,2); TE Arthur Wells (3,0); FB Adrian Wright (3,3); QB Jim Zorn (1,1).

BUCCANEER PLAYOFF HISTORY

1979 NFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME TAMPA BAY 24, PHILADELPHIA 17 TAMPA STADIUM, DECEMBER 29, 1979

The first foray into the postseason was a successful one for the Tampa Bay franchise, which reached the playoffs in just its fourth year of existence. After winning the NFC Central with a 10-6 record, the Buccaneers faced Philadelphia in the Divisional Playoff round after the Eagles had downed Chicago a week earlier. Tampa Bay used a stingy defense (227 yards allowed) and the relentless running of Ricky Bell to prevail 24-17 in front of a home crowd of 71,402. The Buccaneers opened the game with a methodical 18-play, 80-yard march that drained over nine minutes off the clock. On his way to a 142-yard rushing performance, Bell ran on exactly half of the drive's plays, gaining 37 yards on nine totes, including a four-yard scoring burst around right end. Neither team advanced significantly on its next possession, but Philadelphia moved into field goal range early in the second quarter. After a successful fake field goal run was nullified by a delay-of-game penalty on the Eagles, K Tony Franklin came up short on a 52-yard attempt. Taking over at its own 35, Tampa Bay saw a 25-yard run by Bell called back due to holding but immediately compensated with a 34-yard pass from QB Doug Williams to WR Larry Mucker. Williams later fired a 26-yard pass to WR Isaac Hagins and an apparent TD toss to TE Jimmie Giles, but Giles was ruled to not have possession and the Bucs settle for a 40-yard field goal. Before the intermission, Tampa Bay was able to extend its lead to 17 thanks to a big play by the defense. NT Randy Crowder's fumble recovery at the Eagles' four-yard line just two plays after Tampa Bay's field goal set up a second Buccaneer touchdown, though it took four plays to cover that short distance. After an incomplete pass and two Bell runs for three yards, Buccaneer Head Coach John McKay elected to send Bell through the line one more time on fourth down and the third-year back followed a block by left tackle Darryl Carlton to reach paydirt. Philadelphia did manage to get on the board before halftime when LB Jerry Robinson intercepted a Williams pass at the Buccaneers' 48 and returned it 37 yards to the 11. Two plays later, Jaworski hooked up with WR Charles Smith in the end zone to cut the Buc lead to 17-7. Philly then opened the third quarter with a 45-yard field goal drive aided by WR Harold Carmichael's tackle-breaking 39-yard reception and concluded by Franklin's 42-yard kick. The Bucs and Eagles then traded two more punts each to run out the period.

On its second possession of the fourth quarter, Tampa Bay got what proved to be the decisive points when Williams hit Giles on a three-yard scoring pass that capped a 57-yard drive. Bell provided the key play of the march with a 26-yard run around left tackle on third-and-two from the Philadelphia 49. Philadelphia answered on its next possession with a gritty 80-yard drive, twice keeping possession on fourth-down completions by QB Ron Jaworski. After a 13-yarder to Smith on fourth-and-11 from the 50-yard line, Jaworski then found Carmichael for a 37-yard TD. Following an unsuccessful onside-kick attempt, Philadelphia forced a Buccaneer three-and-out and went on one last drive in the final two minutes. Jaworski's fourth-down incompletion from the Buc 45 effectively ended the game.

1979 NFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

TAMPA STADIUM, JANUARY 6, 1980

In the first NFC Championship Game to be decided without either team scoring a touchdown, host Tampa Bay fell 9-0 to the Los Angeles Rams. In a reversal of the elements that brought the Buccaneers victory one week before in the franchise's first playoff game, Tampa Bay was held to 177 net yards of offense and surrendered to a pounding Rams running game that racked up 216 yards on 53 carries. Three Buccaneer passers were limited to just five completions in 27 attempts and Tampa Bay did not penetrate L.A. territory until midway through the third quarter. Neither team scored in the first quarter, though Los Angeles threatened twice. On its second drive of the game, L.A. advanced to the Buccaneer 18 thanks to two runs and one reception by RB Cullen Bryant for a combined 30 yards. However, fellow RB Wendell Tyler then fumbled on first-and-10 at the 18, with Buccaneer LB Richard Wood recovering. After a Tampa Bay punt, the Rams embarked on another drive deep into Buc territory, mostly on alternating runs by Bryant and Tyler. Tyler got the call on third-and-goal from the one on the final play of the first period but was stopped short by Buc DE Wally Chambers. On the first play of the second quarter, K Frank Corral opened the scoring with a 19-yard field goal. A combined five punts later, Los Angeles took over at its own 38 with just under six minutes to play in the half. Using five of those minutes, Los Angeles advanced 58 yards on 10 plays, the largest chunk coming on a drive-opening 22-yard completion from QB Vince Ferragamo to TE Charlie Young. When Buc LB Dewey Selmon stopped Young for a four-yard gain on third-and-five from the Bucs' eight, the Rams were forced into a other field goal try, this one a successful 21-yarder. In the final minute of the first half, Tampa Bay drove nearly to midfield but Williams was interception in L.A. territory by LB Jim Youngblood. The Rams took a 6-0 lead into halftime after controlling the ball for almost 21 of the game's first 30 minutes. Neither team scored in the third quarter, though the Rams' Corral tried a 37-yard field goal that sailed wide left. The Los Angeles drive had stalled when S Cedric Brown tracked Tyler down in the backfield for a five-yard loss from the Bucs' 15. After a pair of punts, Tampa Bay made its first move into the Los Angeles half of the field when RB Jerry Eckwood threw a 42-yard option pass to WR Larry Mucker and Mucker was pulled down at the 24. However, QB Mike Rae, seeing his first playoff action in place of starter Doug Williams, threw incomplete passes on third and fourth down. Still trailing by just six points, the Buccaneers stiffened defensively on the ensuing possession. Wood stopped Tyler for two-yards on third-and-three then dropped him for a one-yard loss on fourth-and-one at the Bucs' 27-yard line. After the Bucs were forced to punt again, Los Angeles made the game's final dent on the scoreboard, driving 45 yards on eight plays to set up Corral's third short three-pointer, a 23-yarder. A 13-yard run by Tyler and a 12-yarder by Bryant keyed the march. WR Isaac Hagins returned the ensuing kickoff to Tampa Bay's 35-yard line then hauled in a 25-yard pass from Rae, but Rae's fourth-down throw to Mucker fell incomplete in the end zone.

DALLAS 38, TAMPA BAY 0
TEXAS STADIUM, JANUARY 2, 1982

The Buccaneers won a thrilling showdown with Detroit in the last week of the regular season to capture the NFC Central crown but, for the second time in a row, failed to score in the resulting playoff game. Dallas ran for 212 yards and four touchdowns on 46 carries and held Tampa Bay to 222 net yards of offense in a 38-0 whitewash. Buccaneer QB Doug Williams was also sacked four times and intercepted four times as Dallas scored 28 second-half points. The first quarter, however, was scoreless as Tampa Bay repelled several Cowboy scoring chances. After an unsuccessful opening drive for the Bucs, Dallas reached Tampa Bay's 40-yard line but stalled when LBs Cecil Johnson and Andy Hawkins broke up a near completion from QB Danny White to TE Doug Cosbie on third-and-nine. Williams was intercepted by CB Dennis Thurman in Buccaneer territory a few plays later, but the Buc defense tipped away two passes and stopped RB Tony Dorsett for a four-yard loss to force a quick punt. Thurman promptly intercepted another Williams offering three plays later, giving Dallas possession at the Bucs' 47. A two-yard fourth-down run by FB Ron Springs and two third-down completions by White preserved a drive that bled into the second quarter and eventually ended in White's nine-yard scoring pass to WR Tony Hill. The Bucs appeared to be responding on their next possession when a 20-yard pass from Williams to RB James Owens sparked a drive that reached Dallas' 21. However, Tampa Bay was penalized 28 yards on second-and-six when Williams was flagged for intentional grounding while trying to avoid a strong rush from DE Ed 'Too Tall' Jones. The drive ended in a punt one play later. Dallas added a 21-yard field goal drive after a short Buccaneer punt, giving the Cowboys a 10-0 halftime advantage. That lead was quickly extended after the intermission when Dallas put together a quick 80-yard touchdown drive to open the third period. Dorsett scrambled for consecutive gains of 25 and 26 yards on short passes and RB James Jones ran six yards off right guard for the score. S Michael Downs picked off a Williams pass later in the third quarter and returned it 21 yards to Tampa Bay's 33, setting up a Dorsett five-yard TD run. On the Bucs' next play, Williams was hit by DT John Dutton, leading to an interception by Ed

Jones. James Jones converted that turnover into a five-yard touchdown run after Dorsett had zipped for 21 yards on first down. On a drive beginning in the final seconds of the third quarter, Tampa Bay made its deepest thrust into Dallas territory on the strength of a 75-yard reception by TE Jimmie Giles. Giles was pulled down at the Dallas five, but a sack and a three-yard loss by RB Jerry Eckwood led to a fourth-and-goal from the nine. Under pressure from LB Anthony Dickerson, Williams missed Giles in the end zone. Dallas scored its final touchdown on the ensuing possession, driving 90 yards in nine-and-a-half minutes before RB Timmy Newsome punched it in from one-yard out. The Bucs' last drive included a 23-yard Williams-to-Giles hookup but ended on a failed fake punt attempt.

1982 NFC FIRST ROUND PLAYOFF GAME DALLAS 30, TAMPA BAY 17 TEXAS STADIUM, JANUARY 9, 1983

For the second straight season, Tampa Bay's playoff road began and ended in Dallas, where they had hoped to avenge a 38-0 drubbing from the 1981 post-season. Though Tampa Bay actually led 17-16 entering the final quarter, Dallas once again moved on at the Bucs' expense, scoring twice in the fourth quarter to earn a 30-17 win. The Buccaneers were outgained in total net yards by a wide 456-218 margin and had possession of the ball for less than 20 minutes of the game, but stayed close with three takeaways, five sacks and a pair of long touchdowns. Dallas cracked the scoreboard first with a 33-yard Rafael Septien field goal in the first quarter set up by Dexter Clinkscales interception at midfield. After a Buccaneer punt, Septien hit another field goal from identical distance, this one keyed by a 26-yard pass from QB Danny White to WR Butch Johnson that had a 14-yard personal foul tacked onto the end of it. Tampa Bay took its first lead of the game in the second quarter thanks to a big play on defense. With Dallas driving well into Buccaneer territory, White fumbled on third-and-six and Tampa Bay LB Hugh Green recovered the loose ball and ran 60 yards for the only defensive touchdown in Buccaneer playoff history. Dallas promptly moved back into the Bucs' half of the field on its next possession as White again hooked up with Johnson for 23 yards and found WR Tony Hill open for a 14-yard gain. The Buccaneer defense came up with another big play, however, as S Mark Cooney redirected another White aerial and returned it 50 yards to the Dallas 27. RB James Wilder added an 11 yard run from there, but the Bucs were forced to kick a 32-yard field goal when CB Ron Fellows broke up a pass intended for WR Gerald Carter in the end zone. Dallas regained the lead before halftime by putting together a 10-play, 75-yard drive culminating in White's six-yard TD pass to RB Ron Springs. Key plays on that drive included a 21-yard catch by WR Drew Pearson and a 13-yarder by TE Doug Cosbie. The third quarter was dominated by a pair of long drives. Dallas opened the period with an 84-yard march on 17 plays that ended in Septien's 19-yard field goal. The Cowboys converted four third downs on the drive but missed the fifth when DE Lee Roy Selmon stopped RB Tony Dorsett for no gain at the one. After interceptions by Dallas' Dennis Thurman and Tampa Bay's Neal Colzie, the Bucs countered with an 80-yard touchdown drive on six plays. WR Gordon Jones got more than half of that on third-and-eight from midfield when he caught a 49-yard scoring pass, giving Tampa Bay a 17-16 lead. The Bucs then quickly got the ball back to start the fourth quarter thanks to two sacks of White, one by Selmon, but S Monty Hunter then turned in the game's pivotal play, intercepting a Williams throw intended for WR Kevin House and returning it 19 yards for a go-ahead score. Dallas added an 81-yard drive later in the period, scoring a clinching touchdown on White's 10-yard pass to RB Timmy Newsome. Tampa Bay's offense then stalled and Dallas converted two first downs to run out the final two minutes.

1997 NFC WILD CARD PLAYOFF GAME TAMPA BAY 20, DETROIT 10

HOULIHAN'S STADIUM, DECEMBER 28, 1997

In the team's first playoff game in Tampa Bay since the 1979 season, the Buccaneers dominated Detroit early, rushing to a 20-0 third quarter lead before holding on for the 20-10 Wild Card victory. Lion RB Barry Sanders, who came into the game in possession of a 14-game streak of 100-yard rushing efforts and just the third 2,000-yard season in league history, was contained spectacularly by a swarming Buc defense, gaining just 65 yards and notching no carry longer than 15 yards. After two failed first-quarter drives for each team, the Bucs made the initial strike with a 40-yard field goal drive keyed by QB Trent Dilfer's scrambling, 23-yard completion to WR Karl Williams on third-and-one. Detroit's next drive stalled, too, but the Lions almost regained possession when Williams muffed the resulting punt. However, the ball bounced through several Detroit hands and out of bounds at the Tampa Bay 11, instead setting up the longest drive in Buccaneer playoff history. Fueled by a pair of first-round rookies—RB Warrick Dunn gained 29 yards on seven runs and catches and WR Reidel Anthony caught passes of 10 and 20 yards—the Bucs marched down to a third-and-seven at the Detroit nine-yard line. From there, Dilfer fired a laser over the middle to WR Horace Copeland in the back of the end zone. Detroit's next attempt to climb back into the game was quickly turned back when CB Anthony Parker intercepted a Scott Mitchell pass at the Lions' 39 and returned it to the 20. Three plays later, PK Michael Husted nailed his second three-pointer, this one from a Buccaneer playoff-record 42 yards out. Detroit moved into Buccaneer territory on its next possession but was stonewalled at the 45 when a fourth-and-one pass attempt fell incomplete under heavy pressure from LB Rufus Porter. The Bucs struck first again in the second half when, after a Detroit punt, Dilfer marched his squad 53 yards for a touchdown. FB Mike Alstott began the drive with a seven-yard run then finished it with a 31-yard pinballing burst up the middle that turned into the longest carry in Buc playoff history and Tampa Bay's final touchdown. Detroit's next drive lasted 11 plays as Sanders finally got untracked for consecutive runs of 11 and 15 yards, but another fourth-down pass attempt, this one from the Buccaneers' eight-yard line, fell incomplete under significant pressure from the defensive line. The Lions did manage a field goal before the third period ended, then tacked on a touchdown with their first drive of the final quarter, marching 82 yards behind back-up QB Frank Reich. On the ensuing kickoff, a Buccaneer penalty forced Tampa Bay to start at its own five-yard line and the team quickly found itself in a third-and-five situation from the 10. Any developing thoughts of a Detroit comeback were promptly denied, however, when Dilfer hit WR Robb Thomas on a crossing pattern that turned into a 52-yard gain.

The Buccaneers trailed by just six points, 13-7, entering the final period but couldn't pull off the upset in Lambeau Field in a Divisional Playoff game as the Packers held on to a 21-7 win. Tampa Bay actually had the first scoring opportunity of the game in the opening quarter when a 51-yard drive positioned them at the Green Bay 25. However, DT Bob Kuberski blocked PK Michael Husted's 43-yard field goal attempt and the Packers took over at their own 33. That preceded a 67-yard, seven-play touchdown drive for the Pack that began with a 17-yard Brett Favre-to-TE Mark Chmura pass and ended similarly with a three-yard Favre-Chmura TD hookup. The Bucs' ensuing drive was much like the previous one, covering 50 yards and reaching the Packers' 25-yard line, thanks in large part to a 17-yard pass from QB Trent Dilfer to WR Horace Copeland on third-and-nine. This time, a potential 43-yard field goal was eschewed in favor of a fake attempt, but TE John Davis was stopped for no gain after taking a shovel pass from holder Steve Walsh. The tide seemed to turn again in the Bucs' favor two plays later when DT Warren Sapp stripped RB Dorsey Levens of the ball while making the tackle and recovered the fumble to give Tampa Bay possession at the Packers' 30. Unfortunately for the visitors, Green Bay's defense held strong, forcing another ill-fated field goal attempt, this one wasted by a botched snap. Sapp, who applied constant pressure in the Green Bay backfield all day, recording three sacks, nearly got the ball back for Tampa Bay when he got to Favre and stripped the ball again on third down, but the Packers recovered and punted away. In the half's final two minutes, Green Bay added to its lead with a pair of field goals, the second one set up by CB Tyrone Williams' interception of a Dilfer pass that went through WR Robb Thomas' hands. The Packers opened the second half with a strong drive into Buccaneer territory, but S John Lynch and CB Donnie Abraham combined to turn them away when Lynch hit Favre as he was passing and Abraham made a diving interception of the resulting errant pass. The Bucs then embarked on a 94-yard drive, the longest ever in Buccaneer playoff history, to score a touchdown and pull within six. On third-and-11 from their own five-yard line, the Bucs got out of trouble when Dilfer hit a streaking Reidel Anthony on the sideline for a 52-yard gain.

Dilfer then found TE Dave Moore for a 28-yard gain over the middle, setting up FB Mike Alstott's six-yard TD run around left end. Packer RB Dorsey Levens matched that score near the beginning of the fourth quarter with a two-yard touchdown run, finishing off a drive that had been kept alive when WR Derrick Mayes' bobbled reception on third-and-18 fell into the crook of Mayes' leg for a 22-yard gain. Favre ran the ball in himself on the two-point conversion. The Bucs' next two drives ended in failed fourth downs, including a march set up by Abraham's second interception of the day.

RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM, JANUARY 15, 2000

The Bucs rallied from a 13-point deficit to stun the Redskins 14-13 before a delirious gathering of 65,835 at Raymond James Stadium. The win propelled the Bucs into the NFC Championship Game for the first time in two decades. Washington ushered the league's second-ranked offense into Tampa, but left with 157 total yards and no offensive TDs. After a scoreless first quarter, the Redskins struck first. Brett Conway booted a 28-yard FG, giving Washington a 3-0 lead that carried into the locker room. The Redskins then stretched their lead before many fans had returned to their seats. RB Brian Mitchell returned the second-half kickoff 100 yards for a TD. The return set an NFL postseason record and handed Washington a 10-0 lead. CB Darrell Green later picked off Shaun King, setting up Conway for a 48-yard FG. Washington led 13-0 and the natives were growing restless. But S John Lynch intercepted Redskins QB Brad Johnson late in the third quarter, igniting a fire under the Bucs' offense. King marched Tampa Bay to the Redskins 2, where FB Mike Alstott scored on a highlight-reel rumble, cutting Washington's lead to 13-7. Two series later, DE Steve White knocked the ball out of Johnson's hands. DT Warren Sapp recovered at the Redskins 32, setting up an acrobatic one-yard TD toss from King to TE John Davis. The Redskins got one more crack, but Dan Turk's errant snap on a 52-yard FG attempt with 1:17 left punched Tampa Bay's ticket to St. Louis.

1999 NFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME ST. LOUIS 11, TAMPA BAY 6 TRANS WORLD DOME, JANUARY 23, 2000

Tampa Bay held the high-powered Rams in check for nearly 60 minutes, but a late TD pass enabled St. Louis to escape with an 11-6 win before 66,496 at Trans World Dome. The win propelled the Rams to their second-ever Super Bowl berth. The Bucs jumped on the board quickly. DE Steve White intercepted NFL MVP Kurt Warner on the first play of the game, setting up the Tampa Bay offense at the St. Louis 20. Martin Gramatica booted a 25-yard FG, giving the Bucs a 3-0 lead. The Rams bounced right back, marching 74 yards on 16 plays before settling for a 24-yard FG by Jeff Wilkins. St. Louis grabbed its first lead thanks to a Bucs miscue. C Tony Mayberry snapped the ball over QB Shaun King's head and King knocked the ball out of the end zone for a safety. Wilkins missed a 44-yard FG after the ensuing free kick. The Bucs marched to the Rams 41 late in the second quarter, but CB Todd Lyght picked off King to preserve the 5-3 lead at the half. Tampa Bay reclaimed the lead at the outset of the third quarter when Gramatica nailed a 23-yarder. The Rams tried to counter but LB Hardy Nickerson intercepted Warner at the Bucs 2. On the Rams' next possession, CB Brian Kelly picked off Warner. But the turnover tide turned with eight minutes left. Rams CB Dre Bly intercepted King and returned it to midfield. Six plays later, Warner finally struck gold, lofting a 30-yard TD strike to WR Ricky Proehl. The two-point attempt failed. Tampa Bay drove to the Rams 35 but stalled with 34 seconds left.

2000 NFC WILD CARD PLAYOFF GAME PHILADELPHIA 21, TAMPA BAY 3 VETERANS STADIUM, DECEMBER 31, 2000

Tampa Bay remained winless on the road in the postseason (0-5) as Philadelphia dominated the Bucs in a 21-3 victory at Veterans Stadium. The Bucs struck first on a 29-yard field goal by K Martin Gramatica early in the second quarter, but the Eagles defense proved stingy for the rest of the contest. Tampa Bay mustered 199 total yards, including just 50 on the ground, and was held to 3-of-13 on third down conversions. The Philadelphia offense, led by QB Donovan McNabb, scored all the points it would need on two drives late in the first half. McNabb kept the ball on a quarterback draw for a five-yard score with 3:21 left following a fumble by Bucs QB Shaun King. King was sacked by Philadelphia DE Hugh Douglas, putting the Eagles in great field position at the Tampa Bay 15-yard line. McNabb then extended the lead to 14-3 with a five-yard scoring strike to WR Na Brown with 12 seconds remaining before intermission. After a scoreless third quarter, the Eagles put the game out of reach on McNabb's second touchdown pass of the day, a two-yarder to TE Jeff Thomason early in the final period. McNabb completed passes to 10 different players on 24-of-33 attempts for 161 yards, and also rushed for 32 yards on eight carries. Eagles RB Chris Warren aided the ground attack, gaining 82 yards on 21 carries. Bucs QB Shaun King passed for 171 yards, including six completions to WR Keyshawn Johnson for 106 yards. But the rushing game was shut down, with FB Mike Alstott totaling 42 yards and RB Warrick Dunn gaining just one yard on eight carries.

2001 NFC WILD CARD PLAYOFF GAME PHILADELPHIA 31, TAMPA BAY 9 VETERANS STADIUM, JANUARY 12, 2002

Philadelphia controlled the running game and took advantage of four Bucs' turnovers as it ended Tampa Bay's season for the second consecutive year in a 31-9 victory at Veterans Stadium in an NFC Wild Card contest. The Bucs remained winless on the road in the postseason (0-6) and were handed a first round playoff loss for the second straight year in what would prove to be Tony Dungy's final game as head coach. FS Dexter Jackson intercepted Eagles QB Donovan McNabb on the opening series, leading to a 36-yard field goal by K Martin Gramatica. The Eagles pulled even on a David Akers FG and TE Chad Lewis gave Philadelphia the lead for good on a 16-yard TD reception from McNabb. Gramatica cut the lead to 10-6 with his second three-pointer, but McNabb found RB Duce Staley for a 23-yard TD pass in the final minute of the first half for a 17-6 lead. Gramatica again closed the gap with a 27-yard FG on the final play of the half, drawing the Bucs to within 17-9 at the break. But the Eagles dominated the second half, adding a 25-yard TD scamper by RB Correll Buckhalter and a 59-yard interception return for a touchdown by S Damon Moore in the closing minutes. Tampa Bay mustered just 258 yards of total offense, including 63 on the ground. QB Brad Johnson threw four interceptions and the Bucs converted on only 5-of-12 third down attempts. McNabb, who passed for 194 yards, added 57 yards rushing.

RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM, JANUARY 12, 2003

Tampa Bay advanced to the NFC Championship Game for the third time in club history (also 1979 and 1999) behind a suffocating defense and pair of touchdown passes by QB Brad Johnson as the Buccaneers defeated San Francisco at Raymond James Stadium. Tampa Bay jumped out to a 28-6 halftime lead, reaching the end zone on three consecutive possessions in the first half. FB Mike Alstott opened the scoring with a two-yard run and added his second scoring run with less than one minute remaining in the first half. Sandwiched in between Alstott's two scores were scoring strikes to WR Joe Jurevicius from 20 yards and TE Rickey Dudley's 12-yard score in the second quarter. Johnson, who returned to the starting lineup after missing the last two regular season games with a right lower back contusion, completed 15-of-31 passes for 196 yards with two touchdowns and one interception. Tampa Bay's top-ranked defense forced five turnovers, including three interceptions of 49ers QB Jeff Garcia. San Francisco, which entered the game averaging 22.9 points per contest in the regular season and put up 39 points in its Wild Card win over the New York Giants, were limited to just two first half field goals and 228 total yards. The Bucs' defense did not allow the 49ers to score a touchdown for the first time in 50 games (counting postseason). LB Derrick Brooks, the 2002 NFL Defensive Player of the Year, posted seven tackles, one INT and a sack to pace the Bucs' defense. Tampa Bay's secondary limited WR Terrell Owens to just four catches for 35 yards as CB Ronde Barber recorded an interception and CB Dwight Smith added an interception and a fumble recovery on special teams.

2002 NFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME TAMPA BAY 27, EAGLES 10 VETERANS STADIUM, JANUARY 19, 2003

Tampa Bay advanced to its first Super Bowl appearance in club history with a 27-10 victory over the Philadelphia Eagles in the final game at Veterans Stadium. The Buccaneers, under first-year head coach Jon Gruden, forced three Eagles turnovers en route to securing Tampa Bay's first road win in postseason history. CB Ronde Barber paced an outstanding defensive effort with a club-record 92-yard INT return for a TD, four passes defended, three tackles, one sack and a forced fumble. Tampa Bay built a 17-10 halftime lead behind QB Brad Johnson, who completed 20-of-33 passes for 259 yards with one TD and one INT. On the game's opening kickoff, Philadelphia KR Brian Mitchell raced 70 yards to set up RB Duce Staley's 20-yard run for a 7-0 lead. The Buccaneers responded when K Martin Gramatica drilled a club postseason-record 48-yard field goal to cut the deficit to 7-3. Late in the first quarter, Brad Johnson connected with WR Joe Jurevicius for a 71-yard completion—the second-longest in team postseason history—to set up FB Mike Alstott's one-yard TD run for a 10-7 lead. K David Akers tied the contest with a 30-yard FG, but Brad Johnson connected on a nine-yard TD to WR Keyshawn Johnson for the go-ahead score. The Bucs' defense stifled the Eagles' offensive attack in the second half and allowed just 30 yards and two first downs in the third quarter. Tampa Bay added 10 more points as Gramatica hit a 27-yard FG in the third quarter and Barber punctuated the win with the first-ever interception return in club history late in the fourth quarter.

 QUALCOMM STADIUM, JANUARY 26, 2003

Tampa Bay, behind a suffocating defense, set Super Bowl records with five interceptions, including a Super Bowl record-setting three for touchdowns, as the Buccaneers defeated the Oakland Raiders 48-21 to capture Super Bowl XXXVII at Qualcomm Stadium for the first NFL championship in team history. Jon Gruden became the youngest head coach at age 39 to win a Super Bowl as the Buccaneers' top-ranked defense stifled the Raiders and the league's No. 1 ranked offense. S Dexter Jackson earned Most Valuable Player honors for his two first-half interceptions and CB Dwight Smith returned a pair of second-half interceptions from 44 and 50 yards for TDs. LB Derrick Brooks added a 44-yard INT return for a score. The Buccaneers' defense held the Raiders to 269 total yards, 19 rushing yards and 11 total first downs. Tampa Bay's defensive line added five sacks, including two courtesy of DE Simeon Rice. Raiders QB Rich Gannon, the league's Most Valuable Player, completed 24-of-44 passes for 272 yards with two TDs and a Super Bowl record five INTs. Gannon, who threw just 10 INTs in 618 passing attempts during the regular season, finished with a 48.9 passer rating as Tampa Bay held Oakland to 62 total yards in the first half, the second-fewest in Super Bowl history. Oakland took a 3-0 lead on its initial possession with a 40-yard field goal by K Sebastian Janikowski. But that lead was short-lived as the Buccaneers built a 20-3 halftime advantage on a pair of K Martin Gramatica field goals and a two-yard TD run by FB Mike Alstott and a five-yard TD reception by WR Keenan McCardell. The Buccaneers scored a pair of touchdowns in the third quarter on McCardell's eight-yard scoring pass from QB Brad Johnson, who completed 18-of-34 passes for 215 yards with two TDs and one INT, and Smith's 44-yard INT return for a 34-3 advantage. RB Michael Pittman posted a season-high 29 carries for 124 yards. Oakland found the end zone for the first time late in the third quarter and added two more TDs, the last by All-Pro WR Jerry Rice from 48 yards out to cut the lead to 34-21. But the Buccaneers clinched their first championship in 27 seasons with two defensive scores in the final 1:18, courtesy of Brooks, the NFL's Defensive Player of the Year, and Smith's score with just two seconds remaining.

SIDELINES

JOHN MCKAY

John McKay, known for his unprecedented success on the football field and his wit off of it, died on Sunday, June 10, 2001 from kidney failure due to complications from diabetes at the age of 77. With his passing, the Buccaneer family lost the man who led the franchise from its very beginning.

McKay spent more than 25 years overall as a head coach on the collegiate and professional level. The legendary coach compiled an overall head coaching record of 171-128-9 (.572). In 25 seasons as a head coach, McKay's teams won a college conference or professional division championship 11 times and advanced to postseason play on 12 occasions.

McKay was named the first head coach in Buccaneers history on October 31, 1975. He coached the Buccaneers for nine seasons (1976-84) and compiled a 44-88-1 record. In just the franchise's fourth season (1979), he led Tampa Bay to an NFC Central Division championship, a playoff win over Philadelphia and the club's first appearance in the NFC Championship Game. McKay also coached the lone Hall of Famer in Buccaneer history, DE Lee Roy Selmon, the team's first overall draft pick in 1976.

He guided the Buccaneers to consecutive playoff appearances in 1981 and 1982. McKay then led Tampa Bay to its second NFC Central Division championship in 1981. He was a part of the fran-ships, eight Rose Bowl appearances (including five victories), 14 consecutive winning campaigns and two National Coach of the Year honors (1962 and 1972). He also tutored two Heisman Trophy winners in Mike Garrett (1965) and O.J. Simpson (1968). McKay produced outstanding players at nearly every position at USC, including RB Ricky Bell, FB Sam Cunningham, QB Pat Haden, WR Lynn Swann, LB Richard Wood, OT Ron Yary and TE Charles Young. During his last four seasons at USC (1972-75), he also served as the school's athletic director.

In just the franchise's fourth season (1979), McKay led Tampa Bay to an NFC Central Division championship, a playoff win over Philadelphia and the club's first appearance in the NFC Championship Game.

McKay served as an assistant at USC in 1959 before being named the Trojans head coach in 1960. He was also an assistant coach at Oregon from 1950-1959. McKay played one season as a defensive back at Purdue before transferring to Oregon, where he lettered for three seasons and earned All-American honorable mention and All-Coast first-team honors. Prior to attending college, he served in the Army Air Corps in World War II. McKay was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1988 and into the Rose Bowl Hall of Fame in 1991. He was also a member of the 1994 inaugural class of USC's Athletic Hall of Fame.

Prior to joining Tampa Bay, McKay coached at the University of Southern California for 16 seasons from 1960-75. He led the Trojans to four national championships and a 127-40-8 record (.760). McKay coached 40 first-team All-Americans during his 16 years.

McKay was born in Everettville, West Virginia. He attended Shinnston High School (WV), where he was an all-state running back and a star guard in basketball.

In only his third season as head coach at USC in 1962, McKay guided the Trojans to his first national crown. He followed by capturing national championships in the 1967, 1972 and 1974 seasons. His four national titles ranks tied with Notre Dame's Frank Leahy for second all-time, trailing only Alabama's Paul "Bear" Bryant's six championships. In addition, his resume at USC includes three undefeated seasons, nine conference cham-

He and his wife Corky (the former Nancy Jean Hunter) had four children, sons John and Rich and daughters Michele and Terri. Rich now serves as President and General Manager of the Atlanta Falcons after nine seasons (1995-03) as Tampa Bay's General Manager. John served as General Manager of the 2001 NFL Champion Los Angeles Xtreme and also played wide receiver for USC from 1972-74 and for Tampa Bay from 1976-78.

LEE ROY SELMON

Lee Roy Selmon became the first Buccaneer player ever inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on July 29, 1995. The Buccaneers' first draft choice in 1976, Selmon proved to be the most outstanding player to date in team history. Drafted out of Oklahoma where he won both the Outland and Lombardi trophies during his senior season, Selmon went on to become the cornerstone of the Buccaneer franchise for nearly a decade.

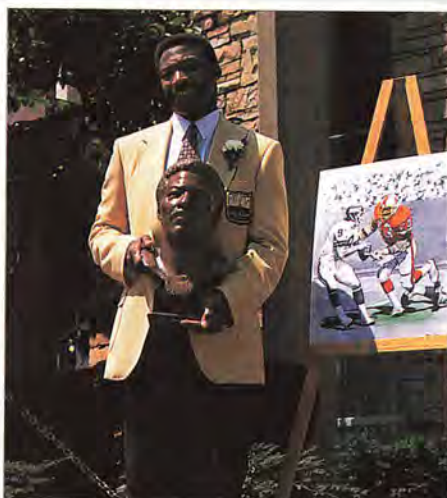

A member of eight All-America teams while with the Sooners, Selmon was an even greater professional. The Buccaneers' all-time career sack leader (78.5), Selmon anchored a ferocious defense which led the team to its first-ever NFC Central Division Championship in 1979.

Selmon managed to establish numerous team records despite having his career prematurely shortened due to a herniated disk suffered at the end of the 1984 season. His lengthy list of Buccaneer records include: career sacks (78.5), sacks in a season (13) and career fumbles caused (28.5). In addition, he was named NFL Defensive Player of the Year in 1979 and NFC Defensive Lineman of the Year by the NFL Players Association four times (1979-80, 1982-83). His number 63 became the first and only jersey retired by the Buccaneers on September 7, 1986.

Selmon's on-the-field contributions were equalled only by his generosity off the field. He was a perennial contender for the NFL Man of the Year and the Byron "Whizzer" White Award for humanitarian service. Since his retirement, Selmon has remained highly-visible in community affairs. In addition to occupying a seat on the board of the Tampa Sports Authority, Selmon took on the responsibility of building the University of South Florida's football program. Selmon served as Associate Athletic Director at USF from August of 1994 until being named Athletic Director in June 2001. Selmon, who held that spot until 2004, was entrusted with the primary task of procuring funds for the University's successful efforts to form a football team.

Selmon was born and raised in Eufaula, Okla. He has five brothers and three sisters, including Dewey, who played for the Bucs from 1976-80, and Lucious, who served as the linebackers coach for the Jacksonville Jaguars. Lee Roy and his wife, Claybra, have three children, Brandy, Lee Roy, Jr. and Christopher.

TAMPA BAY BUCCANEERS SUPER BOWL RING

The fourteen-karat yellow gold ring incorporates the Vince Lombardi Super Bowl Trophy, an original Tiffany design featuring a football in kicking position, which the company has produced for every Super Bowl since its inception in 1967. In the ring's depiction, the trophy base is set with three rectangular modified brilliant diamonds, the football is studded with a marquise diamond, and 50 sparkling round diamonds set in white gold surround the trophy. The ring's bezel reads 'Tampa Bay Buccaneers World Champions.'

Details of Super Bowl XXXVII and the Buccaneers are commemorated on the sides of the ring. On one side, the cities of the contending teams (Tampa Bay and Oakland) appear, along with the final game score (48-21), date and place of Super Bowl

XXXVII (January 26, 2003, in San Diego, Calif.), and the Super Bowl and NFL shield logos. The ring's other side displays the player's name engraved on a banner and captures the team's undaunted spirit with flag logo, palm trees, and a seagoing pirate ship reminiscent of the Buccaneers' own ship that is a fan favorite at home games.

The ring reflects the close collaboration between Tiffany and the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in capturing the rich symbolism of the Super Bowl, the winning team, and the NFL. The awarding of the Super Bowl rings to the victorious Buccaneers followed the presentation of the Vince Lombardi trophy presented to the team on Super Bowl Sunday.

In addition to creating the Vince Lombardi trophy, Tiffany also creates the Pete Rozelle trophy presented to the Most Valuable Player of the Super Bowl game. Named for the late NFL Commissioner whose distinguished career spanned nearly 30 years, the trophy, a shooting star design handcrafted of sterling silver with vermeil, was first awarded in 1991 at Super Bowl XXV. The Pete Rozelle trophy was awarded to Tampa Bay's Dexter Jackson.

RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM

A new era in Tampa Bay sports opened on September 20, 1998, when the Tampa Bay Buccaneers defeated the Chicago Bears, 27-15, in the inaugural event at Raymond James Stadium. The culmination of three years of intense research, development and construction, Raymond James Stadium is a combination of the finest elements of modern stadium design and its own groundbreaking innovations. Referred to as 'The Crown Jewel of the NFL' by league insiders, the stadium's features are centered around one concept: enhancing the fan's experience at a Tampa Bay Buccaneers game.

Raymond James Stadium was designed by HOK Sports Facilities Group and constructed under the joint management of Huber, Hunt & Nichols and Metric Constructors. It is administered by the Tampa Sports Authority and includes among its tenants the Tampa Bay Buccaneers of the National Football League, the University of South Florida football team and college football's Outback Bowl.

The $168.5 million facility was financed by a half-cent sales tax for community investment purposes that was approved by voters on September 3, 1996. A Florida sales tax rebate also funded the stadium construction, as did a portion of a tourist development tax. The remainder of the stadium's finances were provided by Buccaneers Owner/President Malcolm Glazer. Bryan Glazer and Joel Glazer, team executive vice presidents, oversaw stadium design and were responsible for the development of the stadium's unique fan enhancements. The Tampa Bay Buccaneers hope you enjoy Raymond James Stadium throughout the 2004 NFL season and share in the bright future of the team, the stadium and the Tampa Bay community.

TICKET INFORMATION

For the fifth consecutive year, the Buccaneers have sold out Raymond James Stadium to season ticket holders. The Buccaneers Ticket Office is adding names to their season ticket waiting list, which currently has over 110,000 requests. The ticket office may be reached by phone at (813) 879-2827 or (800) 282-0683, over a TTY line for hearing-impaired guests, and via e-mail at buccaneerstickettoffice@buccaneers.nfl.com. Office hours are 8:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m., Monday through Friday.

Buccaneers single-game tickets can be found in four price ranges, (as shown by the accompanying stadium diagram.)

Raymond James Stadium is currently sold out through season ticket sales and most sections are not available on a game-by-game basis.

Should any single game tickets become available, they may be purchased through TicketMaster outlets, TicketMaster charge-by-phone, and online at TicketMaster.com. If tickets remain available on game day, they will be sold at the Raymond James Stadium box office at the south end of the stadium beginning three hours before kickoff.

AMENITIES AT RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM

GENERAL SEATING After 22 years of watching Buccaneer football from bench seating, Tampa Bay fans now comfortably settle into individual seats, measuring 19-21" wide and with 32-33" from one seat back to the next. Overall, Raymond James Stadium holds over 65,000 fans, 50,000 of which are in general seating. There are up to 600 wheelchair-accessible seats located in all areas, not just the end zone. Seats in all sections also feature cupholders.

CLUB SEATS Raymond James Stadium also has over 12,000 club seats, a modern feature that allows fans to experience Buccaneer games and entertain guests in maximum comfort. Club seats are extra-wide and padded and feature in-seat service and prime sideline locations. The seats are accessible from a luxurious, air-conditioned club level that houses restaurants, sports bars, video walls, lounge seating and additional views of the field.

LUXURY SUITES A total of 195 suites on three floors at mid-level along both sidelines offer absolutely the most luxurious setting to watch a Buccaneer game. Each suite has retractable glass windows, private bar and restroom and televisions that can carry other NFL action. The suites are accessible from private elevators.

CONCESSIONS Raymond James Stadium has over 550 points of sale for food, beverages and merchandise, a ratio of one point for every 126 seats. A wide variety of concessions will be available, from hot dogs and sodas to gourmet pizzas and cappuccino.

RESTROOMS/SERVICES Raymond James Stadium is equipped with 88 restroom locations and a total of 1,073 fixtures. That ratio of one fixture for every 81 fans is an immense improvement in comfort for Buccaneer fans. The ratio for women fans is one fixture for every 70 people, improved from 1 for every 129 in Houlihan's Stadium. There are also five first aid stations, with at least one on each level.

MEDIA FACILITIES The Raymond James Stadium press box seats up to 225 members of the media in a spacious, comfortable box on the west side upper suite level. A dining area featuring a multiple-screen video wall has been added, and the box is accessible from an elevator dedicated specifically to the media. The media entrance is located at Dock D on the southwest corner of the stadium.

ESCALATORS An added comfort feature in Raymond James Stadium is a total of 20 escalators. With a bank of four escalators located at each corner ramp and an additional four in the club lounge, Buccaneer fans will find it easier and quicker to navigate the stadium than ever before.

TRAFFIC CONTROL Patrons of events at Raymond James Stadium can be assured that their travel to and from the facility will be as time-efficient as possible. The stadium is outfitted with a comprehensive traffic control system that automatically assists with the progression of traffic in and around the stadium traffic area. The system is comprised of a traffic control center located adjacent to the Tampa Sports Authority offices on the ground level of the south end zone plaza. From there, a crew of over 50 uniformed officers will assist in easing traffic flow. In addition, the system is equipped with 10 cameras and a staff of four constantly monitoring each major intersection surrounding the stadium and altering traffic light cycles accordingly, as well as constant communication with a police and sheriff helicopter to further update present traffic conditions.

RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM

An instantly-recognizable Tampa Bay landmark, Raymond James Stadium includes some of the most unique stadium features in the world. It is a blend of modern design, classic appointments, state-of-the-art technology and historic influences that combine to create the most exciting and enjoyable game atmosphere in the National Football League. Some of the most extraordinary features include:

BUCCANEER COVE

In an effort to expand and enhance the overall game experience at Raymond James Stadium, the Tampa Bay Buccaneers constructed a $3 million pirate ship extravaganza called Buccaneer Cove. Located in the north end zone of the stadium, Buccaneer Cove encompasses 20,000 square feet and runs the entire length of the end zone concourse. The Cove features a weathered, two-story fishing village façade from which a wide variety of stadium concessions, ranging from standard fare to more authentic Tampa items, are offered. Scattered throughout the area are a variety of beach hut kiosks offering additional concessions and other game enhancements.

The centerpiece of Buccaneer Cove is the majestic, 103-foot long ship, an authentic replica of an early 1800s pirate ship, arguably one of the most recognizable stadium features in the world.

The most menacing aspect of the pirate ship is its massive 9'x7' skull and crossed swords facing the playing field which features huge, glowing red eyes and a mouth that breathes smoke. Additionally, eight cannons celebrate Buccaneer touchdowns by releasing thundering cannon fire, smoke, and pirate beads into the stands. The ship will also be complete with working rigging and a crew to raise and lower its huge 32'x50' sails.

Massive enough to be a striking image from any spot in the stadium, the majestic ship looms out over the the crowd in the north end zone.

- Ship Length.....103'
- Ship Weight 43 tons
- Ship Height.....78'
- Bow Detail 9'x7'
- Ship Width 32'
- Swords.....16' each

The ship was constructed over a two-month period using, among others, the following materials:

- 5.5 tones of concrete
- 14 tons of steel
- 700 yards of sails
- 1 mile of rigging
- 300 feet of rope
- 60 gallons of paint
- 64,000 linear feet of wood trim

The ship's dock serves as an interactive entertainment area from which patrons enjoy the most unique vantage point in the National Football League. Adding to the festive atmosphere is a larger-than-life interactive talking parrot that sits perched at the ship's stern.

All areas of Buccaneer Cove and the Ship's facilities are ADA disabled ramp accessible so that all fans can benefit from this unique setting. With a full menu of food and beverages, plentiful facilities and an excellent view of the action on the field, Buccaneer Cove is as animated as the 19th-century pirate village after which it is modeled.

Buccaneer Cove was designed by HOK Studio E and constructed by The Nassal Company.

BUCTION

BucVision, which features two massive videoboards at each end of Raymond James Stadium, is arguably the most sophisticated video and scoreboard system in the NFL.

The main attraction of BucVision is the sheer size of the two videoboards, each measuring 24 feet high by 92 feet wide, which is significantly larger than conventional NFL scoring systems.

BucVision is not only larger, it is more technologically advanced. In addition to viewing plays from three different angles at each end of the field, fans are also treated to highlights from up to six games simultaneously from around the NFL before and after Buccaneer games, essentially transforming Raymond James Stadium into the world's largest sports bar.

Operated by more than 30 technicians, the award-winning BucVision allows Tampa Bay to become the first professional team in any sport to show images through high-definition television (HDTV), the wide-screen television images which are revolutionizing the television industry. In addition to showing the network feeds, the system incorporates five in-house cameras that capture the festive atmosphere of Raymond James Stadium patrons.

The system also contains a crystal-clear sound system which enhances the gameday experience for general fans, club seat holders, and luxury suite patrons.

THE BEST IN THE NFL

Raymond James Stadium was rated as having the best turf in the National Football League, according to a biennial survey conducted in 2002 of the league's players. The home of the Buccaneers has also ranked first in the four previous surveys — 1994, 1996, 1998 and 2000. Tampa Bay has played in Raymond James Stadium since the start of the 1998 campaign.

WHO IS RAYMOND JAMES?

There are those who claim to have met Raymond James at one of our corporate events... Which is odd because the firm wasn't named after just one man. It's simply a combination of two names, Robert James, who founded the firm in 1962, and Edward Raymond, who sold his firm to Bob James in 1964. The James family is still very much a part of Raymond James. Bob's son, Tom, is the Chairman and CEO and his two sons, Hunt and Court, are involved with the firm.

Thomas A. James, Chairman and CEO

Obviously, the firm has remained close to its roots – a family business focused on helping people realize their dreams through long term financial planning. But the firm has also grown to be recognized as:

- Being the Southeast's leading investment firm with more than 2,200 offices.
- Pioneering the financial planning process.
- Having one of the top-rated equity research teams in the country.
- Being one of the largest employers in the Tampa Bay community.
- Having the distinction of being the first investment firm in the nation to buy the naming rights to an NFL stadium.

Through its three investment firms, Raymond James & Associates, Raymond James Financial Services and Raymond James Ltd., the firm is located throughout the United States, in Canada and in eight countries overseas.

Now in its 42nd year, Raymond James still has its international headquarters in St. Petersburg, Florida. Throughout the last 42 years, the firm has built an international reputation as a leader in investment and financial planning for individuals, corporations and municipalities.

Raymond James Financial is a highly diversified financial services firm with its own insurance company, bank, trust companies, merchant banking, venture capital and asset management subsidiaries.

Approximately 2,700 associates are employed at the firm's headquarters and more than 10,000 are affiliated with the firm worldwide. Raymond James has international offices in Argentina, Belgium, Canada, England, France, Germany, India, Switzerland and Turkey.

BUT BEING FIRST IS NOTHING NEW TO RAYMOND JAMES.

In 1998, when Raymond James decided to buy the naming rights to Tampa's new community stadium, it became the first investment firm in the United States to make such a bold move.

Raymond James is widely known as a firm of firsts. In addition to being one of the first firms to offer financial planning, it was among the first to affiliate an insurance agency in support of its financial planning process. It also became one of the first to offer clients the alternative of wrap-fee accounts and the first to provide investors with a "client bill of rights" a detailed explanation of an investor's rights and responsibilities.

In 1998, Raymond James achieved another first when it began offering investors exclusive mutual fund research with specific recommendations (highly recommended/hold-under review or not recommended) on load and no-load mutual funds and sectors.

Raymond James is also one of the industry's front runners in financial services technology, offering clients a full array of online services including real time account access, online trading in alliance with his or her personal financial advisors, and online banking services.

SERVICE MAKES RAYMOND JAMES SPECIAL

A key factor in the firm's success is its unwavering commitment to clients, embodied in its "Service 1stsm" philosophy.

Bob James, whose concern for people and their financial well-being was legendary, set this extraordinary standard for client service. The firm's commitment has only grown more resolute over the years as Tom has continued to stress his father's allegiance to client service.

The firm is also distinguished for its support of the communities in which its associates live and work. In Tampa Bay alone, Raymond James is perennially one of the largest contributors to the United Way, sponsors major art events such as the Raymond James Gasparilla Festival of the Arts, supports the Florida Orchestra, contributes to several important museums and assists many Tampa Bay educational institutions. Raymond James also encourages its associates around the world to participate enthusiastically in worthwhile volunteer activities that enrich their communities.

PHOTO ABOVE: The Raymond James Financial Center, the firm's sprawling headquarters complex, is situated on 60 acres in northeast St. Petersburg, right in the heart of the Tampa Bay area. Its four towers encompass a total of 884,000 square feet of office space. The bridge between Towers 2 and 3 is 320 feet long, making it one of the longest in Florida and a landmark in the area. The Financial Center houses the Tom and Mary James/Raymond James Financial Art Collection, the largest privately owned collection in the Southeast, and is surrounded by beautiful landscaping comprised entirely of plants and trees indigenous to Florida.

Raymond James' state-of-the-art trading floor sits atop miles of computer, phone and TV cabling under the floor.

Wall-mounted monitors keep traders constantly apprised of breaking developments in the markets.

WORK, WORK, PLAY ENVIRONMENT

It's commonly known in the Tampa Bay area that people who choose to work for Raymond James remain with the firm. Many associates have celebrated and surpassed their 20-, 25- and even 30-year anniversaries with the 42-year-old firm.

Raymond James works hard to find associates who meet the firm's standards in terms of knowledge, aptitude, energy and service orientation. And, once those employees are on board, Raymond James works even harder to ensure that they stay with the company.

While the turnover rate is low, the firm's growth rate is tremendous. This growth continues as Raymond James opened its fourth tower on its St. Petersburg campus in January 2004. On average, the firm receives thousands of applications a year and conducts interviews with nearly one-fifth. Not surprisingly, a large percentage of new hires spring from associate referrals.

Three key factors affect the high employee retention rate at Raymond James. They are the firm's distinctive "work, work, play" environment, its flexibility with regard to work schedules and dress, and the educational opportunities it offers. In addition to its own on-site "university," Raymond James encourages associates to continue advancing their educations by way of a generous tuition reimbursement program.

A SIGHT TO BEHOLD, THE TOM AND MARY JAMES/RAYMOND JAMES FINANCIAL ART COLLECTION

Another benefit enjoyed by associates at the Raymond James is the opportunity to enjoy magnificent art throughout The Raymond James Financial Center. The Tom and Mary James/Raymond James Financial Art Collection is one of the largest private collections in the Southeast and runs the gamut from Wall Street paintings by Leroy Neiman to stunning outdoor Indian bronzes by Dave McGary.

The collection is maintained by a full-time curator who supervises associate, client and community tours on a regular basis. Part of the tour includes a new bronze garden with life-size sculptures primarily featuring southwest subjects.

It may seem like a stretch for a firm that specializes in investment and financial planning and is noted for its art and community involvement to partner with the hard-hitting star of the National Football League, the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. But it's proven to be a good match.

FINANCES AND FOOTBALL — AN INTELLIGENT MIX

Tom believes that the national exposure of having the firm's name associated with one of the NFL's finest sports facilities pays big dividends in building brand identity beyond the boundaries of Florida.

The partnership between the Buccaneers and Raymond James has proven to be a good one. Several Buccaneers have interned at Raymond James to learn more about the corporate world and hone their business skills and more internships are planned. Others have joined the firm after retiring.

Raymond James is also working with Bucs Kicker Martin Gramatica on a special program, now in its fifth year, designed to benefit children's hospitals in the Tampa Bay area and other NFL cities in which the Bucs play. Since the program's inception, $57,750 has been donated to children's hospitals around the country.

According to Tom, "We're proud to have our firm's name associated with the Buccaneers and look forward to growing that partnership by having our two teams work together to improve the community of Tampa Bay."

BUCCANEERS IN THE COMMUNITY

The Tampa Bay Buccaneers owners, players, coaches and staff members support a variety of community programs. During 2003, members from all areas of the Buccaneers organization donated significant amounts of time and funding to established charities, and several created their own philanthropic programs. The following is just a sample of the many community programs Buccaneers have supported over the past year:

Following the Super Bowl victory in January, Buccaneers FB Mike Alstott was presented a key to the City by St. Petersburg Mayor Rick Baker.

FB Mike Alstott and WR Joe Jurevicius served as honorary Grand Marshals for the St. Petersburg Grand Prix.

Buccaneers defensive back, and Detroit-native, Dwight Smith was an honorary guest at the opening ceremonies for the Detroit Tigers newly renovated Joker Marchant Stadium in Lakeland.

Buccaneers WR Joe Jurevicius spent the evening signing autographs, touring the facility and visiting with children from the Children's Medical Services program and the Medical Foster Care program at the Florida Aquarium.

The Buccaneers hosted the annual Bank of America FanFest, an event that gave fans the opportunity to meet and receive autographs from players and coaches. By purchasing autograph cards, fans helped raise funds for several Tampa Bay area charities. Fans also had the opportunity to participate in interactive games and attractions on the field, a question and answer session with Buccaneers coaches, photo opportunities with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers Cheerleaders and a complimentary photo by the Pirate Ship.

Pro Bowl LB Derrick Brooks hosted an 11-day tour of New York, Chicago, Atlanta and Tallahassee, FL for 28 students from the Brandon, Wilbert Davis and Ybor City Boys & Girls Clubs as part of his Brooks' Bunch & Beyond 2003 program.

LB Derrick Brooks greets the students that attend Buccaneers home games through his "Brooks' Bunch" program.

To earn a spot on the trip, students were required to write essays, perform various research assignments and interview in front of a panel of judges. All assignments, along with the students' attendance and behavioral marks during the classes, were tabulated and counted towards a final grade for the class. Students who completed their assignments, demonstrated good behavior and maintained their grades in school earned a ticket.

The 2003 & Beyond tour included stops at Julliard, the Empire State Building, NFL Headquarters, Wrigley Field, Loyola University, the Martin Luther King, Jr. Center, Georgia Tech, Florida A&M University and Florida State University.

The Buccaneers and Pewter Partner TECO Energy sponsored two football season kick-off events with the local area Chambers of Commerce. Buccaneers WR Joe Jurevicius and DT Anthony McFarland provided the Greater Tampa, St. Petersburg and Clearwater Chamber of Commerce members insight into the upcoming 2003 NFL Season.

Wide receivers Joe Jurevicius and Keenan McCardell provided a helping hand to the Susan G. Komen Race for the Cure by participating in their annual Pink Martinis at the Blue Martini event to help raise awareness for breast cancer.

Pro Bowl FB Mike Alstott hosted the annual Mike Alstott Youth Football Camp, a four-day event that typically involves 350 Bay area children. Every year Mike brings together a group of instructors that consist of professional players and high school and college coaches to teach the clinics.

The Tampa Bay Buccaneers and Eckerd Corporation teamed up, for the fourth consecutive year, to sponsor "NFL 101" for women. The 300 winners of the Eckerd's sweepstakes attended "NFL 101," along with two of their friends. The groups received tips from Buccaneers Linebacker coach Joe Barry, Special Teams Coach Rich Bisaccia, K Martin Gramatica, Defensive Backs Coach Mike Tomlin, and Running Backs Coach Art Valero who demonstrated different plays, stances and techniques. All women who attended NFL 101 received a play book that details several basics of the game, including history, strategy, terminology, formations, and positions and a gift pack provided by Eckerd.

The Buccaneer Women's Organization, a charitable group formed by the wives, fiancées and girlfriends of the Buccaneer players and coaches, held their annual Fall Festival for a group of underprivileged children. At the festival, kids enjoyed arts and crafts, games, food and prizes and received a Buccaneers gift bag filled with candy and Buccaneers merchandise. The kids also had the opportunity to participate in the Buccaneers Gatorade Junior Training Camp, a mini football clinic that involves executing several football and agility drills.

Buccaneers WR Joe Jurevicius, LB Ryan Nece, QB Chris Simms and C John Wade, along with Meagan Jurevicius and Natalie Wade, celebrated Halloween with the boys and girls at the Children's Home. The players, along with Buccaneers Student Advisory Board members, help the children choose and carve pumpkins and decorate trick-or-treat bags. At the Halloween party, there were also face painting and temporary tattoo station, as well as, a contest for the best pumpkin and trick-or-treat bag design.

The Tampa Bay Buccaneers participated in the signing of a Statement of Support for the U.S. National Guard and Reserve at MacDill Air Force Base. When companies sign a Statement of Support they recognize the National Guard and Reserve as essential to the strength of our nation and the well-being of their local communities. In the highest American tradition, the patriotic men and women of the National Guard and Reserve serve voluntarily in an honorable and vital profession. They train to respond to their communities, their states and their country in times of need. They deserve the support of every segment of our society.

Tampa Bay Buccaneers LB Shelton Quarles, LB Ryan Nece and G Jason Whittle visited the inmates at the Polk Correctional Institution to address the importance of making informed decisions and the impact poor decisions can have on their future and speak about their faith.

Buccaneers S John Howell, C Austin King, LB Ryan Nece and QB Chris Simms helped cook and serve food to the veterans at James A. Haley VA Hospital on Veteran's Day.

Buccaneers fullback Mike Alstott and CB Brian Kelly were presented with a special American flag by pilots Lt. Col. Mike "Tiger" Greiger, Lt. Col. Glenn "Ghost" Schmidt, Capt. Scott "Coma" Schaupter, Capt. Jon "Chester" Rubin and Capt. Matt "Magoo" Hopkins in honor of the Buccaneers support for our Armed Forces at halftime of their game against the Green Bay Packers. The flag that was being presented to the Buccaneers was flown by the 127th Wing, 107th Fighter Squadron over Iraq and during Operation Noble Eagle Homeland Defense missions and was presented on behalf of the men and women serving in the National Guard and Reserves.

Tampa Bay Buccaneers QB Brad Johnson, RB Michael Pittman and G John Wade read to children at the Easter Seals in support of their "Reading & Rocking" literacy program.

LB Derrick Brooks gave away 100 meals that included a Thanksgiving turkey, green beans, corn, potatoes, dinner rolls and desert at the Brandon, Wilbert Davis & Ybor City Boys & Girls Clubs.

WR Keenan McCardell distributed 87 turkeys to residents of the Bay Area. McCardell will drive around the Bay Area in the Buccaneers in the Community van distributing turkeys to those in need, stopping at homeless shelters, churches and low-income homes.

Buccaneers T Anthony Davis, WR Fabian Davis, TE Will Heller, C Austin King, S Travaris Robinson and QB Chris Simms helped stuff and distribute food baskets at the Metropolitan Ministries holiday food tent.

The Buccaneers Cheerleaders and members of the Buccaneers Student Advisory Board helped stuff and distribute food baskets at the Metropolitan Ministries holiday food tent.

Buccaneers K Martin Gramatica provided 400 boxes filled with non-perishable food items and 400 boxes of household items to Metropolitan Ministries as part of the Feed the Children program.

Buccaneers Pro Bowl LB Derrick Brooks distributed tennis shoes and Christmas gifts to members of the Belmont Heights and Ybor City Boys and Girls Clubs during his annual Christmas party.

Running back Michael Pittman spent some time with eager readers at the Easter Seals "Reading and Rocking" event.

Buccaneers FB Mike Alstott, LB Ryan Nece and S Jermaine Phillips visited the patients at All Children's Hospital to distribute pennants, take Polaroid photos, sign autographs and help brighten their holiday season.

Linebacker Ryan Nece and S Jermaine Phillips delivered Thanksgiving meals to the residents of Falkenburg Academy, a military-style institution for youth offenders.

Buccaneers LB Mike Brown, LB Ryan Nece, S Jermaine Phillips and DE Dewayne White visited the patients at All Children's Hospital and sang Christmas carols for the residents of the North Shore Retirement Home during the holidays.

Tampa Bay Buccaneers WR Keenan McCardell provided 20 lucky kids with a Christmas present they will not soon forget. The 20 kids, that were selected by the Hillsborough Department of Health and Social Services, each received a $500 shopping spree from the Buccaneers wide receiver to use as the please at Kay Bee Toy & Hobby Shop.

The Buccaneers continued their "Tackle Math with the Buccaneers" initiative for Hillsborough and Pinellas County 7th graders. Tackle Math with the Buccaneers is a program designed to teach and reinforce the math skills of seventh grade students while providing an entertaining format for learning. The curriculum features math exercises with football themes for an entire school year. Every seventh grade math class in Hillsborough and Pinellas counties received the materials for the program, which include student playbooks, a coach's (teacher's) manual, transparencies, an interactive CD ROM, a video introducing the program, and a Tackle Math poster.

Several Buccaneers donated to Bay area charities by sponsoring on-field-incentive programs. Kicker Martin Gramatica sponsored "Kicking for Kids" in conjunction with Raymond James Financial. For every field goal Martin kicked at Raymond James Stadium, Raymond James Financial donated $500 to various Bay area children's hospitals. For every field goal he kicked during a road game, Raymond James donated $500 to that city's children's hospital. For each touchdown he made, Pro Bowl FB Mike Alstott contributed money to the Mike Alstott Fund, which benefits various Bay area children's charities. QB Brad Johnson works with the University of Phoenix and Saint Leo University to sponsor the "Quarterbacking for Education" program. For every touchdown Brad scores, running or passing, the University of Phoenix and Saint Leo University donate $100 to the MacDill Education Council, Inc., a nonprofit foundation that promotes the continuation of higher education within the Armed Forces in the Tampa Bay area. The donations are made for touchdowns Brad scores during preseason, regular season and postseason Buccaneers games.

The Buccaneers continued the NFL/Buccaneers Community Quarterback Award, a national program that recognizes volunteers in the 31 NFL markets who demonstrate leadership, dedication and a commitment to bettering the community in which they live. The Buccaneers appointed a review committee made up of team representatives, media and community leaders to review nominations. Once selected, the Buccaneers and NFL Charities made grants in the name of the winners to the non-profit organizations where they serve. Six finalists received $2,000 grants and the overall winner received an extra $8,000 grant for their charity. The Buccaneers' overall winner was Jimmy Garner, of Plant City, for his work with the Best Buddies program.

Wide Receiver Keenan McCardell helps a youngster collect toys at his annual Christmas shopping spree with children from the Hillsborough County Department of Children's Services.

The Buccaneers selected their fourth Student Advisory Board, an all-student committee that brings together high school students to perform marketing and community service projects and develop their leadership skills in preparation for continuing their education. Student Advisory Board members serve as liaisons between the Buccaneers and their schools, and are responsible for working on community service projects and developing creative techniques to promote Buccaneer spirit at their high schools.

The Buccaneers hosted an NFL-high number of charitable groups and school children at every home game as part of the game day ticket program. Buccaneers who hosted groups were Owner/President Malcolm Glazer, FB Mike Alstott, LB Derrick Brooks, TE Ken Dilger, K Martin Gramatica, Head Coach Jon Gruden, G Kerry Jenkins, QB Brad Johnson, WR Keenan McCardell, DT Anthony "Booger" McFarland, T Roman Oben, LB Shelton Quarles, C John Wade, T Kenyatta Walker and G Jason Whittle.

The Buccaneers were a Finish Line sponsor of the Susan G. Komen Tampa Bay Race for the Cure, a local component of the national event designed to raise funds for breast cancer education, screening and treatment programs. The Buccaneers had a team of walkers that consisted of Buccaneer Women's Organization members, Student Advisory Board members and Buccaneer Cheerleaders.

THE GLAZER FAMILY FOUNDATION

FOUNDATION

The Glazer Family Foundation is dedicated to assisting charitable and educational causes in the Tampa Bay region. The Foundation works with established not-for-profit organizations that create programs for youth and families that support positive social and economic development within the community.

The Foundation has contributed more than $2 million in programs, grants, tickets and merchandise to the Bay area. In 2004, the Foundation is continuing to support youth through community programs and corporate partnerships.

CHEERING YOU ON

An ongoing program that provides all pediatric patients admitted to seven area hospitals with a Tampa Bay Buccaneers stuffed teddy bear and activity book. The Foundation has distributed more than 115,000 bears and books in West Central Florida.

YOUTH WITH PROMISE

During each NFL season, the Foundation hosts 100 Youth with Promise at all Buccaneers home games. More than 5,000 youth representing 100 organizations from the Bay area have been rewarded with free game tickets, food and car flags. The youth receive this privilege based on achieving goals of incentive programs implemented by community agencies.

MAKE READING YOUR GOAL

This summer, the Foundation continued its reading program, which provided area children with a free Buccaneer bookmark when they checked out a book from their local public libraries. Over the past four years, the Foundation has provided a total of 600,000 bookmarks to libraries throughout seven counties. The bookmarks, which highlight a different Buccaneer player on each successive bookmark, have featured QB Brad Johnson, FB Mike Alstott, LB Derrick Brooks and CB Ronde Barber.

BACKPACK IT BACK-TO-SCHOOL

In its fourth year, the Foundation's Back-to-School program donated backpacks to 10 different organizations throughout Hillsborough, Pinellas and Orange Counties. Over the past four summers, a total of 6,000 backpacks filled with school supplies and Buccaneers merchandise have been distributed. Some recipient organizations include NFL YET Centers, Haven Poe Runaway Center and Healthy Start Coalition.

TOYS FOR TOTS DRIVE

The Foundation teamed up with the U.S. Marine Corps Reserve (USMC) for the annual Toys for Tots drive last season. The event celebrated 27 years of the Buccaneers and the USMC partnering for the Toys for Tots program. The Marines collected thousands of toys from the generous Buccaneers fans at the game.

For the fourth year, the Foundation teamed up with Raymond James and four Bay area food banks to help "CAN HUNGER" at last season's Buccaneers vs. Packers game. This annual food drive has contributed more than 125,000 lbs. of food to assist community food banks.

"CAN HUNGER" FOOD DRIVE

TAMPA BAY SPORTS COMMISSION

This past spring, the Foundation donated $52,500 to the Tampa Bay Sports Commission for its support of amateur athletic activities in Hillsborough and Pinellas Counties. The Foundation donates $7,500 for every Buccaneers victory and has contributed a total of $520,000.

A GIFT FOR TEACHING

Last season, the Foundation teamed up with Winn Dixie and A Gift for Teaching to conduct a school supply drive. Representatives from A Gift for Teaching, an organization which provides classroom materials free-of-charge to teachers, collected school supplies as fans enter the stadium to watch the Buccaneers take on the Colts. Almost $10,000 worth of school supplies were collected and distributed back into the Tampa Bay community.

CHEERLEADERS

Introduced into the NFL in 1976, the team's 28-member dance team is known as the Tampa Bay Buccaneers Cheerleaders. The squad is comprised of athletes, businesswomen, mothers and full-time college students. The squad makes approximately 300 community appearances every year for both non-profit organizations and corporate events. In addition to their volunteer work in the Bay area community, the Tampa Bay Buccaneers Cheerleaders make regular appearances all over the United States, serving as ambassadors for the Buccaneer organization. The team has performed in locations outside of the Bay area, including Asia, Canada, Egypt, Germany, California, Hawaii and Texas.

SANDY CHARBONEAU CHEERLEADING/MASCOT COORDINATOR

Sandy Charboneau enters her second season with the Buccaneers as Cheerleading Coordinator after spending two years as a Cheerleading Assistant. The 2004 season marks Charboneau's 12th season overall with the club, as she spent her first seven seasons performing as a member of the squad. In 2002, Charboneau directed the Buccaneers cheerleading squad during its first-ever Super Bowl performance. Charboneau, who boasts more than 21 years of cheerleading and dance experience, commands and prepares the squad's pre-game and sideline dance routines, while also managing its day-to-day operations and scheduling of community and corporate appearances. Under Charboneau's guidance, the Tampa Bay Buccaneers are committed to creating a dynamic, exciting game day atmosphere for Buccaneers fans. Charboneau also manages Captain Fear the Buccaneer, as well as the Pewter Pirates. She will also direct the Junior Program for its seventh consecutive season. At the conclusion of the program, participants will perform during one of the Buccaneers' NFL Halftime Shows.

For more information about the Tampa Bay Buccaneers Cheerleaders and mascot, log onto www.buccaneers.com or call (813) 870-2700.

BUCCANEERS PRESEASON TELEVISION

CHRIS MYERS

In its second season as the Buccaneers' home for preseason football, News Channel 8 WFLA-TV will provide local coverage for all four of the Bucs' preseason games. In addition, News Channel 8 WFLA-TV will also provide halftime reports and a live hour-long pre-game show from each preseason location.

Chris Myers will enter his second season in the broadcast booth for Tampa Bay as the play-by-play man during the preseason. Since joining Fox in 1998, Myers has hosted Fox SportsNet's The NFL Show, Fox's NASCAR pre-race show, The National Sports Report and Goin' Deep. He was also a sideline reporter and post-game reporter for the NFL's international feed during Tampa Bay's victory in Super Bowl XXXVII.

RON JAWORSKI

During an 11-year tenure with ESPN, Myers was involved with a number of programs, including hosting Up Close, anchoring SportsCenter and reporting on Baseball Tonight. Myers also worked closely with Ron Jaworski as host of ESPN's NFL Matchup. While at ESPN, Myers won his first Emmy for Top Sports Feature. Myers began his career at age 16 in Miami when he hosted his own football radio show called The Chris Myers Football Scoreboard.

Ron Jaworski will continue to serve as the color analyst during the Buccaneers' preseason for his sixth season. Jaworski has provided analysis on a myriad of NFL shows for ESPN the past 13 years, including NFL Monday Night Countdown, Edge NFL Matchup and NFL 2 Night. He is also a frequent contributor as a pre- and post-game reporter on NFL Sunday Countdown. Additionally, the former Philadelphia Eagles quarterback was nominated for an Emmy in 1996 for his work as the host of Eagles Game Day Live.

J.P. PETERSON

J.P. Peterson re-joined the Buccaneers as the game day anchor for the Bucs' pre-season broadcasts where he served from 1997-99 with WTOG-TV UPN 44. Peterson once again will handle the sideline duties for pre-game, halftime and post-game interviews. Peterson is the lead sports anchor for News Channel 8 WFLA-TV, Tampa Bay's NBC Affiliate and has been with the station since 1999.

Among his duties on WFLA-TV, Peterson also co-hosts the station's Sunday Sports Extra show with Buccaneers CB Ronde Barber. The show was named the Best Sportscast in the State of Florida by the Associated Press, and Peterson also earned a SPJ Award (Society Professional Journalist) for his role on the show.

Peterson has also co-hosted a national sports talk show The Daily Sports Source on Fox SportsNet. Before moving to Tampa, Peterson worked at WXIV-TV in Greensboro, N.C. and WTXL-TV in Tallahassee. While in Tallahassee, Peterson worked for the FSU Radio Network as the game day anchor for football games and the analyst for the FSU basketball broadcasts alongside Gene Deckerhoff, the Voice of the Buccaneers. Peterson has won numerous awards, including the prestigious Edward R. Murrow award for sports reporting, multiple AP awards and one of his features was recognized for a prestigious Emmy award.

NewsChannel 8 WFLA-TV will also host a one-hour pre-game show leading up to all four preseason games. The show, hosted by Peterson, will review the previous week's contest and look ahead to the upcoming opponent.

Sunday Sports Extra will air weekly on NewsChannel 8 WFLA-TV featuring J.P. Peterson, Dave Reynolds, Roy Cummings and co-host Tampa Bay Buccaneers CB Ronde Barber.

BUCCANEERS RADIO NETWORK

In its first year, Clear Channel's Thunder 103.5 FM will serve as the flagship station for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers' Radio Network. Thunder will broadcast all Buccaneer games in stereo with a 100,000-watt signal that blankets the Tampa Bay area. Clear Channel will also simulcast Buccaneer football on its sister station, 620 WDAE-AM.

Clear Channel Communications, Inc., headquartered in San Antonio, Texas, is a global leader in the media and entertainment industry with radio and television stations, outdoor advertising displays, and live entertainment venues in 65 countries around the world. Thunder 103.5 (WTBT - 103.5FM) is the official flagship station of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers and Tampa Bay's Home of Classic Rock, and Bob and Tom mornings, weekdays from 6am - 10am. 620 WDAE The Sports Animal is Tampa Bay's premier Sports station, and one of the five most listened to sports radio stations in the United States.

Handling the play-by-play duties for the 16th straight season is Gene Deckerhoff. Deckerhoff's 16 years of service with the Buccaneers currently ranks as the sixth-longest in the NFL. Considered one of the nation's premier play-by-play announcers, Deckerhoff has also served as the voice of Florida State University football and basketball for the past 25 years.

Deckerhoff is the former play-by-play man for the USFL's Tampa Bay Bandits and also served as the sports director for WCTV-TV in Tallahassee. Deckerhoff is a five-time recipient of the Florida Sportscaster of the Year award.

Buccaneer fans across the state can tune into Tampa Bay games thanks to the Buccaneers' Radio Network. Deckerhoff's descriptions of the action and all of the attending pre-game, halftime and post-game action are simulcast on radio stations ranging from South Florida to the Panhandle.

Once again, Orlando fans can catch all the Buccaneer game day action on WQTM, 740 AM. A full list of Tampa Bay Buccaneers' Radio Network affiliates is in the box below.

For the first time ever, all Buccaneer games will be broadcast on Buccaneers.com.

2004 TRAINING CAMP

For the third consecutive season, the Buccaneers' training camp will be held at Disney's Wide World of Sports Complex in Lake Buena Vista, Florida.

Tampa Bay is the first and only NFL team to conduct training camp at the sports complex at Walt Disney World Resort. Prior to the 2002 training camp, the Buccaneers trained at the University of Tampa from 1987-2001. Disney's complex, which is approximately one hour east of Tampa, provides the Buccaneers with practice fields, locker room, training room and many other first-class facilities.

DATES: The Buccaneers will report to training camp on Friday, July 30 and begin practices on Saturday, July 31. The club is scheduled to break camp on Wednesday, August 18 following a morning practice. All dates are subject to change.

PRACTICES: While Disney's Wide World of Sports complex has a daily admission for its events, Buccaneer practices at training camp will be free to all fans and open to the public.

MEDIA PARKING: The sports complex includes ample parking in excess of more than 3,500 spaces. Media parking will be available in the front two rows of the parking lot. All parking locations are free of charge. The main lot offers handicap-accessible spaces closest to the sports complex main walkway.

DIRECTIONS TO DISNEY'S WIDE WORLD OF SPORTS COMPLEX

Traveling East on I-4

Take I-4 East to Exit 62 (World Dr. North). Exit right to Osceola Parkway. Take a right on Victory Way, which leads to the sports complex. Park in the designated media area in the front of the main lot and proceed to the main entrance.

Traveling West on I-4

Take I-4 West to Exit 65 (Osceola Parkway West). Take a left on Victory Way, which leads to the sports complex. Park in the designated media area in the front of main lot and proceed to the main entrance.

From the Orlando International Airport

Take 417 South to Walt Disney World and take Exit 3 (Osceola Parkway West). Go over I-4 onto Disney property and then take a left on Victory Way, which leads to the sports complex. Park in the designated media area in the front of the main lot and proceed to the main entrance.

DIRECTIONS TO THE FOOTBALL FIELDS AFTER ENTERING THE COMPLEX

Media may get from the parking lot to the field by walking along the main sidewalk past the ballpark and the Milk House to the sports fields. Media may get from the parking lot to the press room by walking along the main sidewalk and taking a left into the ballpark. (There will be an open gate directly across from the main entrance to the All Star Cafe). The opening in the gate is adjacent to an elevator. Take the elevator to the fourth floor and the press box is just ahead to the right.

To get from the press box to the sports fields, take the elevator back down to the second floor. Exit the elevator and walk outside the ballpark gate. Walk past the ballpark and the All Star Cafe and then past the Milk House. The fields are down the stairs and directly ahead.

MEDIA POLICIES AND GAMEDAY INFORMATION

MEDIA POLICIES

Interview Requests: All interview requests for Tampa Bay Buccaneers players, coaches, executives or staff members should be directed to the Public Relations Department, headed by Director of Public Relations Jeff Kamis. Interviews to be conducted by phone must be arranged at least two days in advance and will be subject to availability. Head Coach Jon Gruden will address the media directly after the team's afternoon practice on Wednesday and Thursday and will make a weekly conference call each Wednesday to speak with the opposing team's media. Gruden's scheduled day-after-game press conference during the regular season will be at 11:00 a.m. at One Buccaneer Place.

Open Locker Room Periods: The Buccaneers' locker room is open for accredited media each Wednesday and Thursday for 45 minutes. Selected Buccaneer players will also be available to the media following workouts on Friday, with the assistance of team public relations personnel. Times for the open locker room session are available by contacting the PR department at (813) 870-2700. Players and coaches are not available for interviews on Tuesdays.

Practice Regulations: Times for the team's weekly practices are available by calling the Buccaneers' PR department. All practices are closed to the media. Media, still photographers and videographers may attend the first 15 minutes of practice. A member of the Buccaneers' PR department will escort the media back to the practice field after the conclusion of the team's afternoon practice to conduct interviews with head coach Jon Gruden and other members of the coaching staff. Buccaneer players will not be available for interviews after practice.

Game Credentials: Credential requests are honored for accredited media on specific assignment and must be made through the Buccaneers' PR department. Credentials will not be issued to writers or photographers working on a free-lance basis unless the request is made by a recognized publication or news organization. Season-long credentials are issued in August; game-by-game credentials must be requested at least one week prior to each home game. All credential requests must be submitted to Jeff Kamis, Director of Public Relations, One Buccaneer Place, Tampa, FL 33607, or by fax at (813) 878-0813 and must be on the requesting organization's letterhead.

Press Releases: The Buccaneers' weekly press release, including updated statistics, player bios, etc., may be obtained in the team's press facility at One Buccaneer Place or on the internet at www.buccaneers.com in the media center. To access the media center, please contact the PR department for a user name and password. The team's weekly injury report, which is first released on Wednesday and updated on Thursday and Friday, can be found in the same locations.

GAMEDAY INFORMATION

Entry: The media entrance at Raymond James Stadium is located near Dock D on the the southwest corner of the facility. The entrance to the media lobby can be found just north of the southwest ramps and just south of the television truck parking area. The press box and television and radio booths may be reached via a media-dedicated elevator on the east side of the lobby.

Will Call: Members of the media needing to pick up their pass at the game will find the media will call area just inside the media entrance at Dock D. Ticket will call is located on the south end of the stadium, accessible from the outside between Ramps C and D.

Phones: Media needing a phone on gameday must contact Tom Galloghy of Sprint (813-249-3043) prior to the day of the game. If you do not place an order prior to the day of the game, you will be responsible for any charges from Sprint for setting up these services on gameday.

Locker Room Access: Both team locker rooms will be open to press bearing the proper credentials following the NFL-mandated 10-minute cooling-off period. The media elevator will transport members of the press that wish to visit the locker room at a designated time in the fourth quarter. To reach either locker room from the press box, simply take the elevator to the ground level and follow the corridor running parallel to the field's west sideline. NOTE: No interviews of players for either team are allowed on the field following the game.
